

1. Define the difference between each pair of words (part of speech, meaning) and write a sentence for each word.

LOOSE - LOSE

PRINCIPAL - PRINCIPLE

SITE - SIGHT

AFFECT - EFFECT

AISLE - ISLE

A WHILE ARTICLE + NOUN - AWHILE ADVERB CAN YOU STOP FOR A WHILE? / IT'S BEEN AWHILE SINCE WE MET LAST TIME.

ALL TOGETHER - ALTOGETHER

BESIDE - BESIDES

COMPLEMENT - COMPLIMENT

FARTHER - FURTHER FAR

2. Complete the following sentences with appropriate words

1. Sit down and stay
2. I need to see a dentist soon; I have atooth.
3. Nobody me knows the password.
4. How much do we have to go?
5. The baby was quiet for
6. This is theof prehistoric village.

7. The cashew nuts were an excellentfor the soup.
8. This is one of the basicof democracy.
9. My friend lives... the pond.
10. She stayed... at the party.
11. I have no comments.
12. My for a chef for such a wonderful starter.
13. Vancouver is one of thecities in Canada.
14. Do you prefer a window or an seat?

3. Discuss the meaning of idioms with your partner(s) and then make sentences using the idioms.

Idioms:

keep in sight

a sight for sore eyes

pay a backhanded compliment

without further ado

play fast and loose (with something)