

Wanna See Every Shopify Store You Make Fail Miserably?

If your answer to the question above was yes, I must politely ask you to click off, this ain't the place for you, however if you said no... Listen up, over the last 6 years I've tried every design trick, every 'flawless' template, took every 'expert' course I could get my hands on, watched every video, webinar and read every single book out there. And after hours spent researching and testing, I can promise you one thing for sure. 99% of these "proven" methods will bring you absolutely NOTHING but failure, a deep sense of regret and a VERY empty bank account. If you're unsure if you've come across the golden-needle in the haystack or just another empty promise built of 'daddy's money' then Book a call with me today. I will clear the fog, cut past the B.S and set you on the fast track to your financial security.

Hey Michael,

I was looking over the sales page for your beginner dropshipping course, and I had a brilliant idea. I noticed some writing techniques that are often used by persuasive writers like John Carlton and Gary Halbert, and I thought I could apply them to your site to increase its conversion rate. By doing so, we could encourage more readers to take their first step towards making a big purchase.

So, I took the time to rewrite the descriptions of each of your products so you could see results for yourself. I hope you find this helpful.

Thank you, Jackson
