The El Paso County Historical Society (EPCHS) is a 501(c)(3) organization that advocates for the collection, preservation and dissemination to the public of our region's history. The EPCHS is headquartered at the Burges House, a Texas historical landmark, and maintains an archive of over 25,000 photos, thousands of documents, hundreds of maps and books, and scores of artifacts all dealing with the border region's rich history. The EPCHS endeavors to foster research into the history of the El Paso area; share that history with the public; publish and encourage historical writing pertaining to the area; and develop public consciousness of our rich heritage.

We invite volunteers over the age of 18 to contribute their time and talents to the mission of the EPCHS. After we receive your application, we will contact you to arrange for an interview in person or by phone. All information on this form will be kept confidential and will help us find the perfect volunteer project for you.

Thank you for your interest!
