

Name: _____ Period: _____

DO NOW:

1. Imagine you are meeting someone from a different culture for the first time. How do you treat them and show them respect?

2. How would you describe your culture? Think about the way that you live, what you eat, how the people around you act on a regular basis.

3. Look at the artwork on the screen. Describe what you see happening in the artwork.

HINT: Look very carefully...

4. Ask some questions about the artwork's culture, starting with:

Who... _____?

What... _____?

Where... _____?

When... _____?

Why... _____?

How... _____?

Name: _____ Period: _____

ART & RESPECT

RESPOND: Go to <https://www.irelandart.com/> and pick an Irish artist to learn about. Then answer the questions below.

Looking at the artwork and reading the artist blurb, use the table below to sort similarities and differences between your culture and the artist's. Include at least three things on either side.

Similarities (of Irish culture and Your Culture):	Differences (between Irish culture and Your Culture):

In the boxes below, redraw two of the artist's paintings: one that feels more familiar to you (like a mirror), and one that feels very different (like a window).

Familiar (Mirror):	Different (Window):

Name: _____ Period: _____

CONNECT: You will be researching a culture that you do NOT belong to. Choose from one of the following:

*Irish
Greek*

Or choose your own: _____*

You may NOT choose a whole continent. Asian, African, and White are too broad.*

Then, take some time to research what it might be like to live in either of those cultures. Do not use AI, but anything else works: sources like Tiktok and blogs will give you the best information. Fill in the boxes with words and/or images:

Foods from this culture:

Languages spoken in this culture:

Holidays/traditions celebrated in this culture:

Popular music in this culture:

Clothes worn in this culture:

Name: _____ Period: _____

Bibliography (Sites Used):

CREATE

You will be making a drawing in your Sketchbook based off of your research on the last page. How will you represent this culture? Some suggestions might be to make a travel advertisement, a comic about a character who lives in that culture, or a collage of pictures. Remember to color or shade, and fill the entire page. Use our chart below to guide your thinking.

LINES Horizontal: Rest Vertical: Height & Pride Horizontal + Vertical: Stability Diagonal: Movement & Motion Curved: Slow & Pleasing Zigzag: Fast & Unrest	SHAPES (2-Dimensional) Rectangles: Calm, security, and order. Circles: Gentleness, unity, and balance. Triangles: Stability, power, and energy. Organic Shapes: Made-up shapes without names Geometric Shapes: Hexagons, diamonds...
FORMS (3-Dimensional) Organic forms: 3D forms without names Geometric forms: Cubes, cones, spheres... Literal forms: 3D in real life Illusory forms: Painted or pretend 3D	VALUES Brightness Darkness
SPACE Positive Space: Takes up matter Negative Space: The air or area between Literal Space: Air in real life Illusory Space: Painted or pretend "air"	TEXTURES Literal Texture: Something you can actually feel in real life Illusory Texture: Something that looks like you can feel it but is painted
COLORS Emotions in Color • Red: Anger, love • Blue: Sadness, cold • Yellow: Upbeat, joy Temperature in Color Warm Colors: Red, Orange, Yellow Cool Colors: Green, Blue, Purple	COLORS CONT'D Monochromatic or "One color" • Hue + White = Tint • Hue + Gray = Tone • Hue + Black = Shade High Saturation: Vivid Low Saturation: Muted

Name: _____ Period: _____

PRESENT: Swap drawings with a classmate! Then answer the questions below in complete sentences.

Whose drawing are you looking at? _____

Before talking to the artist, describe what YOU see happening in the drawing. What culture do you think they are representing?:

To learn more about the artwork, write down questions to ask, starting with...

Who... _____ ?
What... _____ ?
Where... _____ ?
When... _____ ?
Why... _____ ?
How... _____ ?

What is your favorite part of this artwork?

Is there anything in this artwork that looks familiar to you and your culture? Is there anything that looks different?

If you gave this artwork a title, what would you name it?
