

Privacy Policy for Time Meter

Produced by KAPP Development

Effective Date: August 21, 2024

Information We Do Not Collect

- KAPP Development's Time Meter app does not collect any personal data or personally identifiable information from its users. This includes, but is not limited to, names, email addresses, location data, device identifiers, or any other information that could be used to identify an individual.

Information We Collect and How We Use It

- Google Analytics: Time Meter uses Google Analytics to collect anonymized data about app usage, such as the number of times the app is opened, the features used, and the duration of sessions. This data is used solely to improve the app's functionality and user experience. No personal data is collected or shared with Google Analytics.

Your Consent

- By using Time Meter, you consent to the collection and use of anonymized data as described in this Privacy Policy.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

- KAPP Development reserves the right to update this Privacy Policy at any time. Any changes will be posted within the app, and your continued use of Time Meter after such changes constitutes your acceptance of the updated Privacy Policy.
