

VSLA Exemplary Literacy Award

Overview

The Exemplary Literacy Award is given annually by Virginia State Literacy Association to recognize outstanding literacy programs at the Elementary, Middle, or High School level. This is a school-wide award designed to recognize schools that demonstrate literacy excellence. Schools that promote best practices and foster literacy achievement should consider applying for this award. The application must include the literacy program of the entire school and should be supported by administration.

Criteria and Award Details

1. All public and private elementary and secondary schools are eligible for the award. The applicant must be a member of VSLA for the school to be eligible.
2. A fully completed application form (including signatures of support) must be submitted by the award deadline.
3. Applications will be reviewed by the Exemplary Literacy Committee and finalists will be selected. Schools accepted as finalists will be visited by a VSLA committee and one winning program will be chosen.
4. The winning program should serve as a model for other schools and teachers.
5. The winning school will receive an award of $500.00 and will be recognized with a certificate at the VSLA conference. In the year following the award, the winning school will participate in a session at the VSLA conference to disseminate best practices and share success with other schools and councils. Finalist schools will also be recognized by VSLA for their exemplary school efforts.
