I retain the rights to the original images that I created for the character. I am allowed to use those original images as I see fit.

- Posting Artwork:

I would prefer to not have the NSFW alt version (if applicable) of your character posted publicly, as I try to keep my NSFW art paywalled. This is just a sure way to make sure that anybody that is viewing my artwork is over 18. Feel free to post it in private places like Discord groups, ETC. I'd just prefer the NSFW version to not be posted on a place like Twitter.

Once payment is received, that character is now yours! Feel free to roleplay, commission or really do whatever you want with them! As outlined above, I ask that you only post the low rez copy of the images online. You may alter the image for personal use as you like. I ask that you source me as the artist.
