- Blackberry Bliss: 3 ¼" x 4 ¼" 2" x 6"
- Basic White: 3" x 4", 2" x 3"
- Highland Heather: 2" x 6"
- Gorgeous Grape: 2" x 6"
- Rich Razzleberry: 2" x 6"

Instructions:

1. Cut, measure, and score your card stock.
2. Die cut a Basic White Stitched Rectangle with your Stampin' Cut and Emboss Machine a rectangle that will fit your greeting (2" 7/8" x 7/8").
3. Stamp in Blackberry Bliss the greeting onto the stitched rectangle and put dimensionals on the back of it.
4. Die cut with the Tulip Dies the rows of tulips with each 2" x 6" stripe of card stock. Cut the tulip die cut paper in half or at the 3-inch mark. Make sure to give yourself about ½ inch on the bottom of the die to create a glue on spot.
5. Starting with the darkest shade of purple glue onto the bottom of the Basic White the die cut tulips with the Multipurpose Liquid Glue on the bottom and not where the tulips are. Keep on doing this with each piece of die cut tulip until you are almost to the top of the Basic White.

6. Attach the Blackberry Bliss matte to the Basic White with Stampin' Seal Adhesive. Then add dimensionals to the back of that and attach to the card base front.
7. Attach the stitched rectangle into the bottom left corner.
8. Embellish with 3 Iridescent Rhinestones at the top above the tulips.
