Man: Hello and welcome to our series about young people living in different parts of the country. Today you'll hear Mike Davis, who lives in Hereford, telling you something about his life.

Boy: Hello. I'm 13 years old and I go to Stanley School. I'm in Form 3, and I'm really interested in (1)but I find maths and especially English a bit hard. I'm good at (2) and I've run for the school team in the 800 metres.

My dad sells farm machinery. We live in the country about four miles from school, so I get to school by (3) My uncle has a farm and I spend most of my free time helping out there. He's got 50 cows and I like to help him with them. I help to do the (4) every Saturday and sometimes I have to clean the cowshed. It's hard work, but it's good to see everything looking (5) I painted it white last summer - I'm good at painting. My uncle's got a (6) and he says I can drive it when I'm 15. I'm looking forward to that.

On Mondays I go to the Young Farmers' Group which I've (7) to since I was 10. It's mostly fun but we also learn things, like how to look after (8) properly.

I definitely want to work in the (9) when I leave school. I wouldn't like to live in a town or sit in an office all day. My father thinks I should work in his business, but I want to be like my uncle and have my own farm one day. My mother says I'll have to go to agricultural college first, so I'm going to work hard to (10)all my exams.
