

r/UearthedArcana Subreddit & NeverEnding Magic Weapon Contest

To submit your entry:

- Select and Download a Weapon Card image from the Google Drive folder – [link to come]
- Make a post on the r/UearthedArcana subreddit. Include “Magic Weapon Card” in the post title, along with your magic item name. (this helps us find your post for judging)
- In the post body, include your description, and stats, along with the image you selected. Descriptions should include things like:

Name, Bonus (if applicable), and weapon type (e.g. Slicer, +1 Sword)

Any description text describing features, as well as any limitations on features (e.g. User may cast Booming Blade as part of an attack 1x/short rest)

Flavor text is encouraged.
- Use the “Item” flair for your post, unless you’re doing something more unique like a living weapon stat block!

Rules & Guidelines:

- Your entry must include a weapon image provided by NeverEnding and not other illustrations. You may not edit or alter the image to include any logo or brand name.
- The magic weapon description you post must be authored by you. You may not use a description authored by someone else or from any published work. You can reuse a prior magic weapon description you authored as long as it is paired with a new image from NeverEnding.
- You may use the same image used by another entrant, although the magic weapon name and description must be different.
- Your magic weapon can be any rarity – don’t assume legendary weapons or artifacts are going to be the most popular.
- There is no limit on the number of entries per person, however there must only be one magic weapon per entry. Each entry is ranked individually, and popularity/upvotes are not tallied across multiple entries from one individual. Each individual may only win first, second, or third place. In the event one individual would win multiple prizes based on upvotes, we will award the highest ranked prize (1st, 2nd, or 3rd) only. The next most popular entry will be considered the winner of the unawarded prize.
- Important Note! r/UearthedArcana rules only allow you to post with the same flair 1x every 4-days. Therefore you may only post a new entry every 4 days.
- In the event of a tie, NeverEnding, at its discretion, will select a winner or in, in the case of second and third place, may choose to award both entries the same prize.

- NeverEnding retains copyright over all images. Entrants agree to share copyright of the entry descriptions with NeverEnding for the purpose of promotion and display.

The contest will open on January 31, 2022 at 8 am EST and will close on February 14, 2022 at 6 pm EST. The winners will be picked and announced on February 18, 2022 at 6 pm EST. Prizes will be awarded to the first three most popular items, based on upvotes (note: if we can't see your upvote totals, we can't rank your entry). The NeverEnding team may choose to select an additional winner, based on their personal judgment.

Prize:

- The creator of the first place winning entry will receive the D&D Rules Expansion Gift Set (up to $169.95 value).
- The entries that win second and third place will receive a D&D 5E hardcover book of their choice up to $49.95 value. (may swap a comparable D&D accessory of comparable value).
- The winning entry or entries will get featured on our media & get cross-posted and pinned on our subreddit for 2 weeks. We may also share your description within our web app.
- The r/UearthedArcana mods may also choose to add one or more entries to the Curated List!

At our discretion, we may choose to feature other entries on our media or within our web app.

Thank you everyone for participating in this Magic Weapon contest. We are looking forward to seeing your entries!

- The NeverEnding Team
