

NOTE: Any screenshots containing the user nicknamed as “Luigi” is CyanStar, he’s changed nicknames to try and escape the drama. Just a disclaimer so I don’t gotta re-explain it for every screenshot.

Howdy hey, I’m FireLord, aka Collin. About a year or so ago my friend Felix (Known as GadgetChrøme online) made an exposing post on CyanStar (GameJolt Profile), known as Luigi3779 at the time. We thought that would’ve been the end of this, but it got taken down. So, I’m here making this, and they won’t be able to take anything down this time.

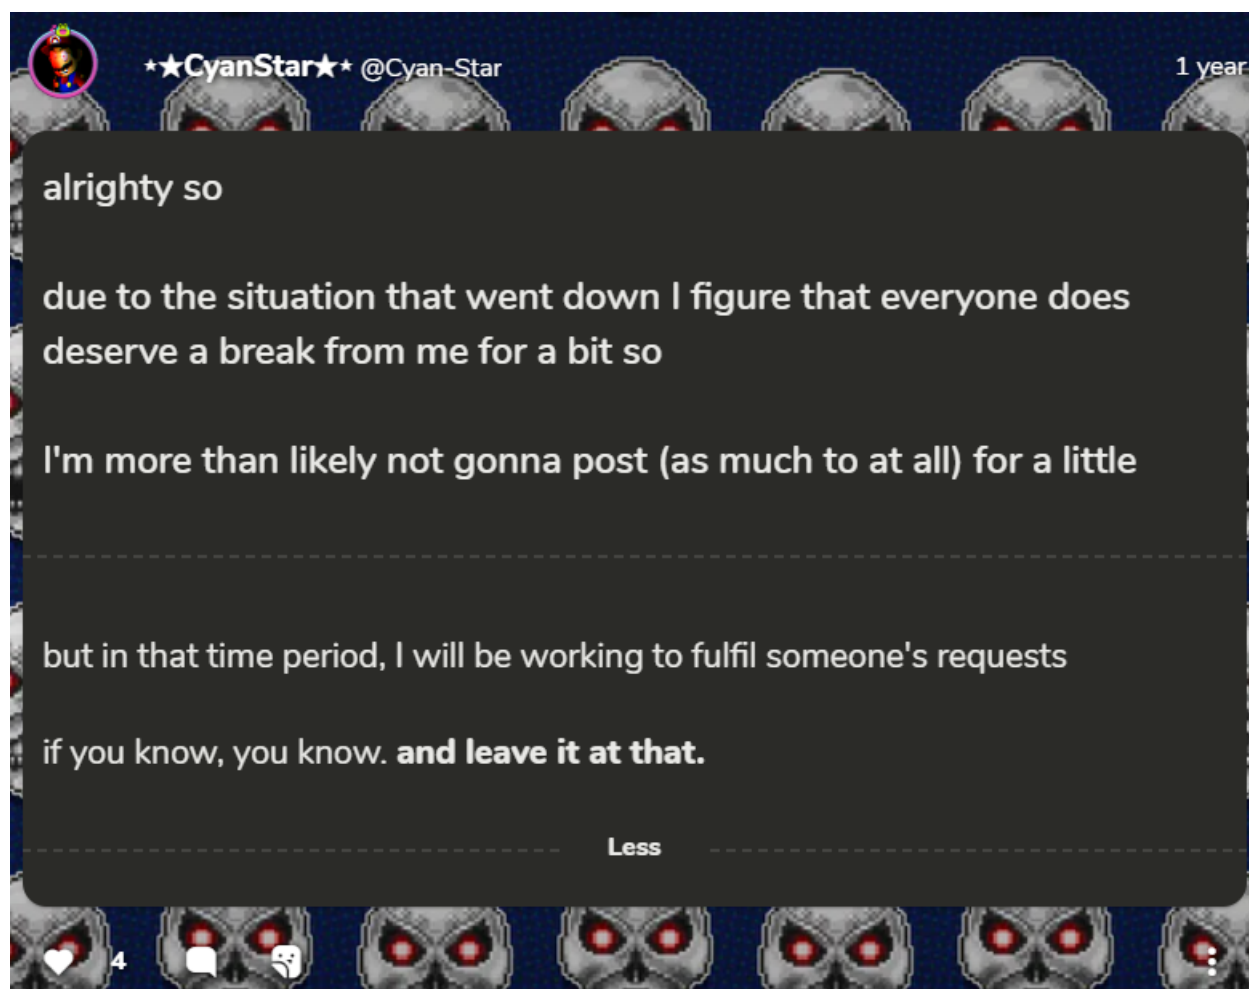

DISCLAIMER: Heavy mentions of porn, CP, and also dude just being an outright weirdo. Proceed at your own risk.

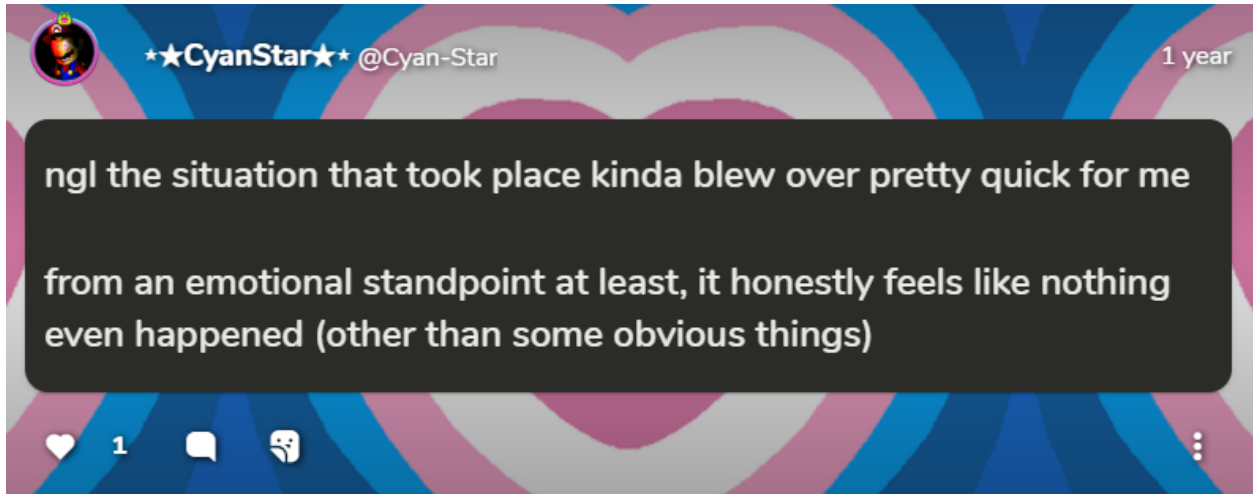

Now, to start off, the actual controversy and what started this whole mess. CyanStar asked Vinny (Known as Vinmagma online) if he wanted to see an image, but he would delete it as fast as he could. Vinny, assuming it probably was nothing bad, agreed to it. What was then shown was an image of CyanStar’s OC/Persona sucking a dick. Mind you, he was 14 at the time, and Vinny was 17 at the time, and had CyanStar waited a few more months to send that picture, it could’ve gotten Vinny arrested. The screenshot will be at the very bottom of the doc, if you so wish to see it. This unsurprisingly grossed Vinny the hell out, and immediately went to show me the screenshot, which from there I proceeded to show Felix. He and I collectively agreed that this couldn’t go unnoticed, and so we blocked CyanStar, made a post about it on GameJolt, and started spreading it like wildfire.

A Few days later, that post ended up getting taken down. Later, he stated that he’d “address the situation” noted in the screenshot here:

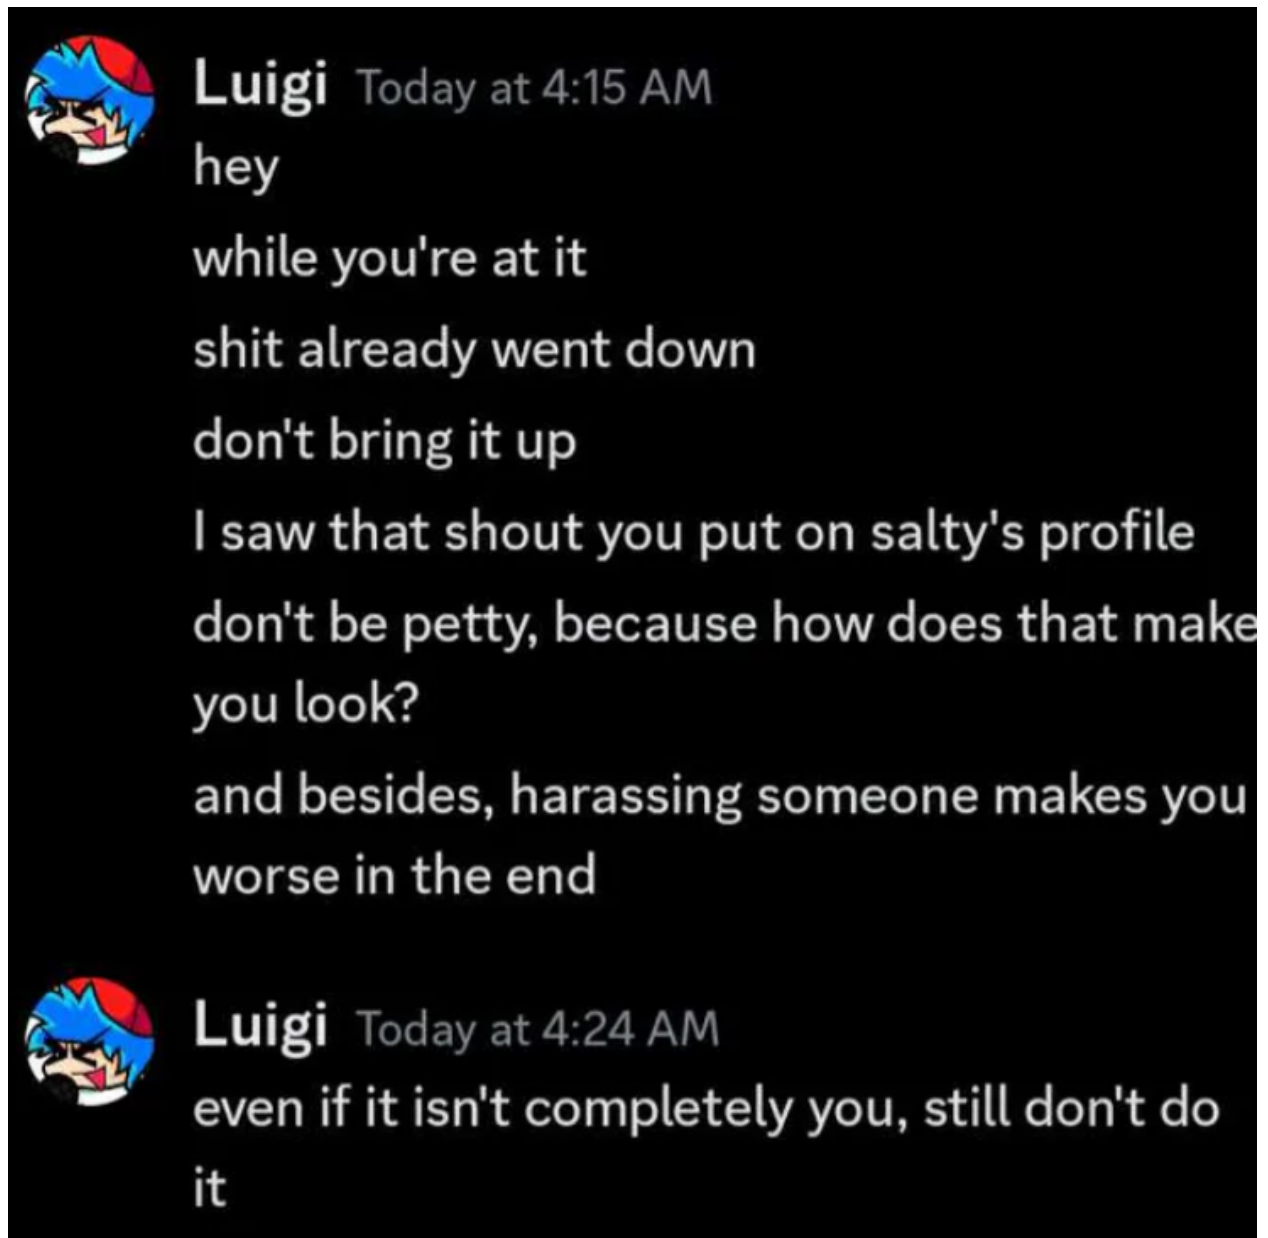

He, in fact, did not address the situation, instead opting to post cryptic messages alluding to it, all to keep his stupid little reputation:

The second image especially pisses me off. Dude was literally IN THE WRONG, and there's no way he doesn't know that, considering one of his best friends just blocked him because of it. He doesn't care at all, he only cares that he was able to get our post exposing him down. As my friend Felix said, "What is actually wrong with you to feel this way? You caused people to actually fucking cry with your actions, you lost friends and respect over this, do you not care? Of course not, why would he? He still got to keep his follower count after all."

Worst of all, he tried to gaslight Vinny into believing that he was being petty and “harassing,” shown in the screenshot here:

If these aren't downright manipulative tactics, I don't know what is. Telling the victim to keep their mouth shut and making them believe that THEY'RE in the wrong is just messed up on like, 50 different levels.

Even outside of the self-drawn porn, he was still being an absolute creep to Vinny, Felix, and me to a lesser extent. There are multiple instances of him sending us weird messages/images even though they clearly make us uncomfortable. Take for example:

Luigi 29.02.2024 00:26

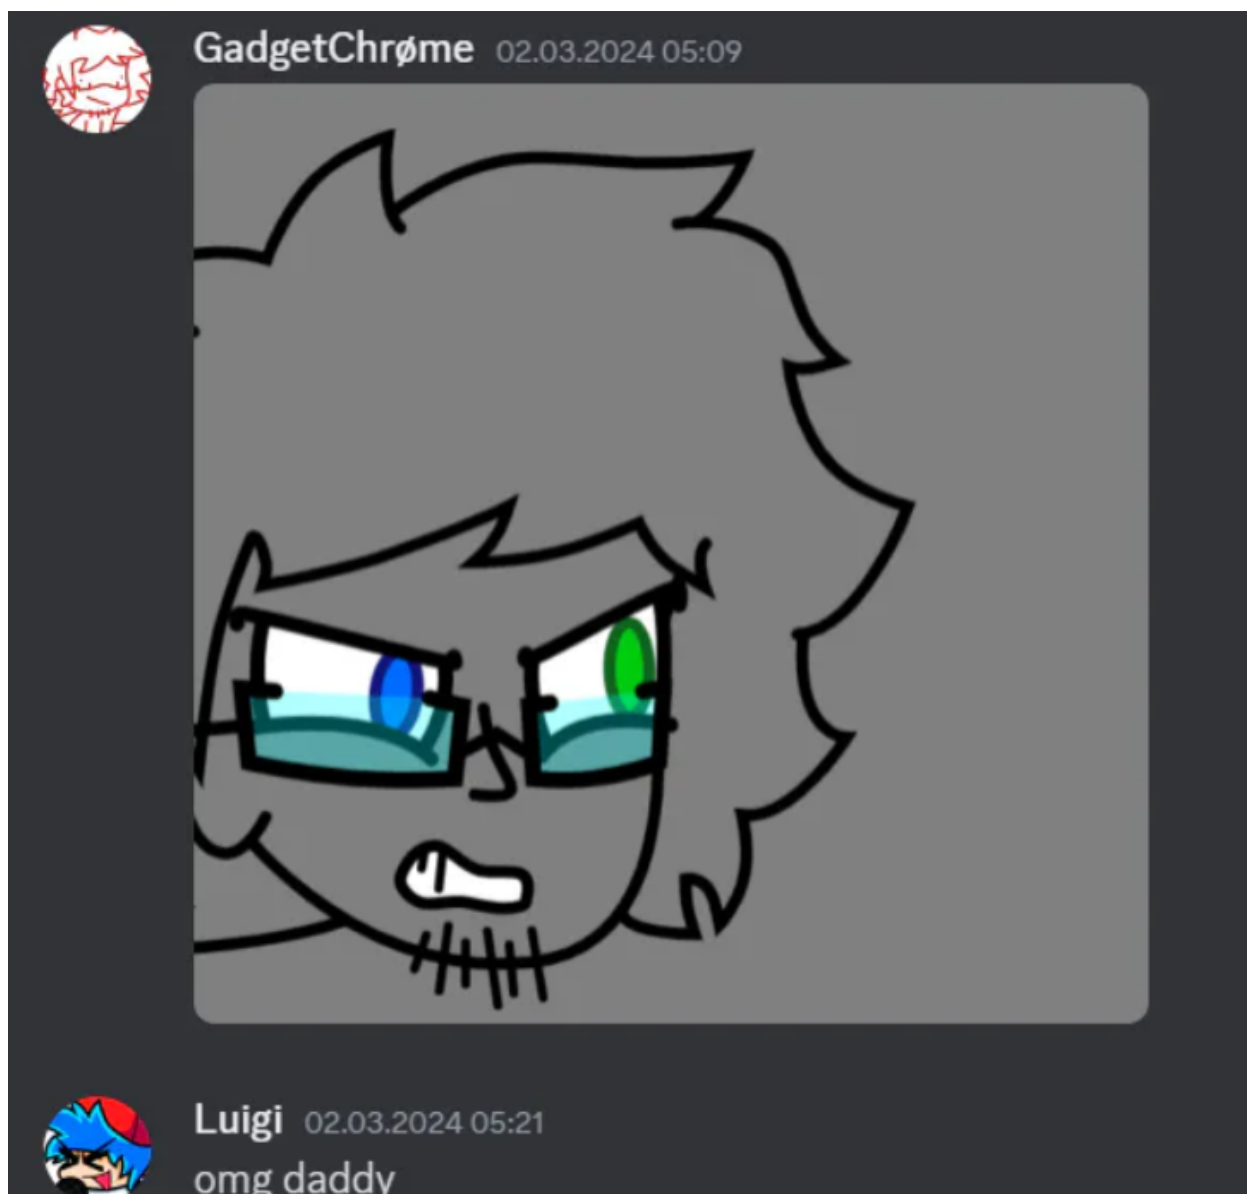

what

anything for you daddy

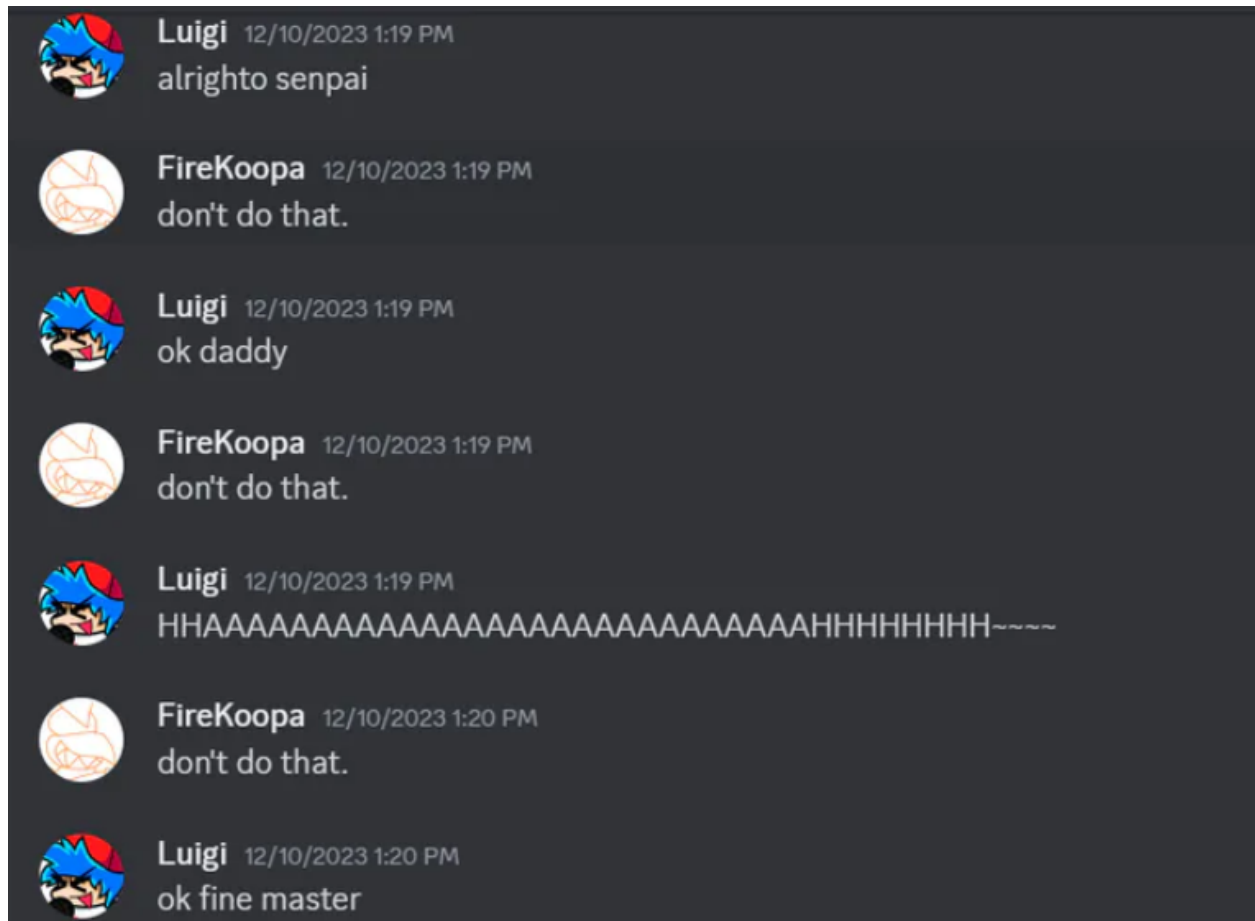

GadgetChrøme 29.02.2024 00:26

Need a background for Burn's sections in the original

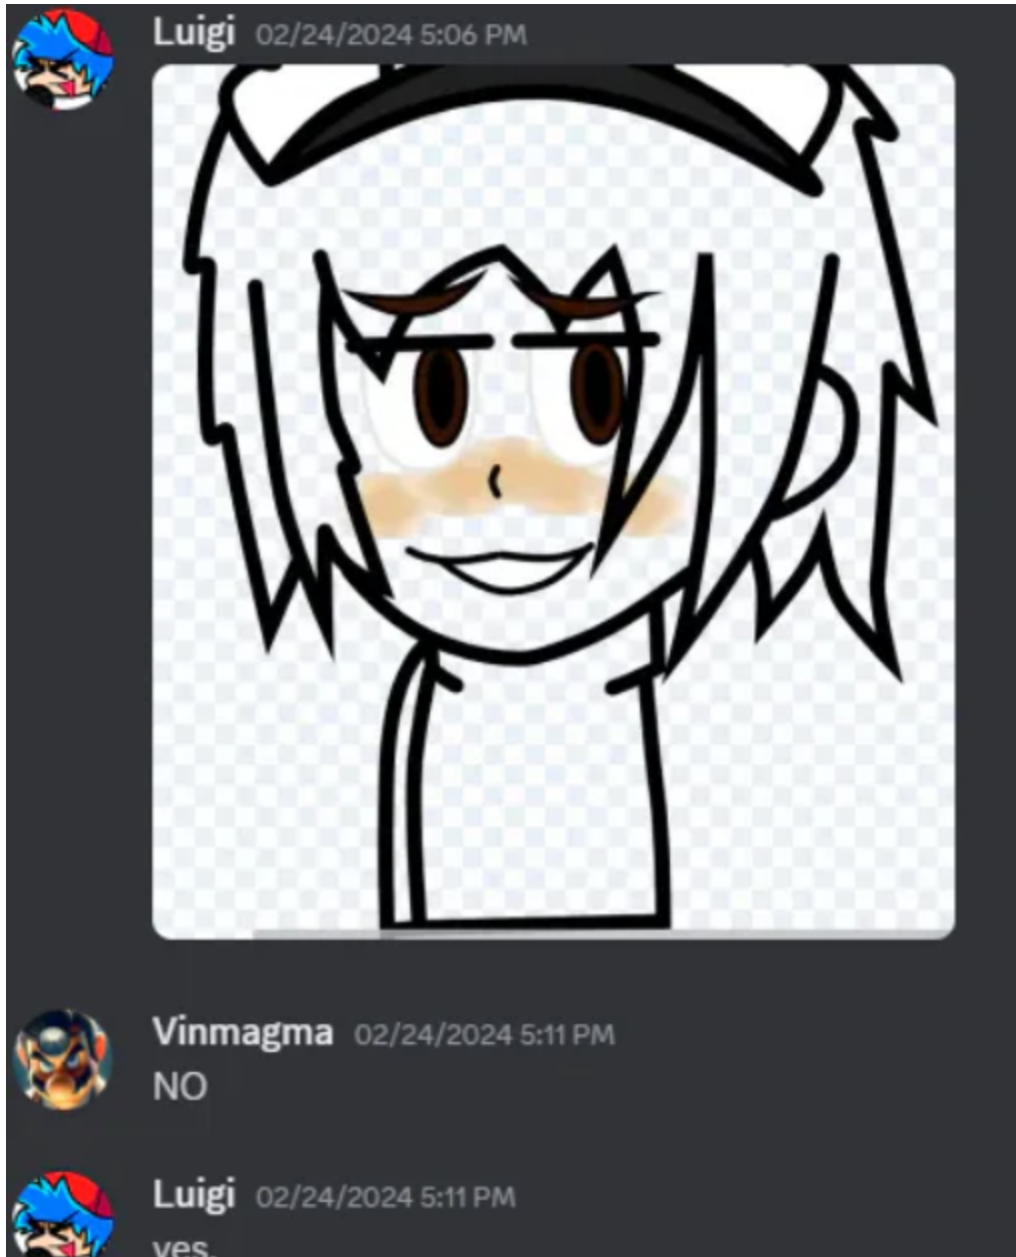

Now, all this could just be passed off as him joking, but I think anybody would be uncomfortable at this. It seriously weirded not only Felix out, but his girlfriend as well, who rightfully thought it was strange to be constantly calling your friend “daddy.”

Another instance, this time towards me:

(Before changing to the name FireLord, I used to go by FireKoopa)
You can clearly see me telling him to stop with the weird name calling MULTIPLE times, and yet he keeps on persisting, thinking this was all funny and not even thinking about how uncomfortable he was making me.
For another example towards Vinny:

Clearly, Vinny was extremely uncomfortable at this, rightfully so, who wouldn't be? Instead of apologizing for his mistake, he doubles down, still thinking this is all a joke and that secretly Vinny was actually okay with this, despite the big obvious "NO."

There are also multiple instances of him sending us straight pornography, as well as more sensual imagery of himself, all of which at the time he was around 11-14 years old.

To conclude all of this, he's just an outright weirdo and does NOT deserve his following. His attempts at keeping this away from the public is honestly outright disgusting, and if that already doesn't show, hopefully this convinced you some more, since he obviously never talked about it.

Thank you sincerely for reading all of this, I hope we're able to make a difference.

For those who wanted to see it, the image containing the image of CyanStar drawing himself doing inappropriate things, the screenshot is on the next page. VERY big warning because it's disgusting.
