

University of Malaya AUN-DPPnet Postgraduate Scholarship 2023/2024 (Funded by The Nippon Foundation)

AUN-Disability and Public Policy (AUN-DPPnet) is the 12th thematic of ASEAN University Network (AUN) based in the University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur. AUN-DPPnet aspires to support postgraduate education for the disabled people across ASEAN to advocate disability policies in their own country. The University of Malaya AUN-DPPnet is supported financially by The Nippon Foundation of Japan.

Disabled applicants with outstanding academic accomplishment from ASEAN countries are invited to apply this scholarship to further their postgraduate studies (by coursework) in any field at selected institutions within the ASEAN University Network.

Eligibility Criteria:

- i. ASEAN Nationals i.e. Malaysia, Brunei, Thailand, Indonesia, Philippines, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, Singapore and Myanmar;
- ii. Applicants must have completed their Bachelor's Degree with good academic standing;
- iii. Applicants must be certified medically by a Professional Medical Practitioner, to have some categories of disability but of excellent health condition to be eligible for this scholarship. The cost of medical examination to be borne by applicants.
- iv. Applicants must have secured admission to selected member institution of AUN. However, those who have made applications for postgraduate studies, but have not yet received an offer letter are encouraged to apply;

Application Procedure	Important Notes
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Download Application from AUN-DPPnet Website. 2. Complete Application with the following enclosures: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● A copy of the admission letter from the university. ● Attested copies of all transcript and testimonials. ● CV or Resume. ● Medical Report by a Registered Medical Practitioner/PWD Card ● 600 word essay describing work experience. ● Letter of Recommendation from Employer or Institution to be addressed directly to AUN-DPPnet. 3. Submit to University Malaya AUN-DPPnet email address. 	University of Malaya AUN-DPPnet Scholarship covers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Approved Tuition Fees; ● Monthly Scholarship; ● Return Flight ticket; ● Associated allowance required to complete study. Submission address: Secretariat AUN-DPPnet Level 8, Mercu Alam Bina, Faculty of Built Environment, University of Malaya, 50603 Kuala Lumpur, MALAYSIA. Email Contact: aundpp@um.edu.my

Application closing date: 31 JULY 2023