Title I, Part A Schoolwide
Parent Involvement Policy
2025-2026

A parent's participation in a student's education is very important.

Therefore FE will:

- ✓ Communicate to families and the community a policy for parent involvement,
- ✓ Provide a variety of opportunities for a partnership between home and school,
- ✓ Encourage parents to take advantage of opportunities to become actively involved with students in the school environment,
- ✓ Have in place a Home-School Compact to set a standard for partnering together,
- ✓ Share information concerning Title I, curriculum, testing and educational expectations in a variety of ways.

Parents can be involved by:

- ✓ Giving input into policy updates and changes,
- ✓ Attending informational meetings to learn about Title I, curriculum, testing, educational expectations and other important information,
- ✓ Being a part of parent/teacher conferences and family nights,
- ✓ Communicating to the school &/or teachers any special needs or family situations that affect the student,
- ✓ Giving attention to all communication (written or digital) from FE,
- ✓ Taking advantage of training offered to parents in literacy, technology, parenting skills, etc.
