

FABI Refresher Scavenger Hunt

You are going a hunt! Read the clues listed below. Then use the FABI Home Doc to list the document / resource that shows where you would find the information.

Clues	Where Would You Find it on the Home Doc?
As a team is working through the FABI process, they are using this to document roles and responsibilities, outcomes, and action steps for the student.
A school has universals and a few tier 2 interventions in place. However the team is looking to grow capacity on individual behavior intervention plans. Where would they go to locate dates, times, locations, and outcomes to grow their FABI understanding and skills?
A team is developing a plan for a student and is stuck on reinforcement strategies to match escape. They would look to use _____
After the BIP is completed, the team is taking data on what components are in place/frequency. They are using _____ A team is getting together prior to an IEP to start to dialogue on the FBA results. They are looking for a guide to help them through writing a BIP. Where can they go to find this?
A data team wants to learn more about event recording and is seeking time to practice. Where might they go to find a resource for this?
A team is taking ABC data. What tool will they use to support this step of the FABI process?
A team is wanting to show the scope of what processes they would use to move through universals to tertiary intervention. What document would they use?
A collaborative team made up of both general and special educators is meeting to complete a FABI for a student. They are wanting to keep all steps of the process in mind when doing so. What visual would be helpful for this team to have to ensure all steps have been completed as they work through the FBA process?

