-TOS-

- Full payment is required before I finish and send a commission, I will send an invoice. Through PayPal or Stripe, USD only. Prices are firm and aren't up for negotiation.
  - Partial payment/payment plans accepted. Minimum of half the total price is required up front. I will start sketching once the minimum has been paid, and begin finishing once the invoice is paid in full. The finished commission will only be sent to you after I receive the full amount.
- A reference image of some kind for a character is required! Even if it's in MS Paint.
- Commissions are for personal use only! You may not resell my work. You may not alter or edit my work in any way or have another artist do so. You may crop/resize how you like. Feel free to post them wherever, just make sure you credit me, please!
  - You may NOT turn my art into an NFT of any kind, since that's a thing now
- I can edit a piece up to two times in the sketch phase (facial expression, hand placement, but not the main pose!) After that, I won't change anything. Apologies if this is an inconvenience!
- Please allow around 1 week - 2 months from the time I receive the payment and start sketching to complete your commission. Turnaround is usually pretty fast!
  - Depending on how complex the piece is or full my queue is, it may take a bit longer. However, you will be kept updated if that's the case.
- Refunds: If you decide you would like to cancel BEFORE I start working on a piece for you I can issue a full refund. If a sketch has already been started you may receive a partial refund based on the current stage it is in. If the piece is already completed I will not refund you.
  - If you'd like a refund, please contact me first.
- You'll receive the full size png once completed (files will be png unless asked for otherwise, files are usually around 5000x5000px, Busts are around half that size.)
  - Image will have my signature/watermark somewhere and will not be removed

Thank you for reading!
