IN A WORLD OF MY OWN

*Anon, to sudden silence won,
In fancy they pursue
The dream-child moving through a land
Of wonders wild and new,
In friendly chat with bird or beast—*

And half believe it true.

*...Alice! A childish story take,
And with a gentle hand,
Lay it where Childhood's dreams are twined
In Memory's mystic band,
Like pilgrim's withered wreath of flowers
Plucked in far-off land*

History

[Quick Sidenote: This is Alice's standard backstory, it does change a bit (or sometimes completely) depending on the universe]

We all know the story of Alice in Wonderland. A young girl ends up falling down a rabbit hole into a strange land where nothing makes sense. Well, that was certainly part of this Alice's story...but there's a lot more to it, something more magical if you will...

Here, Wonderland is no dream and it was not always a world of nonsense. Far from it, Four powerful mages made their home in this land, once decayed and derelict. Thanks to their magic, the world became vibrant and serene, and full of wonder, hence its name.

Wonderland drew in many creatures and people, the mages would soon form covens; groups of people who wished to learn the magic the mages wielded. These people would come to be known as "Witches".

Unfortunately, Wonderland's harmony would not last forever. As darkness befell the Mage of Hearts, making her mad with power. This tragedy was known as "The Red Calamity" The calamity did not destroy Wonderland, but rather reshape it thanks to the illusionary magic the mage was well known for, logic and reason fell right out the window and turned the residents mad as well. Without a way to reverse the calamity and wanting to prevent further damage, the other mages sacrificed their magic to become the other queens of Wonderland, which forced the Mage of Hearts to become the Queen of Hearts, who was still mad as ever, angry that her gift of magic was taken away from her. The witches, the last remains of Wonderland's magic, were forced to leave Wonderland to avoid the Queen's rage, as she relentlessly persecuted them, wanting their magic for her own to become a mage again.

Alice, the daughter of one of these witches, at the age of 3 was whisked away to London so she could be safe from the Queen of Heart's wrath. There, she was adopted by Henry and Edith Dodgeson, and became part of the upper-class family. There, she lived a normal and peaceful life with them in their manor...at least, it started out normal.

At the age of 7, on the 4th of May, Alice pursued a White Rabbit into a rabbit hole, arriving in Wonderland. The queen almost had her, she nearly did, so close to taking the young girl's magic while it was super ripe. But, nimble little Alice was able to escape back into the real world, avoiding this grim fate.

Alice did not find out about her origins until she was a teenager. Where she ended up in Wonderland again thanks to a magic mirror in her bedroom. There, she met the other three queens, who gave Alice her spell book, wand, and broomstick. All witches were given these things when they became of age (13).

Alice, when she turned 18, was able to move out into her own home, which was smaller than her parent's manor, but she didn't mind. She works as a library assistant at the Bodleian Library.

Of course, a simple life in England can get pretty boring, so thanks to her magic and the mirror in her bedroom, she often visits and explores other worlds. Some worlds are more grounded in reality, while others are downright bizarre.

With skill and courage, perhaps one day, she can restore Wonderland to its former glory...one day...

Headcanons

[Quick Sidenote: These are just SOME headcanons for her. If you would like to see more, see the tag: Remember What The Dormouse Said [Headcanons]

- In terms of schooling, Alice was privately tutored.
- This also means she doesn't have friends, but that does not mean she's a loner, as most of her time was spent with her family, the other kids she was tutored with, and the friends of her parents. So she does have a pretty good grasp on socializing even if she never made any outside friends.
- Alice doesn't usually swear, due to it being heavily frowned upon in her family. She only swears if she feels like it's necessary or called for. And because she's English, Words such as arse, bloody, bugger, and git are the ones she uses.

Powers and Abilities

Alice, being a witch, has access to a variety of spells with the use of her magic wand. In her magic system, there are four kinds of magic known as "suits".

Hearts: Illusionary magic. Manipulating the environment to trick or manipulate others using things that are not really there. Spells like this range from casting sounds, smells, or images of people or objects to disguise spells. However the illusions are not permanent and may not be able to trick everyone.

Diamonds: Manipulation. Specifically, this suit refers to the manipulation of nature and the elements. Use of this magic should be treated with caution, as it can lead to unintended effects on the environment around them.

Clubs: Transmutation, or really any magic that alters the form of the self or others. This includes transforming objects into other objects and size manipulation.

Spades: Magic attacks. These are mainly used for self defense, and as a last resort as they can be rather unpredictable and can have unintended effects on the user and the environment around them.

Alice doesn't always use her magic for combat, considering it a last resort, as her magic spells are meant to be used as tools. She prefers to use her magic to trick or outsmart any threats that might get in her way.

Alice also has the ability to create portals on reflective surfaces (mirrors, glass panels, bodies of water, etc.) Either to travel to other worlds or return to her world.

Of course, a witch is usually not a witch without some kind of transportation. For Alice, it's her trusty broomstick, which is much more colorful and decorated than your average broomstick. If need be, Alice can disguise it as a functioning moped.

Verses

Non-Fandom Verses

-V: The Child Verse

Taking place before she discovered her witchy origins, Alice is a “normal” girl living in Oxford, England with her well-to-do family. This verse mostly takes place after her first venture into Wonderland. Alice is around 7 years old in this verse.

-V: The Queen Alice Verse

Taking place in her late-20's to early-30's Alice was able to purify the Queen of Hearts of the darkness that was corrupting her mind, freeing Wonderland from her reign of terror. As the witches returned, so did its magic. Though the queens and Wonderland may never be the same as they were before, their magic is safe and secure as Alice was crowned the new Queen/Supreme Mage, uniting all the suits under one ruler. Now Alice lives in Wonderland, leaving behind her life in England, watching over the land, and protecting those who live and enter it for as long as she lives.

-V: The Deltarune Verse

Alice (A teenager in this verse) is a rabbit monster living in the “bright and sunny” town of Hometown. She lives in the same high-class part of the neighborhood as Noelle. She was mostly homeschooled for the majority of her life until High School, where she now attends the Highschool Kris, Susie, and the rest go to. Her introduction to the Dark World happened in the same way Noelle and Berdly did, going to the Library’s computer lab. In the dark world, she takes on the role of The Sorcerer (aka the “Inherent Gift Magician”). Her health is 85, 2 DEF, and 2 for attack. Her light world outfit is her casual outfit and her dark world outfit is her witch outfit.

Her Moveset (3rd spell TBA):

Diamond Ice (Prevents an enemy from attacking for 1 turn. Does not work on bosses)
“Cold diamonds envelop an enemy, preventing them from attacking for a single turn”
25% TP

Healing Heart (Heals a single friend for 3 turns) “The power of hearts heals a friend for a small amount of HP, heals for 3 turns.” Depends on magic.“ 32% TP

A-Action (A variant of Susie’s S-Action where Alice does Kris’s selected act, much like paired ACTs except that Alice can choose to do it with another enemy)

Spade Buster (Similar to Susie’s rude buster) “Deals a moderate amount of damage with the power of Spades”. 52% TP

-V: The Ouran HighSchool Host Club Verse

Alice (16 in this verse) has been homeschooled for her entire life since kindergarten. However, for High School, she wanted to attend an actual school instead. So her parents enrolled her in Ouran Academy in Japan, which was easy given they were part of the wealthy class. She is also not a witch in this AU.

-V: The Cookie Run Verse

Not to be confused with Tea Cake Cookie (an CR OC I made who is also based on Alice) Alice is known as Petit Four Cookie in this universe. Petit Four Cookie lives in Parfaedia, practicing and perfecting desert magic, which for her is similar to the original Alice’s magic of the card suits, but with a dessert theme. Jelly Hearts, Candy Diamonds, Chocolate Spades, and Creamy Clubs are all there in her repertoire. Unfortunately, she doesn’t remember where she came from (but we can assume it’s similar to the original Alice’s backstory). However, she also carries a desire for adventure, traveling all across the land, wherever it may take her.
