Intro clip...

Fat actually is not the problem, especially if you have the habit of binge eating when you're stressed from diet.

00.15

Hey guys, I'm Michele and I make everyday high-protein vegan recipes with a twist.

00.17

And let me tell you, weight loss is simple. But hard to actually do because I was just like you.

00.27

15 years ago I was overweight, struggling with severe disordered eating, I was unhappy, and had really low self-esteem.

00.40

I was eating healthy for a few days, only to fly off the rails for the next week.

00.45

My immune system was weak, my skin was a mess full of acne, and I got sick frequently. What's even worse, my friends have cancer, heart disease, and tumors and I was overthinking on my bed every night imagining if I would get diabetes.

00.55

Maybe in another life, I'll be in shape, and my skin will be clearer, brighter, and as attractive as a model.

01.00

And not for long, my imagination came to life, I dropped weight, rarely got sick, and more importantly, my family is healthy.

01.10

I started to impact my family's health and well-being.

I'm using a secret scientific method called calorie density transitioning to vegan step by step.

01.20

I'm presenting to you my tasty cookbooks like Alive Oats, Chunky Marinara, Triple Decker Loaded Sandwich, and Classic Nice Cream Dessert.

01.30

Vegan foods are around 100 calories which makes you full rather than the normal 4,000-calorie food with oil and fat.

01.40

And it's already proven by my clients from all around the world. ...(3 testimonials)

01.50

So, if you want advanced coaching with my vegan diet program, I can help you earn your weight loss faster even with obesity genetics.

So, what are you waiting for? Click the link down below and I'll see you guys next time!

P.S.

And ooh... Don't forget to tag me on Instagram If you tried my recipes. Bye bye 🙌🙌

02.00 end.

00.10

Hey guys, I'm Michele and I make everyday high-protein vegan recipes with a twist.

00.20

And if you want to eat a lot and lose weight at the same time without exercising even if you have a slow metabolism, then hear me out.

00.28

15 years ago, I was overweight and thought there was no way I could be fit by torturing myself.

00.35

And well, I still did calorie counting plus a vegan diet, but I was constantly hungry, which made me despise the whole concept of dieting.

00.40

My energy levels were low, climbing stairs felt like a struggle, I frequently fell ill, and acne appeared all over my face.

00.45

And guess what? I lost weight and gained it all back in a few days.

01.00

In a state of desperation, I overthought at night, imagining that maybe in another life, I'd be in shape with clearer, brighter skin as attractive as a model.

And not for long...
