website that lures the viewer "deeper and deeper

This screenshot is from the website https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Superbad_\(website\))

Superbad (website)

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Superbad is a noted web art installation created by Ben Benjamin in 1997.

It received a 1999 Webby in the "Weird" category,^[1] and was one of nine websites^[2] featured in the Whitney Museum Biennial in 2000.^[3] Superbad began as a test bed for Benjamin's web design for technology corporations ranging from E! Online to Nippon Telegraph and Telephone.^[4] It heavily samples Japanese popular culture.^[4]

The website serves primarily as an artistic work that was produced using the tools and methods of web design. This genre of art is often referred to as web art.

The site consists of a veritable maze of inter-linked visual, conceptual "subprojects" ranging from two-tone and technical-looking to wacky, colorful, and even bizarre. Often a subproject will have clickable elements linked to other pages within that subproject, or to another, or that just provide visual richness (for example, the "follow" subproject^[5] has a grid of circles with arrows that follow the mouse cursor; each circle is a link to a different page within the site). Some of the pages contain narrative elements. There are 143 different pages. His main page serves as a hub to all his subprojects. Clicking anywhere on the "bad" will link to somewhere within each subproject.

TIME magazine cited "the very randomness of the electronic images" offered on the website that lures the viewer "deeper and deeper into its playful maze".^[2]

Benjamin sells nothing on Superbad, and received little extra traffic from the Webby award.^[1] Up to 10 percent of the 2000 Biennale consisted of various net art projects, marking the first time they were considered "so prominently among the traditional arts", according to Salon.^[4] Benjamin "didn't really start thinking of Superbad as art until the art people started finding it", but insisted that the Whitney's selection of his and other web art projects "makes it look more valid to the art crowd. So all of a sudden because it's in a museum it's not crap anymore?"^[4]

Welcome to holidaygirl1225's game secrets, glitches, and theories blog!

Today the official Dragon Blazers website was updated with a bunch of weird links.
I searched around the official website for clues, and found about 18 pages so far.
It doesn't seem to be an ARG, as there's no puzzles, and it doesn't lead to anything.
Anyone else think the devs might have been eating a little too much fruitcake this year? XP

Another epic post holidaygirl1225. Can I be mod? This blog definately needs more posts, and possibly better ones.

 smartgenius5554738292

Whoever is prank calling my phone needs to STOP.

 holidaygirl1225

Umm... maybe you shouldn't put your phone number in your username? XD

 smartgeniusnewadmin

An excellent idea my fellow mod, and I made an account just for being full admin to be more secure (It would be better than mod anyway). Please give me priveledges.

By the way, prankers. Once I become admin you will be hit not with the ban hammer, but the BANBERD, a halberd for BANNING people... savor your last moments now.

How are they still calling me???

 holidaygirl1225

Sorry my computer is bugged, lol.... um... looks like the admin panel isn't working lol... I can't give you privileges... Sorry you won't be able to be mod or admin.

It's nice having you comment though :3

As for the phone calls...

Umm XD Your old posts are up there with the phone number still.

 smartgeniusnewadmin

Are you saying I should delete my posts?

I may worship you as a mod,
but that's too far even for me.

As for your computer, worry not, I can fix it.

I have my way with computers... calculators want to kiss me. Laptops love me. With a flick of my wing, your computer will sing.

 smartgeniusnewadmin

Sorry for the lack of posting. I accidentally deleted Minecrap and it took all day to figure out how to get it to work again.

Fortunately the prank caller helped me get it back and now we are playing together.

If anyone else wants to play I'm putting the details of our server below:

Welcome to holidaygirl1225's game secrets, glitches, and theories blog!

As you may know, Cat Petterz 2 is one of this admin's favorite games. To those that don't know, it's a game where you take care of a cat and raise it. Sounds simple, right? XD

Actually, the game has a REALLY deep animation and breeding system... So players have been able to hex edit the game data to create brand-new pets.

If you download the right mods, you can raise birds, hamsters, cars, cartoon characters, and even more. Mewmewqueen's Sympton family pack is a great example of how far things can go.

However, you have to be careful, because, not all mods are very compatible. When pets fall in love, an egg appears and it hatches into a new pet that combines the animation and visual data of the two parents. Meaning, if you try to breed a hamster and a car, you'll either get a complete freak of nature XD Or, worse, you'll get this message.

"Incompatible pet"

Then the game will freeze and the music will glitch out.

I was so scared of seeing this message as a kid, I would punish my pets so that they would NEVER fall in love. If an egg did appear, I would throw in the trash right away.

Until one day...

Mood: Nostalgic

Listening to: Cat Petterz 2 OST (Corrupted) - No Cats

\(leave a comment\)

Clicking on "Until on day..." leads to <https://deltarune.com/egg/>
Same tab description.

If you have no pets, it's known that there's a rare chance for an egg to appear giving you a random pet. This is the only way to get some of the secret cats in the game, which are still super rare on top of THAT.

So it's a lot of waiting for eggs, hatching them, and throwing away tons of cats trying to get the perfect character (This caused other problems but I'll explain that another time XP)

But, one day when I was trying to get the ultimate cat, something weird happened.

An egg showed up on my screen, but there was a message with it. "SPECIAL"

I was really excited. I've never gotten a special egg before. In fact I'd never even heard of it at all. I sat there for an hour waiting to see what it would turn out to be. Maybe I would be the first one to discover a brand-new cat?

But what was weird is, the egg never hatched. I started to worry that it was some kind of glitch, so I decided to try and get rid of it before it hurt my computer... and that's where things got REALLY strange.

No matter what I did, I couldn't move or throw away the egg.

I tried clicking it over and over, and in the end, all that happened is it made some sort of weird sound.

This freaked me out so much I deleted the game and reinstalled it. ... but the egg was still there. (Obviously XP)

Now that I'm older I think what happened is, I had so many mods installed that the egg didn't know what to hatch into? But at the time I thought my computer was haunted or something, or the egg was going to kill me XD

After a few hours of freaking out, I eventually faced my fears and loaded up the game again. The egg was there, but it didn't seem to be doing anything. So I started raising it like it was a normal pet, brushing it and playing with it and stuff.

By the end of the day, I actually started thinking it was a cool pet and maybe I could try to figure out how to upload it online as a mod.

I wasn't able to do that though.

The next day when I opened the game, the egg was gone, with a message that said it "left home due to happiness."

Usually the message is "(pet) left home due to sadness" and only happens because you neglected your pet. It's not supposed to happen because you were nice XD

One last thing!

The egg actually had a name but I don't remember what it was. It's been driving me crazy ever since. If anyone else has ever seen an egg in their game like this PLEASE email me. PLEASE. First one gets 100 cheasy points from me XP

It's funny... there was a time when they were coming over almost every day.

We'd play, and we'd play... then after a while, they would suddenly get very still, like they were remembering something.

They'd go into the dining room to "get a snack," then after a few moments, I'd hear the piano.

The first few times, I went into watch them play, but when they realized I was looking, they'd always shut the piano and come back.

So over time, I just started staying on the couch in the living room. I'd lie there, listening to them play, sometimes for hours, sometimes even until I fell asleep.

Even then, what were they thinking about me?

Maybe they weren't thinking about me at all.

They didn't have a piano at their house, so they probably just came over to use mine.

Even then, with my eyes open, there were times when I wasn't even sure if we were friends.

But when I closed my eyes, it felt like a concert just for me.

I barely ever receive fan mail (no pressure guys XD), but just in case I ever get an email from anyone out there, I have this habit of always reading my spam mail, just in case it's someone real.

Mostly it's just weird stuff like "hochi mamas can get big too" (promise I wasn't looking at any weird sites guys... mmkay? XD)

But one day, one of the spams I got was nothing but random letters and numbers.

I figured it was probably a failed attempt at sending me a virus, but I thought... what if I tried putting it into Cat Petterz 2 as a mod?

So I did. And weirdly enough, it actually managed to load.

For people that don't know the game, it has a special visual style. All the pets are made of circles that get animated around. One circle will be the head, another the eyes, another the pupil, another the body etc.

But I guess the game didn't like the data very much because this pet was only one blue circle. Yeah, just ONE blue circle floating in the air.

The animations didn't work and it never moved, except for occasionally glitching out.

All of the stats were really bad and all of my pets really hated it except for... certain ones lol... I couldn't explain why anyone liked it, but it was really funny to see who did XD

What's weird is that the circle seemed to be able to multiply. Normally you need 2 pets to fall in love to make a new pet, but after a while, even if the circle was by itself, a "Congratulations!" message would come up, and then there would be 2 circles.

I thought this was funny, but the circles started piling up. I tried to throw them in the trash, but they were multiplying too fast.

My screen was nothing but "Congraulations" messages when the game crashed.

Needless to say I had to wipe all my pets ><

Lesson learned about using files from weird emails (Until next time... dun dun DAAA XD)

So, that new girl I keep talking about?

She really, really, REALLY hates Kris.

And you know what's weird? Literally ONLY Kris seems oblivious to this. Or, no. Are they oblivious? They're literally getting bullied! Do they just... not care? Then again, who knows what Kris is thinking. I just don't get why they don't tell their mom.

OR, BETTER, switch seats with me, like I keep saying lol. I guess they just don't want to be at the front of the class? But... She doesn't EVER bully me, EVEN when there'd be a HUGE opportunity to, so... Come on, switch seats, everyone would be safer that way X)

Like, you're not going to believe what happened today. lol

After the bell rang, as usual, everyone rushed to see who could get out of class first. I stayed behind a bit to help Alphys put away some books (and look for some mysteriously missing supplies X)). Meanwhile, Kris was still asleep, face-down on a totally blank notebook page, and for some reason, Susie... hadn't left either. She was just sitting there... staring at Kris's head. Sniffing it...??? (Wonder if she'd like scented candles? X))

Eventually I started to leave too (I even almost said bye this time), but I was a bit worried about Kris, so I stayed outside the classroom to... umm, watch? X) I had to stay totally out of sight, Holiday family ninja style, since Susie didn't seem like she was going to do anything until she made sure I was gone.

After a while, Susie got up, knocking her chair over. She jumped into Ms. Alphys's seat and put her shoes up on the desk, getting dirt everywhere. (I just know I'm going to have to clean that. X))

She grabbed the apple Berdly had given Alphys a few days ago (you know, one of the ones she has literally never eaten X)), held it up, and started talking.

"Hey, idiot."

Kris didn't look up.

"HEY IDIOT!"

Kris still didn't look up!

"KRIS!"

Kris looked up. Susie rolled her eyes and showed all of her horrible and very cool teeth.

"Nice shampoo. Apple flavor, right? Better be careful about wearing that around me."

Then she BIT THE WHOLE APPLE IN HALF! Including the core. She even ate the seeds, which, um, contain arsenic if you didn't know. X) Don't eat those Susie... anyway, Kris didn't react, so she continued.

"Keep smelling like apples... you might end up like this."

Kris didn't react.

"Bitten..." she pointed to the apple. "In HALF."

There was like, the MOST awkward silence... and then...

Snickering.

But it wasn't Susie...

No, it was Kris, just barely stifling some laugh.

Did they think that was some kind of weird joke...? X)

WHATEVER it was, Susie must have thought she was getting made fun of, because she immediately just LAUNCHED the apple right at kris.

But, Kris, with their gamer reaction speed X) Held up their notebook like a shield and blocked it diagonally, bouncing it into the air...

And actually CAUGHT the apple.

Then took a bite out of it.

Gosh, though, did that make Susie mad.

"You little..."

She ran over and grabbed Kris by the hair, staring into their face. REALLY close. I froze. I knew that if I didn't do anything, Kris would get hurt, or worse, but something inside me just... froze! I just stood there, holding my breath. And Susie kept talking.

"One day, your mom's gonna get sick of you, you little freak. And as soon as that happens..."

Susie laughed. I felt genuinely sick.

"Someone might make you disappear. And she'll finally realize how happy she was without you."

But after all that,

Kris didn't say anything at all.

Susie EXPLODED.

"SAY SOMETHING, YOU IDIOT!!!"

It felt like her voice echoed around the room forever.

Then, when it finally went quiet,

Kris's mouth looked like it moved.

To be honest, moved so slightly, I couldn't even tell if they said something, or what, but whatever it was, Susie's attitude... suddenly completely changed.

She let go of Kris, backing off quickly, then left the room in such a hurry, she easily would have won today's "leaving first" race.

I REALLY wish I could have seen her reaction, but I was so scared she would see me that I literally just jumped into my locker X)

In the end all I could see through the little slats was her shape from behind, going towards the entrance of the school with her head held low.

Finally, I heard the entrance door close.

I sighed, and suddenly all that frozen feeling that had built up in my chest flew out of my body all at once. "Holy cheese and crackers!" I said to myself. I almost started laughing from relief.

Then suddenly, my locker's door flung open.

Kris was standing there.

I started to stutter hello, and they just slowly, slowly shut the door on me and left.

WELL...

THAT JUST HAPPENED. LOL X)

I ordered apple shampoo, maybe if I wear it too she won't bother Kris as much X))))))))))

Welcome to holidaygirl1225's game secrets, glitches, and ...
deltarune.com

Tab description:

Did anyone else wander around this screen as a kid?

The cross shaped maze in the ice area from Dragon Blazers. Once you go in it, no matter where you go, you'll always be brought back to the same room.

Normally one of the characters is supposed to guide you through the maze. But it became one of the most famous (or should I say infamous... XP) parts of the game because if you go there without that character, you'll get basically stuck... FOREVER.

The developers actually say something about this in the manual... It warns you this glitch is actually "one of the bad guy's magic spells"... Yeah XD... Sorry guys, I think you were just eating a little too much fruitcake when making this part of the game. XP

As a kid I had no idea that this was a glitch XD I literally spent hours on the screen wandering around thinking there was an exit!!

The thing is, there actually is one.

Somehow kid me was so stubborn, I think I went EVERY single possible direction somehow XD Then the last direction you go is up.

If you do that, you'll find a door that doesn't appear ANYWHERE else in the game.

This shocked me so much as a kid I screamed and pulled my controller so hard it unplugged the console XD I actually started crying... but I knew my mom would turn off the game if she heard me, so I held my breath and started hiccuping and gasping. I literally thought I was going to choke on my tears. It only made me cry more that I had to plug the game back in by myself. I was so scared that I would get electrocuted and die from the wires. I was actually always afraid of electrical sockets too because I thought they were looking at me XD (Come on I wasn't a weird kid I promise... XP I got over it after that)

So I started the game again, and with my hands shaking I went back into the maze.

But what's super weird, was that somehow, I was able to get RIGHT back to the door.

I was so happy I almosted started screaming again, but remembered to hold my breath halfway XD Now I was going to be able to see what was in the secret door...

Or so I thought XP It was locked. And I've never been able to find ANY key in the game that opens it.

Since then, I can actually get to the door pretty consistently if I concentrate.

Unfortunately I don't know exactly what I'm doing, and it feels different every time, so I can't give any advice XD

I know this sounds really really fake but if anyone ever figures out a way to open the door, PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE sign my guestbook. I'll even put you in my hall of fame (you know, so there can be someone in it besides me XP)

SWEEPSTAKE 28 - SPAMTON'S FATE

While this sweepstake does not have a link, it isn't an item itself but instead a piece of lore.

Opening the attached image where the prize should be in a new tab shows that it is called fate.png and is just a black screen.

Along with this, the donation page has changed to something a bit different...

All items unlocked.

Now, SPAMTON'S SILENCE and SPAMTON'S FREEDOM have been added as choices when you donate

LINKS MASTERLIST

Putting them all together here for easy access but also trying to figure out if all 26 pages (there are also 26 sweepstakes in total) have been discovered or if we're still missing something. I'll add indented links below links that are related to each other, it should be pretty obvious but will tidy it up after I'm done.

I searched around the official website for clues, and found about 26 pages so far.

Every link highlighted in green are individual links, ones not highlighted are repeats. That said, all 26 links can be found here. It is likely that all possible information has already been found, it's just a matter of piecing things together and analyzing stuff.

SKELETON SNOW GLOBE

So, that “Skeleton Snow Globe”? If you check the official rules, it will list this prize as a “Jack and Sally” snow globe. Yes, the characters from The Nightmare Before Christmas. And, if you cross-reference the blurred image and an actual snow globe of Jack and Sally, I think you will be able to see the similarities. I’ve been fooled once again.

WHY. Though, the retail price for the snow globe on the right is $23, but the one listed in the Spamton Sweepstakes is $117... What happened there?

LORE TALK

SWEEPSTAKE 7 - SPAMTON AFTER NOT SURVIVING

By Fae

[Cool down with a]!!! WHAT IF ONE DAY,
YOU ENDED UP [Killed] ME!? WHAT IF I
[Died] JUST LIKE [I finally became a Real Boy] AND TURNED INTO
[graveyard dust], [For the Fans]!?

WELL LET THIS BE A [Email] [in a bottle] FOR YOU! [Wake up and the smell the] MY DEAD CARCASS!!!

1. This product advertises Spamton as being dead, but in a very peculiar way. It is known that in Undertale, Monsters will turn into dust after being killed. In Deltarune, neither Darkners nor Lightners turn into dust after being killed(the only semblance of death in Deltarune so far are the Darkners being frozen in the Weird Route, and some evidence to show that Lightners can bleed, however the blood stuff is pretty convoluted). Though, the way that Spamton refers to dying in this manner as “turning into graveyard dust” is just like... kind of weird. The usage of “dust” pretty much confirms the fact that he dies the way Undertale Monsters do, at least in this specific instance.
2. [Wake up and the smell the]. Another reference to “Wake up and taste the pain” and all the jazz connected to that quote. Watch a Youtube video on that stuff.

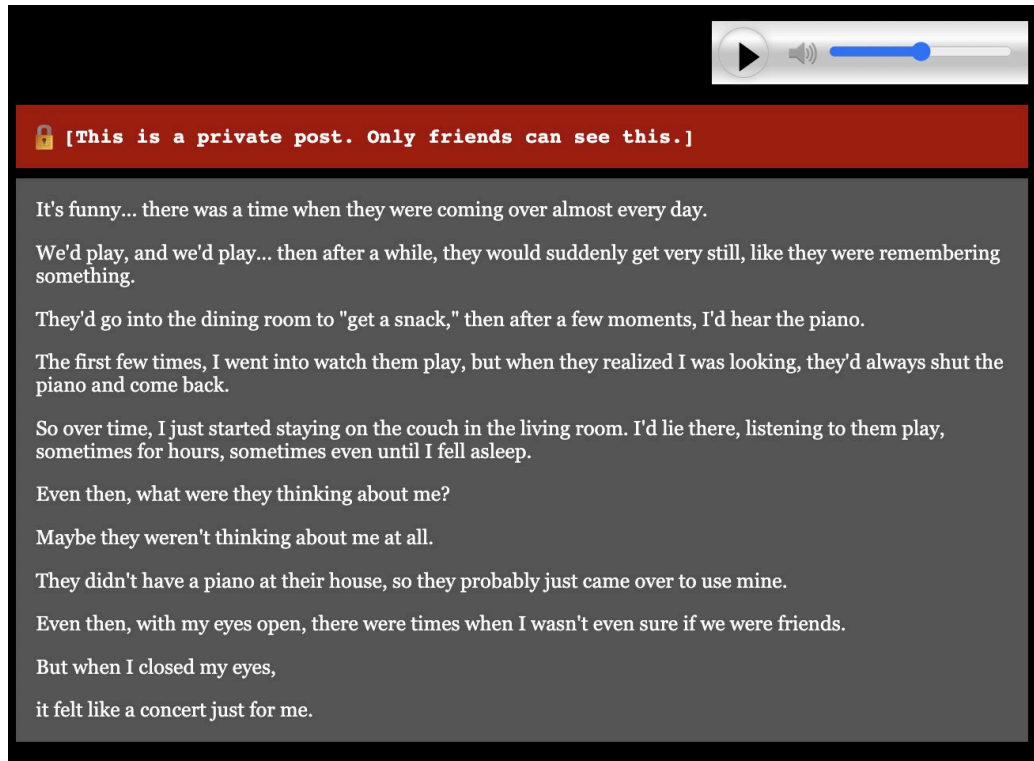

SPAMTON'S FATE

Fae: I have a feeling that no matter what, Spamton will be “silenced”. Firstly, it is directly stated that his fate is in our hands. But, if you consider the fact that the entire theme of DT is that our choice doesn't matter, and that the narrator in this case is likely Mike(and that Spamton says explicitly to not trust Mike), and that Toby Fox/Fangamer quite literally donated 15k to the Silence option, this is the probably scenario.

SWEEPSTAKE 14 - 'YOUR BEST [$#&*]' HEART LOCKET

By Fae

1. In terms of Noelle's blogs, there are two cases in which her text(supposedly her writing) is in gray. This text, the "egg" text, and the "blue circle" text. This text is specifically private, however the other mentioned texts aren't noted to be such. Just something I thought would be interesting to note.
2. I will be speaking about this text as if the person writing is Noelle, and as if she is talking about Kris. It's probably the case but there is always the off chance that it's other people knowing Toby Fox lol.
3. In the last two lines, Noelle closes her eyes, and it is only then that the music feels as if it is a concert. I interpret this as when things get darker(eyes closing), that the music starts to become more than it is. This makes me think of the Don't Forget lyrics. "When the light is running low(and all the lines talking about things getting darker)" as well as "And the places that you know feel like fantasy". The former lyrics being Noelle closing her eyes, and the latter being the music feeling like a concert.

4. The references to Kris playing the piano really makes me think that there's a third party within Kris, that had to have existed before the player got involved. In Chapter 1, one of the only times we can see parts of Kris' personality/character is through the piano. If you interact with the piano in the hospital, the nurse will comment on how Kris is usually very good at playing the piano(and isn't good right now due to the fact that Kris is under the player's control). Now, onto the text shown here. If reading it, it portrays Kris as almost being possessed or something, and then going to the piano. If we know that it can't be the player nor Kris, WHO IS IT? It phrases Kris(or whoever it is at this point lol), as remembering something, which is also something to duly note.
 - I will correct the grammar of this later but i'm just jotting my thoughts down, hope i got my main points across in a mildly sensible manner lol
5. The way Noelle phrases it, it's as if Kris(or whoever) is very good at the piano, hence her not stopping them and even falling asleep to the tune of the music. However, she also says that when she goes to observe them, they'd stop playing. Now, when you listen to the audio attached, there is no beautiful song to be heard, but instead the mashing of notes. Perhaps as you are listening to this audio, you are correspondingly observing them, and the beautiful tunes become the mashing of notes instead. All of this is making me think of Onion-san, who mentions the "song from the sea" that seems to be vaguely familiar to her(also, Kris remembering something, Onion-san getting a sense of familiarity from that odd song...).

[Frowzy here 2 ramble soon]

This one is hella juicy... oh me oh my...

NOELLE CATPETTERZ

I just saw the last three Q&As that Spamton did. I will update these theories in line with his answers... I don't know why I didn't check...

By Fae

As you may know, Cat Petterz 2 is one of this admin's favorite games. To those that don't know, it's a game where you take care of a cat and raise it. Sounds simple, right? XD

Actually, the game has a REALLY deep animation and breeding system... So players have been able to hex edit the game data to create brand-new pets.

If you download the right mods, you can raise birds, hamsters, cars, cartoon characters, and even more. Mewmewqueen's Sympton family pack is a great example of how far things can go.

However, you have to be careful, because, not all mods are very compatible. When pets fall in love, an egg appears and it hatches into a new pet that combines the animation and visual data of the two parents. Meaning, if you try to breed a hamster and a car, you'll either get a complete freak of nature XD Or, worse, you'll get this message.

"Incompatible pet"

Then the game will freeze and the music will glitch out.

I was so scared of seeing this message as a kid, I would punish my pets so that they would NEVER fall in love. If an egg did appear, I would throw in the trash right away.

Until one day...

- Mewmewqueen could be either Alphys(though her interest for Mew Mew Kissy Cutie isn't stated to exist in DT), or DT's version of Mad Mew Mew/Mad Dummy. Nonetheless, besides who it is, it is also said that they made the "Sympton" family pack, which sounds strangely similar to "Spamton".

If you have no pets, it's known that there's a rare chance for an egg to appear giving you a random pet. This is the only way to get some of the secret cats in the game, which are still super rare on top of THAT.

So it's a lot of waiting for eggs, hatching them, and throwing away tons of cats trying to get the perfect character (This caused other problems but I'll explain that another time XP)

But, one day when I was trying to get the ultimate cat, something weird happened.

A white egg showed up on my screen, but there was a message with it. "SPECIAL"

I was really excited. I've never gotten a special egg before. In fact I'd never even heard of it at all. I sat there for an hour waiting to see what it would turn out to be. Maybe I would be the first one to discover a brand-new cat?

But what was weird is, the egg never hatched. I started to worry that it was some kind of glitch, so I decided to try and get rid of it before it hurt my computer... and that's where things got REALLY strange.

No matter what I did, I couldn't move or throw away the egg.

I tried clicking it over and over, and in the end, all that happened is it made some sort of weird sound.

This freaked me out so much I deleted the game and reinstalled it. ... but the egg was still there. (Obviously XP)

Now that I'm older I think what happened is, I had so many mods installed that the egg didn't know what to hatch into? But at the time I thought my computer was haunted or something, or the egg was going to kill me XD

After a few hours of freaking out, I eventually faced my fears and loaded up the game again. The egg was there, but it didn't seem to be doing anything. So I started raising it like it was a normal pet, brushing it and playing with it and stuff.

By the end of the day, I actually started thinking it was a cool pet and maybe I could try to figure out how to upload it online as a mod.

I wasn't able to do that though.

The next day when I opened the game, the egg was gone, with a message that said it "left home due to happiness."

Usually the message is "(pet) left home due to sadness" and only happens because you neglected your pet. It's not supposed to happen because you were nice XD

One last thing!

The egg actually had a name but I don't remember what it was. It's been driving me crazy ever since. If anyone else has ever seen an egg in their game like this PLEASE sign my guestbook. PLEASE. First one gets 100 cheasy points from me XP

- "A white egg". This isn't Pipis, and we know that not only because the egg isn't blue, but because Noelle(or whoever this is, but I will refer to them as Noelle for now) has an experience later with Pipis that I will expand upon.
- This "white egg" Noelle refers to is connected to the "man" that will give you eggs, as clicking above the tree at deltarune.com/man will bring you to this blog post(as well as clicking the link on Noelle's previous blog). This brings up a whole array of questions.

Why do these eggs exist seemingly everywhere in the DT universe? By this post, we can see that they exist in DT's version of video games. The man exists in the Dark World, and it is there that he gives you/Kris/any other 3rd party the eggs, but then the eggs will not transform when you enter the Light World, and the man is shown to exist in the Light World as well.

- "Left home due to happiness". I don't even have any ideas as to what this could possibly entail so I will move onto other theories in the meantime.
- The egg had a name, but Noelle couldn't remember it. Just thought that this is something of note.
- The egg made some sort of "weird sound". This could be anything, maybe mus_smile, or that sound that plays if you interact with MysteryMan in Waterfall?
- This egg is obviously unusual. Noelle says that she had many mods installed, and this is a likely contender for the egg, or at least why it never hatched. It is unknown as to whether or not this "egg" event happened before or after she inputted the code found in spam mail, though I think it's likely before. On that note, there are many similarities between this "egg" event, and the "pipis" event(that I will go over) that leads me to believe that the "pipis" event is some corrupted version of the "egg" event, apologies for the repetitiveness.

I barely ever receive fan mail (no pressure guys XD), but just in case I ever get an email from anyone out there, I have this habit of always reading my spam mail, just in case it's someone real.

Mostly it's just weird stuff like "hochi mamas can get big too" (promise I wasn't looking at any weird sites guys... mmkay? XD)

But one day, one of the spams I got was nothing but random letters and numbers.

I figured it was probably a failed attempt at sending me a virus, but I thought... what if I tried putting it into Cat Petterz 2 as a mod?

So I did. And weirdly enough, it actually managed to load.

For people that don't know the game, it has a special visual style. All the pets are made of circles that get animated around. One circle will be the head, another the eyes, another the pupil, another the body etc.

But I guess the game didn't like the data very much because this pet was only one blue circle. Yeah, just ONE blue circle floating in the air.

The animations didn't work and it never moved, except for occasionally glitching out.

All of the stats were really bad and all of my pets really hated it except for... certain ones lol... I couldn't explain why anyone liked it, but it was really funny to see who did XD

What's weird is that the circle seemed to be able to multiply. Normally you need 2 pets to fall in love to make a new pet, but after a while, even if the circle was by itself, a "Congratulations!" message would come up, and then there would be 2 circles.

I thought this was funny, but the circles started piling up. I tried to throw them in the trash, but they were multiplying too fast.

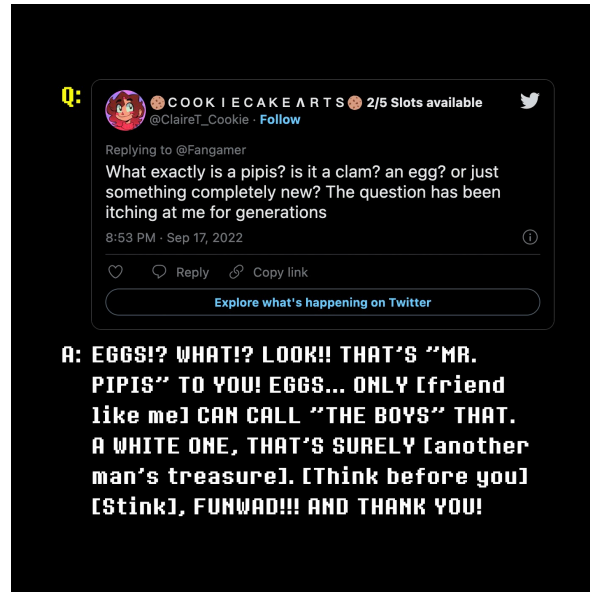

My screen was nothing but "Congratulations" messages when the game crashed.

Needless to say I had to wipe all my pets ><

Lesson learned about using files from weird emails (Until next time... dun dun DAAA XD)

- Clicking on the link found in the Pipis Rug text will send you to this blog post.
- If this blog was written up after Dess went missing(anything could have happened to her, but for what I'm saying here to make sense, lets believe that she went missing) perhaps Noelle is checking her spam mail on the off chance that there will be some email sent to her in regards of Dess.
- By "can get big too", does that mean to become a Big Shot? Who would be the "Hochi Mamas". I'm assuming it could be multiple people, as it ends in 's'. I'm likely over analyzing this part lol.
- The "blue circle" is obviously a Pipis, but it's interesting how Noelle says that it's a pet, not an egg. We know that eggs exist in this game(which btw is inspired by a real game called Petz).

- Apparently all her pets hated it, except for “certain ones”. Noelle also puts three dots before and after the “certain ones” to emphasize them.
- The multiplication of the Pipis.

- Another man. This gives reference to “ANOTHER HIM”, as well as the “man” that gives you eggs.
- This shows that Spamton has at least some knowledge about the weird egg dude.
- Pipis are eggs, though according to Spamton, only someone close to the Pipis can call them that. Eggs nonetheless though.

- So, if Noelle was the only person to ever have read Spamtons mail(which I presume is the case here), then does that confirm that it wasn't Spamton who was sending those messages to Dess(down below)? There is an exception, and it is if Noelle replied to the spam mail BEFORE Dess did(this is the case if the emails about "free friend find her" were sent by Spamton).
- This proves that it was Spamton who sent the strings of code and letters/the file to Noelle.

A: "DESS..." THAT'S THE ONE THAT [Hochi mama] ALWAYS RESPONDED TO [Fr33 fr13nd f1ndh3r] EMAILS ABOUT!!!
SADLY I COULD NOT [extract personal information for profit], I WOULD LOVE TO KNOW HER [Acc0unt numb3r]

- So, we now know that Dess always responded to emails about [Fr33 fr13nd f1ndh3r]... Whatever that may be. Was it Spamton sending those emails to her? It would be logical, as I don't know how he'd know about the emails if it wasn't him sending them.
- [Fr33 fr13nd f1ndh3r] (alternate text: Free friend find her). "Find her" is the name of the Lost Girl iteration played on the Dess page. This is quite interesting, as now three(3) separate individuals are correlated with "Find Her". As Find Her is a different version of Lost Girl, and Lost Girl plays many times for Noelle, the song could be Noelle's theme. But, Dess is technically "lost", so Lost Girl could totally be a theme for her as well. Not to mention the aforementioned Dess page that plays Find Her, which of course, could be referring to how Dess has to be found. This brings up a third person though, the person that is mentioned in this email, the "free friend"... It couldn't be Dess, as it is quite literally Dess responding to the emails, and it is unlikely to be Noelle, as it simply... doesn't seem likely. Why would she have to be found?
- Why was Dess responding to these emails? And, are these emails linked to her disappearance(I'm getting increasingly convinced that she went missing)?

Analysis of Next Chapters

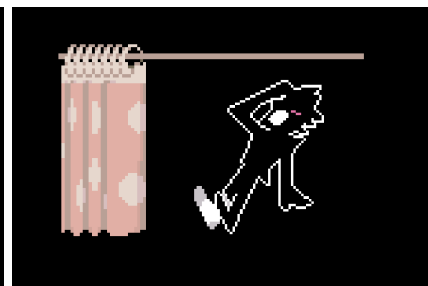

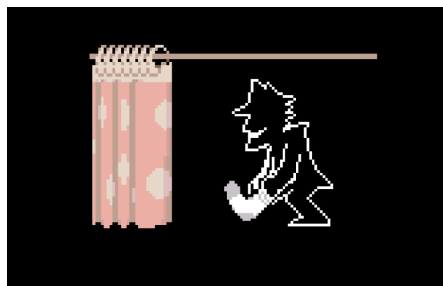

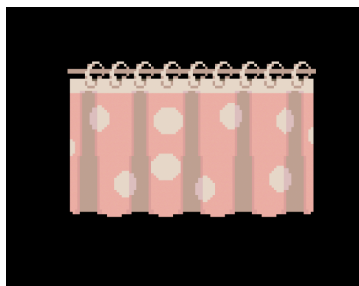

Chapter 3

- Here are the reasons as to why I believe this content will be for Chapter 3:
- 1. Status Update September 2022. All the (image) teasers shown there are listed to be for Chapter 4, except the Green Room(image below). This room could therefore be used in Chapter 3 or 5, but it's probably for 3.
- 2. Chapter 2 ends up with Kris (presumably) opening up a Dark Fountain in their house. So, it's possible that Chapter 3 will have you playing in the Dark World version of the Dreemurr home, and also immediately starting in this Dark World, rather than falling into it.
- 3. Now, as this "Green Room" shares MANY similarities to Kris and Asriel's bedroom, as well as some other parts of their house, it is likely a room that will be used in Chapter 3, for the reasons stated in 2. There's the cacti found in the hallway. The couches are representative of Asriel's and Kris' beds. The couch on the left shares the same pattern as Asriel's blanket(but also of his sweater in Undertale), and the couch on the right is gray, and seemingly made out of stone(?), with two instances of damage done to it, obviously being Kris' bed. A maus is in the back, perhaps being the Dark World counterpart of the computer mouse. There are swords(?) in the back as well, maybe being Kris' knife. The stars decorating the walls, couches, and door resemble Asriel's side of the room. The red bar-like area could be the window. The tvs could be the computer. Though to note, why is there a food dish? Is that maybe the birdcage? Also, as Spamton had an insane amount of references to Mettaton, and Mike is headcanonned/theorized to have a TV head(and the antennas can spell out TV depending on how you view them, kind of like Toby Fox's new signature with two letters mixed together), I want to point out the fact that this room has similarities with Mettaton's room in UT, primarily there being stars everywhere, and the existence of a tv(s).

The images above and below can be found by clicking on doors in the Green Room, so it's just a logical assumption that this stuff is from Chapter 3 as it's connected to A Chapter 3 room.

All these characters, including the Shadowmen, seem to have moon shaped heads. I'd assume that "The Weather" are weather newscasters, hence their little hand sticks. Their hair could be clouds maybe? The guy looks to have fire coming off of his back. Fireboy and watergirl lol?

Shadow men? Interesting, considering the only other "shadow" stuff we've really seen or heard of are pretty lore heavy (shadow crystals, the shadow mantle, etc.). And of course, shadows are connected to darkness, which speaks for itself.

What's with these socks? To knock someone's socks off means to "impress them". Although Kris and Susie don't wear cowboy outfits here, Ralsei does. Or maybe he is wearing a "paperboy" type outfit. I'm getting the impression that there's some kind of gang or mafia thing. The jazz, the gun, and the clothing that Susie and Kris are wearing(and possibly Ralsei) leads me to believe this.
