

American Studies 1
Unit 2-Revolutionary America
Activity: Road to the Revolution

Students will examine the events that lead up to the American Revolution.

Create a visual representation that acts as a timeline of events that occurred between the French and Indian War and the American Revolution. You must include the following events:

The Proclamation of 1763	The Boston Massacre
The Sugar Act	The Tea Act
The Stamp Act	The Intolerable Acts
The Townshend Act	The Quebec Act

Visuals must include the year of the event, a description or summary of the event, and the reaction of the colonists to the event. Also, include a picture for each.

For your information, use the SHS databases and record the MLA source information.

American Studies 1
Unit 2-Revolutionary America
Activity: Road to the Revolution

Students will examine the events that lead up to the American Revolution.

Create a visual representation that acts as a timeline of events that occurred between the French and Indian War and the American Revolution. You must include the following events:

The Proclamation of 1763	The Boston Massacre
The Sugar Act	The Tea Act
The Stamp Act	The Intolerable Acts
The Townshend Act	The Quebec Act

Visuals must include the year of the event, a description or summary of the event, and the reaction of the colonists to the event. Also, include a picture for each.

For your information, use the SHS databases and record the MLA source information.

