Speaker:

You have this clumsy sort of charm. One day you find out that the classmate, whom you've had a crush on, listens to your audios... the one she admires... and now you realize... you've got a hold on them with your voice? hehe, well... that's new.

Context:

Listener has put their head down on the desk while listening to the audio. You (the speaker) walk in... you think they are sleeping.... hehe you'll see~

Audio Description:

Your favourite asmr artist's audio just dropped so you rush to listen to it right after class! A certain someone assumes you are sleeping... as they go to wake you up... you realize that their voice sounds oddly familiar.... hmm? I wonder why~~~

Beginning sfx instructions:

A different audio is playing in the listener's ear but it's muffled just enough for the listener to hear you, the speaker, speak. My suggestion is you have the muffled asmr audio clip start off audible but slowly become muffled as you walk towards the listener.

Word Count: ~2300

[muffled asmr audio starts here]

[stuff in "" is the muffled asmr audio]

(flirty)

"did you really think I wouldnt notice?"

"I see the way your eyes track me when i enter the room..."

(Smug seeing the listener flustered)

"the way your breath quickens when i lean in close (chuckle)"

(drag out the words)

"the way you glance look down... (smiling/teasing) when my eyes are up here..."

[muffled asmr audio continues but its starting the get muffled]

(pause)

[open and close door]

"pfftt you are so fun to tease."

[walking sfx]

(humming as speaker walks in the classroom)

(giggling)

"you always make the cutest reactions."

[muffled asmr audio fades out here]

- keep playing the '[muffled asmr audio]' (just repeat it) but have it not legible (super muffled) have it keep playing until you see '[muffled asmr audio stops]'

Daym everyone left already?

Did I miss the memo to go home early or something? Class only ended 15 minutes ago...

(you notice the listener on the other side of the room)

Oh?

hey... do you know where everyone-wait are they sleeping? uhhh maybe I did miss something...? did class seriously end early?

[walking sfx (walking towards listener)]

(under your breath)
should i wake them up... orr

(sigh)

[walking sfx -ends here-]

Hmmm

(pause)

ive kinda... always wanted to try saying this... whispering in someone's ear... while they are asleep

(pause)

(breath in)

(closer to listener)

(sudden nervous + bit breathy)

oh wait this is kinda nerve racking to do in person haha

(pause)

(breath in)

(lean in) wakey wakey sleepy head~ everyone's gone homee

(pause)

hmmm? not sleepingg?

why arent they replying- ohh you got headphones in~

(pause)

(curious)

What's got you smiling like that?

Helloo?

earth to-

(listener takes their headphone off)

[muffled asmr audio stops]

ah... you finally realized i was here.

(pause)

i just wanted to make sure you knew that class was over... didnt want to leave you alone at school.

oh, andd i was wondering.. what you were listening to thats got you smiling so much.

(Pause, Listener: I wasnt listening to anything...)

pfft... nothing? there is no way you can have a smile that big and tell me it is nothing...

(teasing/flirting)

you are not a good liar.

[phone notification sfx]

You looked like you were about to start kicking your feet!!

Come onnn you got me so curious!!

[phone notification sfx]

Noo?

why nott... is it really thatt bad?

[phone notification sfx]

also, your phone keeps-

[you see their phone screen and it has one of your asmr titles on it]

(sucks in a breath)

(a bit flustered)

Oh?

...

(lowered voice, not because anyone's listening, but because it just feels like you should) you listen to asmr audios?

(pause)

(flustered)

How could i tell just by the title- ?

(little bit cautious)
well- Ive listened to a few before...

(pause)

mhm o-only a few though.

(pause)

nonono I won't judge you... I actually really enjoy them...

(pause)

haha wait, you do too? Oh my god!! wait okay i've always wanted to talk to someone about asmr!!!

(pause)

(playful tone/casual chatting)

okay- yes i know i said i listened to only a few~ but i wasnt sure **how** into asmr you were!! I didnt want to give myself awayyy

(pause)

omg im actually so happy

(kinda embarrassed)

The one you've listened to... do you like it?

(Pause)

uhm... (almost flirting) i may have listened to the one you are currently listening to...

(slight pause)

how? w-what do you mean how?

(Pause)

(Oh shit... i messed up sorta voice)

O-ohh... this one was just posted a few hours ago?

haha... i guess i am just a big fan... i was uh... listening to it while i was in the washroom...

(pause)

(unsure if that lie worked) whats with the silence... you dont believe me?

(pause)

pfft dont just nod your head!

(slight pause as you readjust your position to be a little bit closer to them) you dont believe im a big fan? Or you dont believe that I've listened to the audio you were just listening to.

(pause)

pfft both? well, i actually listened to it on their patreon..

...

(flustered)

O-oh.. you did as well? you were just listening to it again to support them

(trying not to be flustered)

I-i see...

well... thats quite nice of you...

(soft) im sure that person would be really happy to hear that..

(pause)

Hmm?

my softer voice sounds familiar? Haha

(leans in)

maybe thats because you were listening to me through your headphones a second ago

(you can drag it out a bit)

haha justt jokinggg

nonono i was joking, i was joking!

(Slight pause)

dont roll your eyes! It was a joke!

(pause)

you think I'm lying? how do you know- ahem- I mean, what makes you think so?

(pause)

I sound that familiar? That's not enough proof- also.. don't most voices sound different when they are talking into a microphone?

(pause)

ohhh because I'm speaking softly...?

that makes sense... but thinking i sound exactly like the audio you were just listening to...

Hmmm~

(pause)

so... if i talked (lean in) like this... do you get flashbacks (drag this out) of you... in your bed... getting all flustered over my voice?

Should i imagine you hiding your face with your pillow as my voice echoes in your ears?

(pause)

(lean away)

haha just kidding

(pause)

Wait..

you want me to say something in your ear?

uhhh i can't think of anything on the spot... but...

(pause)

pfft oh~ **you** got something?

(teasingly)

Haha, wow... you wanted this **that** badly?

(pause)

what do you want me to say?

(long pause)

oh... i thought i'd be something different... but thats actually really cute...

(small pause)

Okay...

(pause)

(breath in)

im proud of you...

...i know I am just a random classmate but the fact that **this**.. was the think you asked for... already gives me enough proof that you are someone to be proud of.

Only someone who's been pushing themselves this much...
...only someone who pushes themselves so hard that they feel guilty for resting, would ask something like that.

No one who doesn't work hard feels guilty for resting. So for you... to ask for me to tell you, 'I'm proud of you and say that you've worked hard' is proof enough for me to say those words with my heart behind it.

(pause)

(Caring)
aww my sweet little angel, you've got tears in your eyes.

(hesitant) can I give you a hug?

(listener nods)
come here...

[movement sfx]

should I give you a cool asmr line to cheer you up?

hehe if you perk up like that so suddenly... i'll actually think you want it...
... i wouldnt mind giving one to you...

(pause)

Shall I give it a shot?

(Pause, listener nods)

(Breath in)

(say this as if you are almost in a trance as your eyes glide down and look at the listener's lips)

...usually in my audios, I talk about my listeners plush lips... i often mention brushing the back of my hand down their neck and-

(nervous laugh)

haha even I'm getting a bit flustered... especially since we are still wrapped in each other's arms haha

(say it softly, you are just a few inches away from their face) ive never done this with someone, especially not someone ive just met... hugging for this long... whispering in their ear

(happy seeing the listener flustered) oooo but look at how flustered you're getting! I didn't realize how effective lines like these could be...

(pause)

"its not just the lines?" haha

(pause)

aww thank youu

(kinda awkward)
okay so one thing has been on my mind...

... um... do you listen to a lot of me, right?

(pause, listener nods)

you have? **Oh**

...which audios **have** you listened to...

(pause)

you're checking?

(kinda desperate) wait noonono let me see

I want to make sure you havent listened to a certain one- (suck in breath)

(really flustered) (your voice is slightly higher then normal) O-oh..!

(you are trying so hard to play it off but you cant)
(still slightly higher then normal)
U-um so you have... listened...

(pause)

(nervous)

h-how was it...?

u-um (making something up) all of them?

well... the... (listener says title name) ... yeah the vampire one... that one was pretty spicy... ...patreon exclusive..

(pause)

(kinda panicking as you realize thats the audio you made about the listener)

"that audio sounded oddly specific?"

(pause)

it did... didnt it...

(Repeating what the listener is saying)

"same hair, same eyes... same lips... as you..."

(almost a whisper)

w-well... what a coincidence.... (Nervous laugh)

(pause)

(speak like you are just a few inches away from the viewer) (flustered) o-oh I didnt realize we were still so close-

[movement sfx/clothes shifting]

(pause)

Hmm?

(warm/caring)

I smell like strawberries (or cedar wood)? you noticed... (intimate) your nose is quite sensitive then... so if i put some of my perfume on you... would it smell like im around you all the time?

(pause)

hehe your face is bright red...

...

(under your breath)
maybe i should wear this perfume more often

(pause)

It's kinda nervous to say outloud... but seeing how adorably embarrassed get when I tease you... makes me want to say it anyways

Do you want my perfume?

Haha before you nod... you have to know what I want in return~

(laugh)
Don't raise your eyebrows... all i ask is that the nights where you feel lonely... you spray a little bit of this on your bed mhm... juuust a little..

You can spray it while you're listening to my audios... but don't use too much.

I just happened to have taken the label off, and since you don't know the name...

If you want another bottle, you'll have to come to me and ask for it yourself.

(Pause)

aww i love your flustered face... you are so adorable!

okay you have got to stop doing that.

(Pause, listener: "...doing what?") doing what you are doing right now

Your flushed face and the way you are looking up at me... has got my heart going places... you cant be doing that to me...

(pause)

oh jeez you got me all flustered.

Especially when you leaned in towards me during the every time i speak.. as if you are trying to hear every syllable or sound that might escape my mouth-

(pause)

yes i noticed that! with you only a few inches away from my face... how would i **not** notice...

(Pause)

Mhmmm

(pause)

You're right... it is getting kinda late...

(stretch, exhale with stretching)

(long pause)

you want to talk more over there? wait why there?

oh wait! I didnt even notice the bean bag couch! Has it been here since the beginning?

[faint walking sfx start]

it looks super soft!

[faint walking sfx end]

(pause)

[sitting down sfx or movement sfx]

(breath out)

(pause)

(settling into the bean bag)

ahh its so soft

(pause)

hey dont tease me like that- (embarrassed) dont whisper in my ear... especially not the line you just said- no I am not blushing!!

(pause)

Nnn..

(Pause)

(flustered)

if you whisper it in my ear like that... then of course ill be flustered!!

(flustered, almost pouting)

...I didn't know you could sound like that...

(pause)

okay, my turn then...

(pause)

(lean in towards the listener)

I like you

ohhh~~ you like this voice...

(teasing)

you like it when i talk right on this part of your ear

If you were an little elf... or some creature with sensitive ears... i can almost imagine your ears twitching as my lips brush against your ears

(Pause)

Hmm...

Would it be more immersive if i rest my hands on your shoulder... or if i let them drape down....

(new realization :0 listener's hair is soft)

(breath in) oh my gosh I didnt realize how soft your hair was... your hair is really soft...

(pause)

oh- my hands? Whoops sorry! Haha

(laughs, repeats what listener said)

"this is too risky to do at school?"

(teasing)

pffft, says the one who was listening to me right in their ear (trailing off as you see their flustered reaction)

... wait... so if we werent at school...

hehe im joking im jokingg

i love your flustered face. It just makes me want to tease you moree hmmm speaking of tease... should i give you a little teaser for my next script? I dont usually memorize my scripts but i happened to be really fond of this one...

(pause)

(pause)

yeah? you want to hear it?

(pause)

hmmm? and what should i get in returnnnn...

(pause)

haha "im the one that suggested it?" haha trueee I cant lead you on like thatt is that a giggle? ...shit your even cuter when you smile

(pause)

I cant flirt with you when you look at me like that

(pause)

[sfx: movement sounds]

w-wait... /// why are you suddenly getting so close...

(breath in)

(flustered)

w-whispering in my ear doesnt work anymore!

(Trying to hide your flusteredness)

plus I know you want to hear me more... you said you bought my patreon right?

thats not cheap...

"whats my point?"

I meann (get closer) not only do you listen... you **pay** to hear more of me?
That's dedication sweet heart~

Haha

you are such a cutie, you know that right?

(pause)

aww was that a lil yawn? is my little listener over here getting tired?

(pause)

youll be a good girl and listen to another audio of mine tonight right?

(pause)

pfftt truee, it is already late enough for **this** to be considered tonight's audio

(laugh) yeahh

(lean in close)

that means tonights audio was a live preformance...

A live performance for my new favourite listener.
