Part I – Candidate Background

Please briefly describe your qualifications, education, employment, community and civic activity, union affiliation, and other relevant experience. Optional: you may attach a resume with more complete history, if desired.

What prompted you to run for this office? What priorities are you seeking to address with your campaign?

List the notable endorsements you have received to date (Other elected officials, labor unions, community leaders)

Describe the progress of your campaign and campaign goals. For example, what media engagements (paid advertising, interviews, news articles, social media buzz, etc.) has your campaign received? How much money have you raised, and from how many donors? How many doors have you knocked on?

Are you a current member of the Long Beach Democratic Club?

Part II – Candidate Questions

Between the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic, the widening wealth gap and economic uncertainty, and increasing political violence and extremism at home and abroad, today's political realities have had a major impact on Long Beach communities. Can you share an example of how you have shown leadership during these or other turbulent times?

What issues and policy areas do you want to immediately work on if elected to office? Who are the key organizations/groups you may approach to partner?

What are 2-3 needs that must be priorities for Los Angeles County to address? Why do you see these as needs?

What are 2-3 strengths of which Los Angeles County can be proud? Why do you classify these as strengths?

What steps would you take to increase participation in city government, particularly among voices not currently engaged or well represented?

Additional Comments? (Use this space to make any final comments you deem important for our members to consider about your candidacy.)

I affirm that all the information provided in response to this questionnaire is true, complete and correct, to the best of my ability, and that no relevant matter has been omitted.
