

Love is a Losing Game (by Amy Winehouse)

Level: High. Language: Relationships vocabulary, Casino vocabulary, Probability

Task 1: Match the vocabulary from the song to its definition.

Vocabulary from the song	Definition
a flame (1)	to destroy
a frame	an ex-lover who was temporary (1)
a good/bad hand	a plastic substitute for money in a casino
a chip	probabilities
fate	your cards when you begin a card game
to mar something	destiny
odds	a single image from a film

Task 2: Now listen to the song and complete the gaps using the clues in brackets to help you.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nMO5Ko_77Hk

For you I was a flame Love is a losing game fire as you came of Love is a losing game	(a fire as big as a building with a lot of floors)
One I wish I never played Oh what a And now the final frame Love is a losing game	(we did it all wrong)
by the band Love is a losing hand More than Love is a losing hand	(phrasal verb: the singer stops, the band continue)  (I was able to tolerate)
Self professed, profound  'til the chips (I) know you're Love is a losing hand	(the bets were placed) (a person who bets a lot)

Though I'm rather blind Love is a fate Memories mar Love is a fate	(an unchangeable destiny) (spoil my thoughts)
Over odds (useless) And laughed at by the gods And now the final frame Love is a losing game
Task 3: Talk to your classmates or your teacher to answer these questions about the song. Remember to use lines from the song to support your answer.
1. Why does she compare love to a game?
2. How does she feel about the relationship	ip she's singing about?
3. How do you think the man acted in that	relationship?

Did you like this activity? Find more on Picnic English: http://picnicenglish.blogspot.com.

or follow us on Facebook or Twitter

Answers:

- 1. For many reasons. Amy's ex sees her as a "flame" an ex-lover who was only temporary. Maybe love is just a game to him, even if Amy would prefer it to be something more permanent. She feels disappointed by love. We start new relationships even though we know that they're never going to bring us a happy ending. It's like starting a game of cards when you know your cards aren't good enough to win: a "losing hand".
- 2. She wishes she had "never played" the game. She feels like she was "blind" to the obvious. The relationship was a painful experience for her and more than she could stand.
- 3. Amy seems to suggest that the man never saw their relationship as more than a game ("I was a flame ..."). It seemed to be a genuine, "profound" relationship until the man needed to make a decision ("the chips were down"). Maybe he needed to choose between Amy and another person. But he's a "gambling man" so he enjoys the game, even if he hurts other people.