COASTAL GREEN[®]

WELLNES S

1. THCa Flower

THCa flower, also known as flower raw, is the unheated form of cannabis flower, rich in Tetrahydrocannabinolic Acid (THCa). As a non-psychoactive cannabinoid, it offers the benefits of cannabis without the psychoactive properties associated with delta-9 THC. Our selection of THCa flower includes Spectrum THCA Flower and other premium high THCa flowers, providing a high-quality cannabis experience.

2. THCa Concentrates

For those seeking a more concentrated form of THCa, concentrates such as shatter, wax, and resin are excellent choices. These high-quality THCa flower products offer a powerful, fast-acting THC experience due to their high potency levels. They can be consumed using dab rigs or vaporizers, offering a potent and immediate effect.

3. THCa Edibles

THCa edibles are ideal for those who prefer not to smoke or vaporize. These include gummies, chocolates, and other treats infused with THCa. Edibles provide a discreet and convenient way to consume this non-psychoactive cannabinoid, offering longer-lasting effects compared to inhalation methods.

4. THCa Tinctures

Tinctures are liquid extracts of THCa that can be taken sublingually (under the tongue) or added to food and beverages. They provide a controlled dosage and are a great option for those seeking precision and convenience in their THCa consumption.

5. THCa Topicals

THCa-infused topicals include creams, balms, and lotions applied directly to the skin. These products are designed for localized relief from pain and inflammation without any psychoactive properties, making them suitable for targeted therapeutic use.

6. THCa Capsules

Capsules offer a precise and convenient way to consume THCa. They are easy to incorporate into your daily routine and provide a consistent dosage. This form of THCa is ideal for those looking for a discreet and straightforward method of consumption.

Each type of THCa product offers unique benefits and methods of consumption, allowing users to choose the best option for their lifestyle and wellness goals. Whether you prefer the traditional approach of smoking high-quality THCa flower, the potent experience of concentrates, or the convenience of edibles and tinctures, there's a THCa product to suit every need.
