

Zarr, Adam - Bio

Adam Zarr - Program Coordinator

Adam joins the Rush Soccer National staff as Program Coordinator and will be responsible for coordinating R.E.A.C.H and Rush Fest, while also aiding in other club development initiatives. After concluding his collegiate career in 2017, Adam graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training. Adam began his coaching career at the club, high school, and collegiate levels in the Philadelphia area. Adam currently coaches at Pennsylvania Rush Soccer Club and is an assistant coach with Haverford College Men's Soccer team.

Adam has continued his playing career within the semi-professional and amateur ranks of the US soccer pyramid. Highlights of his playing career include competing in conference championships, competing in the opening rounds of the U.S. Open Cup, and playing against the Philadelphia Union II.

Adam is also currently pursuing his Masters degree in Sport Business from Neumann University. He currently holds a USSF D Coaching License.

Adam Zarr
Program Coordinator
1 East 33rd Street, 9th Floor
New York, NY, 10016, USA
azarr@rushsoccer.com
(484) 889 - 2983