Part 1: Read the following passage and choose the best answer for each blank. (1 point)

More than a billion people all over the world are under the threat of desert expansion, but few of them are (26) _____ that they themselves cause it and are also its victims. People cut (27) _____ trees for fuel and farmland. Their herds eat up the grass covering valley floors and hillsides. The climate and soil quality, therefore, are affected and forests are turned into (28) _____.

In some places, many people had to leave their homes (29) _____ their wells became dry and sand buried their houses and crops. Therefore, governments in nearby areas have helped local people plant trees and banned burning firewood for fuel. Many other techniques have been used. For example, in Iran, a thin covering of oil was poured on sandy areas to retain water for planting trees, but this method may harm the environment. Other countries built long canals or pipelines (30) _____ water to desert areas.

Unless people find more effective methods, their homes and land will be lost. The fight against the desert is continuing.
