

November 25th Announcements

General Announcements

- Calling all artists! The BVHS Climate Action Club has organized an Art Contest! This contest has a goal of spreading awareness for climate action in a variety of ways. Choose from three inspirational prompts and many media styles! Selected pieces will be displayed at an evening showcase located in the Tantallon Public Library. Art pieces must be submitted to room 2015 during the last week of school before winter break. Please include a Name and school email with submitted art. For more details, follow the instagram @bvhs.climateaction
- Did you know students who go to peer tutoring can raise their grades by up to 20%? Today's peer tutors are Sofia, Sana, Riya, and Abby! They'll be in the library at lunch; stop by for a quick review or just to ask a question!

Guidance Announcements

- Join the School counselling google classrooms and their Instagram account for info on colleges, universities, scholarships, jobs and contests!
