Assignment - Letter to an unknown friend

Your task is to write a letter to an unknown friend. The purpose with this letter is to tell about yourself and let a girl or a boy in your age get to know you. Who are you? Tell about your family, things that you are interested in, your qualities and other things you might think this new friend would like to know about you.

You must share your g-mail to your new friend.

This letter will be sent to a class at another school and you will be given an answer from someone like you - and later on there will be time for you to work together with different kinds of assignments with help from Google Docs.

Your first letter shall be handwritten. Write a first copy and then rewrite it by hand on a nice paper - make sure you use the right grammar and spelling :).
