

Love Music Hate Racism Leeds - The Battle of Holbeck Moor Live Show

- 21st September 2024 -

Easy Read Information

This is information about The Battle of Holbeck Moor live show, organised by Love Music Hate Racism Leeds.

September 2024
M	T	W	T	F	S	S
						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
30

The live show will be on Saturday 21st September 2024 at 4pm until 11pm.

Tickets are either free or 'pay as you feel', which means you can choose to donate. Suggested donation is £3-£10.

Donations go to Love Music Hate Racism for future events.

There will be lots of people at the live show. There will be loud music.

If you struggle with loud noise, you might want to use earplugs or headphones.

The live show is at The Holbeck (Holbeck Working Mens Club).

The postcode for The Holbeck (Holbeck Working Mens Club) is LS11 9QX.

You can get to The Holbeck (Holbeck Working Mens Club) by bus or taxi.

Click here for a link to bus routes to the city centre, or scan the QR code on the left.

This is the entrance to The Holbeck (Holbeck Working Mens Club).

There are two accessible/disabled parking bays, and a ramp from the car park to the door.

The entrance has an automatic door.

There is a button to open the door from the other side.

The live show is on the first floor.

There is a lift to get up to the first floor. The weight limit on the lift is 400kg.

You are welcome to wear a mask if you choose to.

There are mens & womens toilets, as well as a gender-neutral accessible/disabled toilet and a baby changing table.

The narrowest door between the entrance and the accessible toilet is 75.5cm.

Lewis 'Burner' Pugh

Some of the artists involved are: Lewis 'Burner' Pugh, Ushingi, Leeds Community Music Collective presenting: Radical Songs of Solidarity, Rory Wells, Emma McKee, Jake Gray, Matter, Tom Priestley, Henry Raby.

Holbeck Moor 1936.

The live show is to celebrate and remember when 30,000 people in Leeds stood against the British Union of Fascists on Holbeck Moor in 1936.

Holbeck Moor now.

This was after the British Union of Fascists had targeted Jewish communities in Leeds.

Click here for more information.