

Privacy Policy

Overview

This SERVICE is provided by Mike Verenich and is intended for use as is. This page is used to inform visitors regarding our policies with the collection, use, and disclosure of Personal Information if anyone decided to use our Service.

What We Collect

Information That Is Aggregated. "Aggregate data" are data we collect about a group or category of features, services or individuals, from which individual identities have been removed. For example, information about how you use a feature may be collected and combined with information about how others use the same feature, without any personal information included in the resulting data.

Information Automatically Collected. We automatically log information stored in your phone, such as advertiser ID, phone brand and model, and default language, (b) your login information (either through email or Facebook), and (c) your approximate location (via IP address).

How We Use Personal Information

To operate, maintain, and improve our products, and services.

To analyze your usage of the App for the purpose of improving our App.

To provide custom, personalized advertisements, content, and information.

To monitor and analyze usage and trends, and to personalize and improve the App and your experiences when you use the App.

Refund Policy

If we receive a refund request for an in-app purchase from an end user, we reserve the right to provide Apple with information regarding the user's in-app purchase consumption. This includes the following data: app usage time, anonymous account identifier, total amount spent, and total amount refunded.

Privacy Policy Changes

Although most changes are likely to be minor, Excellent may change this Privacy Policy from time to time, and at Excellent's sole discretion. Excellent encourages users to frequently check this page for any changes to its Privacy Policy. Your continued use of Excellent after any change in this Privacy Policy will constitute your acceptance of such change.
