

ACTIVITY 1 - Features of Effective Discussion

THINK ABOUT IT: Reflect on your varied (positive and negative) experiences with discussions in academic settings.

WRITE ABOUT IT: Use T-chart below to make a list of features that you think made those discussions effective or not so effective from your perspective.

| ACTIVITY 1  |  |
|--|--|
| PART 1: Independently reflect on your varied (positive and negative) experiences with discussions in academic settings.   |  |
| Directions:- Make a list of "Effective" and "Not so Effective" features of discussions in your designated column.   |  |
| Partner 1:Effective Features:Not so Effective Features:   | Partner 2:Effective Features:Not so Effective Features: |
| PART 2: With your partner , develop one mutually created list of features of effective discussions.   |  |
| Directions:- Discuss and compare your lists above- Collapse similar items; consider both effective and not effective features and how they relate; reframe the "not effective" features- Create a single list of essential effective features below that capture both of your thinking and experiences. |  |
| Essential Features of Effective Discussions:  |  |

