

BTM XXVII Playwright and Company Introductions

Hello friends!

Thank you for participating in this year's Boston Theater Marathon! This is me introducing you – see the contact info below. As Megan said in her email to everyone on Tuesday, we hope to seed new collaborations and strengthen existing ones with this festival, ultimately encouraging more companies to consider producing new plays by local writers. So please join us in this mission by connecting authentically together throughout the process of casting, designing, rehearsing and performing this fabulous play. You can use this email as your starting point to connect with each other and say “Hello!”

Let us know if you have any problems connecting with each other. And thanks again for being part of this amazing community event!
