

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dare To Dream Presents: Small Artis Big Talent, The Premier Platform for Emerging Artists in the DMV

College Park, MD – March 29th, 2024 – Dare To Dream is thrilled to announce the return of Small Artist Big Talent. The event will showcase the abundance of talent in the greater DMV community, offering emerging artists and performers a vibrant stage to share their creativity.

Preceding the performances, Dare to Dream will transform the space into a vendor market, where young entrepreneurs across many disciplines will have the opportunity to introduce their exciting businesses to attendees. This distinctive event will occur in The Startup Shell, 4462 Stadium Dr, Room 1101, College Park, MD 20740, from 5:30 - 10:30 pm.

Small Artist Big Talent not only showcases but also actively fosters talent. In addition to the myriad artists and creatives, industry professionals from various sectors will also be in attendance, offering our artists a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to be seen by those who can elevate their craft to new heights.

Among the gifted artists set to perform, we are particularly excited to feature Kang, a rising star whose recent viral hit "Day 5" has catapulted him into the spotlight. Kang's unique sound and profound storytelling have resonated with a broad audience (over 2.3 million IG accounts in the last 90 days), earning him attention from several major record labels.

His journey from a passionate local artist to a viral sensation exemplifies the transformative power of creativity and the very essence of what "Small Artist Big Talent" aims to celebrate. You can learn more about Kang's Day 5 here.

The festivities commence at 5:30 PM with a vendor fair, spotlighting local artisans and businesses. This immersive experience allows attendees to explore handmade goods, art pieces, and creative services, directly connecting with the artisans. As evening falls, the focus shifts to a dynamic performance showcase. Here, local musicians, dancers, poets, and more will illuminate the stage. This event is a clarion call to all dreamers, inviting them to witness the transformative power of art.

For more information and to secure a ticketed spot at this event, please visit the ticketing link here.

For all media inquiries, please contact:

Takiyah Roberts: Co-Executive Director
takiyah.roberts@idaretodream.org

Arden Lawson: Chief Marketing Officer
arden.lawson@idaretodream.org

Dare to Dream, founded by Takiyah Imani Roberts, empowers youth in marginalized communities through entrepreneurship, education, and community engagement, fostering an environment where dreams are nurtured and pursued with vigor. In partnership with institutions like the Dingman Center for Entrepreneurship, we offer programs like Launchpad, equipping high schoolers with entrepreneurial skills and the confidence to succeed. Dare to Dream remains committed to expanding its reach and impact as we grow, inspiring more young individuals to chase their dreams unapologetically. Learn more at <https://www.idaretodream.org/>

Dare to Dream

<https://www.idaretodream.org/>

@daretodream.inc

###