

Barbies Get New Dolls

The Badass Barbies had a decent event in Moscow, Russia. While falling short of their 17 wins on the 7th Continent, the Barbies won 16 fights while losing 8. It was a slight step backwards but on a brighter note, the Barbies fought for 3 titles and left Russia with the Welterweight and Heavyweight belts.

Controversy continues to follow the Barbies and the Russia event was no exception. While Badass Barbie Stable Leader Kylie Jenner and her crew are at constant war with The Awesome Aries and their partner Stable the Lost Wildcats, Raccoon and the Hot and the Dangerous are now considered enemies. Luckily for Kylie, her good friends over at Strikeforce have continued to fight by their side and have helped even the odds.

Sin City Slugfest II

Sin City Slugfest II ended with Awesome Aries Katherine McPhee walking away with the title. A dejected Sofia Richie lost in a grueling 10 round contest and felt she had the fight in hand but let it slip away. Sofia did an awesome job considering that this was her debut in the squared circle and to make the finals was quite an accomplishment. She is also proud that she put her new big mouthed rival Hunter King in her place and would like to let Hunter know that she would gladly meet her in the ring again and that the next time they meet Hunter will be knocked out.

Tag Team Boxing

Kylie has agreed to sponsor a new event that will feature Tag Team Boxing. The initial event will take place shortly will feature a team of siblings throwing down in what may soon become the new trending sport. The finals are set with Hunter King and her sisters Joey and Kelli will take on Bella Thorne and her sisters Kaili and Dani. The remainder of the card will be announced shortly and the Rules for the event are posted on the Forum.

Kristen Stewart Victorious

Kristen Stewart and her teammates Cara Delevingne and Ashley Benson were relaxing in their hotel room after winning their fights in Moscow when they were rudely interrupted by 3 muscle-bound thugs from Raccoon. Alexandra Paul, Joalin Loukamaa and their stable leader Chyler Leigh broke in and demanded that Kristen redact her comments from a one on one exclusive interview with Erin Andrews. Kristen flat out refused standing firm with her comments and was quickly challenged by the 3 Raccoons. Kristen easily beat Alexandra in an arm wrestling match slamming her hand to the table in a mere 13 seconds. She lost out to Chyler in a body scissors contest but came back after the 2 grueling events to beat Joalin in a best 2 out of 3 submission wrestling match.

The 3 dejected Raccoons left with their tails tucked tightly between their legs while Kristen walked away victorious in what was falsely dubbed “The Punishment of Kristen Stewart”. Kristen took on all 3 and was exhausted afterwards but is glad that she got to pay Raccoon back after cutting her from their roster and trying to ruin her career. She hopes that she puts this chapter behind her but wants to let them know that she is not through with Chyler and looks forward to having another leg battle with her.

Christmas Party Vindication

Vanessa Hudgens shook off her humiliating ordeal at the Annual Raccoon Christmas Party where she was brutally attacked and embarrassed by Joalin Loukama. Vanessa bravely survived the cowardly incident after getting snow rubbed in her face and then stuffed down the front of her shirt in front of her UCC piers.

Nessa beat a very worthy adversary from Queens of the Cage at UCC XI. This was Mercedeh Allen's 2nd defeat to Vanessa who fought her heart out and now seems to have her confidence back. She is already in training for her next bout against Seulgi from the Idols Stable.

Kylie has decided to forgive Raccoon for falsely accusing her and her sister Kendall of cheating in the ice sculpting contest. Neither sister is losing sleep over the incident as the trophy for winning was probably worthless like the Raccoon merchandise they were planning on giving away. Ariana Grande is also forgiven after beating Kylie with a wooden candy cane. After considering legal action Kylie remembered how much Ariana loves Raccoon's.

New Badass Barbie Dolls

It's been over a year since Kylie had custom Barbie Dolls made for her stable. With the roster expansion and some new faces, Kylie has commissioned toy maker Mattel to make 25 new unique and individual Barbie Dolls for each member of her stable. All of the new Dolls are made in limited quantities and are already collectable.

Additional Trainers

While most of the Badass Barbies are doing well, Kylie feels that some extra attention is needed for a few of her fighters. Any Badass Barbie who has lost 2 fights in a row will be given extra attention and the training staff will work with them until they get back in the win column. Currently Olivia Holt, Ashley Tisdale, Lucy Hale, and Nina Dobrev will receive preferential treatment.

Erin Andrews Interviews

Erin Andrews sat down with each fighter and true to form Erin held nothing back. She met with each fighter in the luxurious St. Regis Moscow Nikolskaya Hotel on Red Square. Kylie had the room swept for bugs and the Barbies felt comfortable that they were no longer being watched.

Heavyweights

Erin: Our first fighter is the reigning Heavyweight Champion Kylie Jenner. How are you doing after surviving all the drama at Antarctica?
Kylie: Drama? Just another day at the office.

Erin: You do handle it well. Most people would be overwhelmed but you somehow keep your cool through it all.
Kylie: It's my job, Erin. It's not easy but that's why they call it work.

Erin: You successfully defended your title against one of the biggest fighters in the UCC. How do you prepare for someone as opposing as Robyn Lawlwy?

Kylie: Robyn is not just one of the biggest fighters but she is extremely talented. Most fighters her size rely on the brute strength to bully you around the cage but Robyn has quick hands and lethal kicks. You can't let your guard down for 1 second or she can finish you off with a single strike.

Erin: Did you prepare differently this time?
Kylie: That's a great question. You don't want to change something that worked the first time but you know that your opponent will come in with a different strategy. When you fight someone like Robyn you have to cover all of your bases.

Erin: It went 3 rounds but you were in control for most of the fight. How did you feel it went?
Kylie: Well I won and I'm not in the Hospital so I guess it went well. For the second straight fight she came out and tagged me. Not just your ordinary punch but kind of like getting hit with a Lacrosse Stick. This time she countered with an uppercut and I'm lucky I kept my legs under me.

Erin: Do you feel that your speed kept you out of danger?
Kylie: My speed and my fear of getting hit. Like I said she didn't land many strikes but caused a lot of damage.

Erin: You'll be fighting Centerfold Angel Valerie van der Graafe in Greece. Do you feel you will keep your 9 fight win streak alive?

Kylie: We fought back in Germany about a year ago and I had a surprisingly easy time but I know the Angels will have her ready. I'll be ready also so it should be a very competitive fight. I look forward to it.

Erin: Next up we have Hailee Steinfeld. Welcome Hailee.

Hailee: Always nice to see you especially after a big win.

Erin: This is the 2nd straight event that you fought a Hellfire Girls Club fighter and your 2nd straight win. What can you tell us about Elizabeth Gillies?

Hailee: She kind of got a late start in the UCC but won 9 of her first 12 fights.

Erin: What does she bring into the cage that had you worried?

Hailee: Let's see. 2 wins against Gabrielle Reece and a brutal KO win over Maria Sharapova. Holy crap!

Erin: Tell us about your fight.

Hailee: Oh, and Elizabeth is strong. Her legs are very muscular and obviously she can hit hard.

Erin: Did that change the way you started out the fight?

Hailee: I knew I had to come out fast because once Elizabeth gets going she's hard to stop. I had to take control early or it could have been a long fight.

Erin: It did go your way and in the end you dominated the fight out-striking her 67-10. Did you feel that you had the fight right away?

Hailee: Ummm, no. You always want to be cautious in the Heavyweight division. There are a ton of big hitters and Liz is one of them. One wrong move and you could get your face smashed in.

Erin: You will be fighting Victoria Silvstedt in Athens. How do you prepare for someone as experienced as Victoria?

Hailee: Victoria has a height and weight advantage that I'll have to figure out. I'm younger and faster though so it should be close.

Erin: You're currently the 7th ranked Heavyweight. When do you see yourself challenging for the title?

Hailee: That's not on my mind right now. I'll try and beat Victoria first then move on from there.

Erin: Next we have Taylor Swift. You really have gotten it going again and have won 5 of your last 6 after your first 4 fight losing streak.

Taylor: Are we going to keep going back to my losing streak?

Erin: It's just that you were at rock bottom after losing your first leg battle to Taylor Hill.

Taylor: Don't ever mention that bitch again. She promised me a rematch and won't give me a chance to get her back.

Erin: That could be because her stable folded.

Taylor: What? Proud Legs Corporation no longer exists?

Erin: They are no longer active in the UCC.

Taylor: Well that sucks. I was so looking forward to beating her ass.

Erin: Let's get to your match against Alexandra Daddario. The first time you fought she won in the 3rd when the ref stopped the fight. What did you do differently this time?

Taylor: That was a long time ago. She kicked my ass back then.

Erin: Hailee Steinfeld just fought her in Antarctica, did she give you any pointers?

Taylor: Hailee helped out a ton and gave me pointers. Alexandra is a solid fighter and you have to be at your best.

Erin: It was a lot different this time. Your kicks gave her fits and were the difference in the fight. Was that your plan?

Taylor: Of course I always try and use my legs as an advantage although since they are so long it sometimes makes my kicks easier to block. Fortunately when they land they can do a lot of damage.

Erin: Do you feel that you're finally back? Is 2021 going to be your year?

Taylor: I'll have to get by Alexandra's teammate first. Maria Sharapova is one of the most opposing fighters alive. I'll give it my best and do whatever it takes.

Middleweights

Erin: Next up we have Zendaya Coleman who just set the record for the most points scored in back to back fights. Zendaya, what has gotten into you lately?

Zendaya: Not sure, I just try and do my best each fight.

Erin: You fought your teammate Kendall Jenner in what was supposed to be a close fight. Were you surprised at how easily you dominated?

Zendaya: I wouldn't say I dominated.

Erin: 91 strikes landed and almost 9000 in damage while she barely touched you. I'd call that a dominating effort.

Zendaya: It could have gone the opposite just as easily. I was lucky to get in a few strikes right away and took over from there.

Erin: The word around the locker room is that Kendall may have poked fun at Alexandra Paul and that is set you off before the fight. Do you care to comment?

Zendaya: No comment! I'm not here to talk about my girlfriend. Let's just keep it to my fights.

Erin: It is kind of related seeing that it affected you in the cage.

Zendaya: A lot of factors affect your cage performance. I'm just saying for the record that nothing Kendall may or may not have said affected the outcome.

Erin: So you're basically saying that you would have kicked her butt regardless?

Zendaya: Please stop. I told you I got in some early shots that changed the fight.

Erin: There are also rumors floating about saying that you will be requesting a trade so you can spend more time with your "Girlfriend"?

Zendaya: Where did you hear that? Who told you? I . . . I think we are done here!

Erin: Zara Larsson looked to start a win streak after avenging a loss to Hot and Dangerous Heather Tom down in Antarctica. Welcome, Zara. Did you get a chance to see your family while in Russia?

Zara: No, Stockholm is over 1500km away from Moscow.

Erin: I thought it would be a lot closer than that.

Zara: I actually liked Moscow but prefer Sweden.

Erin: It's never easy fighting a Centerfold Angel. What did Tiffany Toth bring into the cage that worried you the most?

Zara: Tiffany is good in all aspects of cage fighting, She has wins from punches, kicks, submissions, knees, and ground and pound so you just can't go into a fight with her looking to dominate any one aspect.

Erin: Let's get to your fight. It was a pretty even first round and neither of you were able to do much damage. You ended up on your back after a risky submission attempt.

Zara: I take it you talk about the Flying Omoplata. I just learned it and couldn't wait to try it. It was a big time fail.

Erin: Was it similar to the Gogoplata you submitted Heather Tom with in Antarctica?

Zara: It's kind of similar but you have to leave your feet and Tiffany had it figured out. I paid for it and spent the rest of the round on my back. I doubt you'll be seeing it again.

Erin: You came out in the second and took over the fight. What did you do differently?

Zara: We were very evenly matched in the clinch and on the mat but my striking was the difference.

Erin: You did win the striking battle 45 to 10 and had her busted up by the middle of the 2nd. When you have a quality fighter like Tiffany in trouble, when do you decide to try and finish her off?

Zara: That all depends. You never want to force the action and end up on your ass like I did in the first round. You have to go about it and take whatever advantage you can.

Erin: It took you a few more rounds but eventually you won with an injury to her eye. Obviously Tiffany didn't agree with the ref. Do you feel it was a fair decision?

Zara: She just couldn't see anything out of her right eye. It was getting dangerous and the ref did the right thing.

Erin: Next up is Sofia Richie. Soph's, you've been pretty busy lately with your fight against Sabine Jemeljanova and your entrance in Sin City Slugfest II. How do you prepare for so many fights in one month?

Sofia: Of course my priority is the UCC. Sin City Slugfest gave me a chance to hone in my boxing skills.

Erin: Let's start with your boxing debut. It wasn't easy but you made it all the way to the finals.

Sofia: Pretty good for a rookie, hey.

Erin: You could have easily won the finals but you fell a little short against Katherine McPhee.

Sofia: It was close but she cheated and elbowed me right across the chest. I was coming on and taking over and that changed the fight.

Erin: She complained about your low blows and you had a few points taken away.

Sofia: She's just a big whining baby. If you look at the tape all of my lower punches hit her on or about her waistband. Her stomach was getting soft and she complained enough and got a few calls. I may have lost the finals but I got to beat Hunter King so it made it all worthwhile. Any time you can shut up a bitch like her you did your job, Plus her bikini top looks awesome above my locker! Thanks, Bella.

Erin: Back to your fight with Sabine, she is alway dangerous and is one of World of Flights amazing Middleweights.

Sofia: That's an understatement, I think it was a month ago when World of Fight held the 4 top spots.

Erin: It ended up going your way and you dominated the action from the opening bell. Did you see it going your way like it did?

Sofia: No way. Sabine is talented and very dangerous. I was fortunate to land an uppercut and I think she never fully recovered after that.

Erin: Sabine did make it into the 3rd but wasn't 100 percent. Tell us about your finish.

Sofia: We're in the clinch and she's hanging on and I could tell she wasn't going to mount much of an offense. I grabbed a huge handful of hair and dragged her to the mat and she just went out on me.

Erin: You'll be fighting Hayden Panettiere in Greece. How do you think you'll fare against a veteran like her?

Sofia: If you look at her record Hayden has probably been one of the better Middleweights last year. She started out losing her first 4 fights but has gone 9-3 since then. She may be one of the shorter Middleweight but she's strong as hell.

Erin: Next we have Kendall Jenner. Are you OK? That was one hell of a beating you just endured?

Kendall: I'll be good but that was painful. Zendaya showed that she is one of the best and really beat my ass.

Erin: What happened? Usually you two are fairly well matched up in the gym?

Kendall: She just got the better of me. It was one of those fights where nothing I did worked and I couldn't stop her. She was determined.

Erin: You did manage to land 19 strikes but only caused 193 points in damage while Zendaya went off landing over 90 strikes causing over 8000 in damage. At least you showed you can take a punch.

Kendall: Well there's that. She did even better in her previous fight against Gigi. She's fighting about as good as anyone lately.

Erin: There are rumors going around the locker room that you may have said something negative about her relationship with Alexandra Paul. Did you say anything to Zendaya that may have set her off?

Kendall: I'll be the first to admit that I have no use for Alexandra Paul. Kylie and I have had issues with Raccoon but we're over it now. What Zendaya does is her business. She could do a lot better if you ask me..

Erin: So there is no bad blood between you and Zendaya?

Kendall: Not as far as I'm concerned.

Erin: Are you still upset that you and Kylie got kicked out of the Ice Sculpting event for cheating?

Kendall: Kylie and I worked hard learning how to carve ice and to be accused of cheating is just wrong. Fuck Alex Danvers. She's about as useless as they come. Can't fight for shit and knows nothing about the law.

Erin: You'll be fighting Centerfold Angel Hope Dworaczyk in Athens. Any predictions?

Kendall: I sure hope I win. Hope is talented but I'm pretty sure I'm the better fighter and should win.

Welterweights

Erin: Our next fighter is 2 time Welterweight Champion Shailene Woodley. Congratulations on regaining your title.

Shailene: Thanks, it's been a long road back to the top.

Erin: Hellfire Girls Club's Kira Kosarin has been unstoppable lately taking the title from Bella Hadid at UCC X. What kind of strategy did you work on for Kira?

Shailene: Kira has been winning fights lately with her Muay Thai. Once she gets you in the clinch she can destroy you with her nasty elbows and knees. I knew if she tied me up I'd be in big trouble.

Erin: Did you feel that your reach was going to give you an advantage?

Shailene: I was hoping to keep her off balance with my striking but that would mean fighting off my back foot.

Erin: You started out fast and landed a superman punch that put her on her heels. Do you feel that you hurt her and maybe turned the fight?

Shailene: Kira just landed a looping left hand and it stunned me. My instincts took over and I lunged forward with a superman punch.

Erin: She was never the same afterwards and only managed to land some glancing blows. .

Shailene: It may have stung her right away but she's as tough as they come and she fought back and was just fine.

Erin: You knocked her down with a viscous hook then dropped an elbow deep in her belly then wouldn't let her get up. Why would you keep her on her back when you just knocked her down? Isn't that letting her back into the fight?

Shailene: There are 2 thoughts to that, She spent a lot of energy dodging kicks while on her back plus by not letting them up you let them know who's in charge. It's one of the mental aspects of cage fighting.

Erin: Kira came out fast in the 2nd and tagged you on the chin, poked you in the eye then locked you in a tight clinch. How did you escape?

Shailene: I was able to land some solid knees to her chest and ribs then follow it up with some big hooks to the body. Her guard went down and then I dropped her on her butt with a hook to the jaw.

Erin: This time you let her right up. Could you tell you had her in trouble?

Shailene: For sure but Kira is always dangerous. I was able to land a head kick and knock her out. I'll take the win but it could have easily gone either way. Kira will be back fighting for the title.

Erin: Speaking of which you'll be fighting Bella Hadid who took the belt from you the last time you fought. Any thought on what you will do differently this time?

Shailene: This will be our 3rd fight and were all even. Bella is an amazing fighter and I'll have to be perfect to beat her,

Erin: Next we have Bella Thorne. How do you like your Barbie Doll?

Bella: Kylie is so amazing. She does cool shit like this all the time.

Erin: Were you expecting a more slutty looking doll?

Bella: Because I'm a slut? Are you saying that my Barbie should look like a whore with a thong and the tits hanging out?

Erin: No just. No no. I just thought since you dress so . . . daring that you would want your Barbie to look a little more risque.

Bella: I'm just fucking eith you, Erin. I'll fix her up.

Erin: Elsa Hosk Gave you a really good fight, Were you expecting her to come out so fast?

Bella: She came out fast but didn't land much. Once I was able to lock her up I pretty much had my way with her. Don't get me wrong, Elsa is strong and has this bitchin rock hard body but she wasn't in my league.

Erin: You never let her in the fight but had trouble putting her away.

Bella: Like I said, she's in shape and can take a hit.

Erin: The fight went to a decision. Were you surprised that it ended up close in the judges eyes?

Bella: I really felt I won every round. Sometimes the Judges get it wrong but I won so that's all that matters.

Erin: You'll be fighting Britney Spears in Athens. How do you see that fight playing out?

Bella: All I know is that Britney is truly awesome. Selena and I are her biggest fans and we think she's not only the best entertainer on the planet but one of the best fighters in the UCC. I guess you could call us FanGirls. We love us some Britney.

Erin: Next up is Selena Gomez. Sel, tough time in there against Ellie Goulding.

Selena: I'd say. First off, Ellie is on fire. This was her 9th straight win and to make it to a decision took everything I had,

Erin: It was a close fight through the first 4 rounds and even on the score cards. How were you feeling after battling Ellie for 20 minutes?

Selena: To be honest I was in survival mode. I had my chances early and busted her open pretty bad. I probably spent too much energy targeting her cuts and took some unnecessary punishment from it.

Erin: It was a classic fight with both of you taking turns taking the fight to each other. How hard is it to take some strikes and fight back?

Selena: It's harder to pick yourself off the mat, She knocked me off my feet a few times and it's not like there's a standing 8 count in the UCC to save you. You pretty much have to get your shit together on your own.

Erin: Her knees caused a lot of damage throughout the fight. Was that something you planned for?

Selena: Apparently not. Ellie's clinch game is one of the best.

Erin: The 5th rolls around and both of you are a bloody mess. How were you feeling and how did you like your chances?

Selena: I went out and gave it everything I had but Ellie was the fresher fighter and wanted it more.

Erin: It ended up going her way and she pretty much dominated the 5th using her knees to punish your body. How hard is it to fight so hard only to see your opponent take over?

Selena: You're not going to win every fight. Ellie gave me a beating in the 5th but I wasn't going to go down no matter what. She kind of put her mark on the fight when she bitch slapped me at the end. I'll remember that one.

Erin: Your next opponent will be Centerfold Angel Kennedy Summer. What will you be expecting from Kennedy?

Selena: Kennedy split her 2 fights with Kira so I'll have to go and study their fights. I'm fine now and will be ready.

Erin: You went to the Forum and gave your good buddy Amber Heard a shout out for beating your rival Hilary Duff. Do you feel that you may have dragged Amber into one of your feuds?

Selena: Amber is her own boss and obviously she can take care of herself. She sure beat the shit out of Hilary. Amber but talked some shit put her money where her mouth is and backed it up. Hopefully Hilary will take her beating as a lesson not to mess with either of us ever again. I can't fight her but Amber will gladly kick her ass again.

Erin: Nina Dobrev looked to avoid a losing streak after winning the Welterweight Mini Dress Tournament. Nina, what happened?

Nina: My loss to Doutzen Kroes was hard, especially seeing that she only hit me a few times. I got caught out and lost.

Erin: Belen Rodriguez is always dangerous but you were handily beating her until.

Nina: Until? Until I let her back into the fight.

Erin: What's happening? You were in control but Belen took over.

Nina: I'll give Belen a lot of credit. I gave her my best shots and had her pulped up but she hung in there and wouldn't give.

Erin: Was there a particular moment that turned the fight around?

Nina: After I won the first I got over confident and Belen started using her legs. She kicked me in the chest then started laning leg kicks.

Erin: It looked like you were having trouble moving. Did those legs kicks affect your mobility?

Nina: She targeted my calves, it's new to MMA but very effective.

Erin: A lot of people felt that you were knocked out by a grazing blow. Did her left hook hit you cleanly?

Nina: It hit me right on the button. I don't have a glass jaw. I can take a punch you know but Belen nailed me.

Erin: This has been your 11th fight as a Welterweight and so far you have 6 wins and 5 losses. When you were a Featherweight you were 6-2 and in the top 10. Are you having trouble adjusting to stronger opponents?

Nina: That's ridiculous. I just need to stay focused for the whole fight. No more letdowns.

Erin: You will face off against Belen's younger sister Cecelia Rodriguez at the next event. Many experts including Joe Rogan feel that she is the better fighter of the two. How are you going to prepare for her as opposed to her sister Belen?

Nina: I heard she's good so I'll have to be ready for anything.

Erin: Our next fighter is Jordyn Jones. Welcome, Jordyn. Congratulations on your big win over Jennifer Stano.

Jordyn: Thank you, Ms. Andrews.

Erin: You can call me Erin.

Jordyn: OK. I'm just trying to be respectful to my elders. Sorry, I'm not insinuating that you're over the hill or anything like that,

Erin: So we're back to your Old Ladies are Disgusting mode?

Jordyn: It's not like your old or anything like that. I'm just trying to be polite.

Erin: I'm guessing that you're going to mention Jennifer's age.

Jordyn: No, I wasn't but since you mentioned it.

Erin: Jennifer is only 36,. She's not that old.

Jordyn: And she is incredibly strong. We ended up wrestling a lot and it took everything I had to overpower her.

Erin: You won the fight in the clinch. Was that your strategy going in?

Jordyn: Jennifer is a submission specialist so I mostly worked on not being taken down.

Erin: Jennifer was only able to take you down once and you actually were the one who tried a submission. Is this something Kylie had you working on?

Jordyn: I heard that the best offense is a good defense whatever that means.

Erin: That means that if your opponent likes submissions then you should try and submit her instead.

Jordyn: Kind of like giving them a taste of their own medicine? My Mom says that all the time. You old people have some really weird expressions.

Erin: You'll be fighting Christina Agularia at UCC XI. She's very dangerous on her feet and on the mat. How will you prepare for her?

Jordyn: She's probably stronger than Jennifer, At least her legs are so I'll be in the gym working on my strength.

Lightweights

Erin: Kristen Stewart is our next fighter. Well, you've been making headlines since our last one on one. Were you prepared for the media storm that followed?

Kristen: OMG! Can you believe that they would take it so personal?

Erin: Not at all. I felt you were sincere and had some valid points.

Kristen: Obviously they saw it differently. All I know is that they came into my room, wanted to put their bodies up against mine and I won 2 out of 3.

Erin: You had to be exhausted by the final bout.

Kristen: My arms and legs were spent but I beat Joalin Loukamaa in a submission match and their plan backfired.

Erin: I hope this will be the end of it.

Kristen: Me too. I need to concentrate on my UCC career and not arm or leg wrestle against a bunch of steroid laden psychopaths.

Erin: Chelsie Aryn is always dangerous. How were you able to beat her so easily?

Kristen: Chelsie is known to switch it up. One fight she's a ground and pound fighter and another all she wants to do is clinch. You have to cover all your bases when you fight her.

Erin: Wouldn't she be better off if she just went in and saw what was going to work and go with that.

Kristen: It's really not that simple. If you want to be successful at your ground game you work on that during training. It's your focus but it's not like you forgot how to use your other disciplines.

Erin: Your defense was spot on and you were able to block all of Chelsea's 41 strikes. How did that happen?

Kristen: Lot's of time in the gym and lot's of tape. You have to be prepared or you'll get run over in a flash.

Erin: Hellfire Stable Leader Jennifer Connelley is next. What are her strengths?

Kristen: When you fight a legend like Jennifer you can't make a single mistake or she'll quickly end your night.

Erin: Next up is the 8th ranked Lightweight, Madison Beer. Maddy, how is everything going lately?

Madison: Great. I feel I'm fighting at a high level and working for Kylie is a dream job.

Erin: You fought Strikeforce standout Miranda Kerr and walked away with a hard fought split decision win. Was it hard to get an advantage seeing that you two train together?

Madison: Miranda is one of those fighters who has one speed and that is all out. She never lets up even when training.

Erin: The fight was a classic back and forth battle with neither of you getting a decided advantage. How do you keep going knowing that your opponent isn't going to let up?

Madison: You just have to want it more and never give in.

Erin: Are you talking about fighting to win every round?

Madison: I'm talking about winning every exchange.

Erin: You easily landed more strikes and caused considerably more damage but that's not how the fight is scored. Were you concerned waiting for the decision?

Madison: You know you can tell a lot by looking at your opponent. After we beat each other up for 25 minutes Miranda looked like she had doubts. I felt confident that I would come out on top especially after taking the fight to her in the 5th,

Erin: What were you thinking when one of the judges had it 49-46 for Miranda?

Madison: That's the problem with leaving it up to the Judges. You never know what they see and what they feel is important. Blood sometimes plays a role but the good judges will look past that.

Erin: You did win and did a majority of the damage in a very contentious fight. Will you and Miranda remain training partners?

Madison: Of course we will. She's going to be mad at herself for a while but she'll get over it.

Erin: You get Hellfire Girls Club's Emily Ratajowski for your next fight. What do you know about Emily?

Madison: Emily will be a challenge. She just beat Ashley Tisdale so I'll get some feedback and see if we can come up with a better plan.

Erin: Next we have Ashley Benson. Ashley, it's been 6 months since your signing. How would you say it's going so far?

Ashley: I feel I've done fairly well seeing that I had a pretty dismal record while at Vassago.

Erin: You seem to be getting along with everyone and you've won 4 out of your 5 fights, Do you like being a Barbie?

Ashley: Absolutely, I feel like I'm coming into my own.

Erin: Winning a few fights will do that. Kerry Washington is a very dangerous opponent who is coming off an impressive armbar submission win. How do you prepare to defend a submission expert like Kerry?

Ashley: It all starts in the gym. Lots of repetition with your takedown defense and then you roll on the mat with a Jiu Jitsu coach until they feel you can defend yourself. Then you work on your strengths.

Erin: Your training paid off and you were able to get an easy win.

Ashley: I'd never say any win in the UCC is easy.

Erin: You spent most of the fight on the ground where Kerry wanted it but you were able to stop her submissions and ground and pound and land some strikes of your own. Since you did so well will we be seeing more Jiu Jitsu from you?

Ashley: I'm a striker but it's good to show the league that I can take care of myself on the mat.

Erin: Tell us about your finish.

Ashley: I was able to tie her up tight in the clinch and then land some solid uppercuts. I saw her legs get weak and I just started unloading until she hit the ground hard.

Erin: It was an impressive win. Will we see a repeat against your next opponent?

Ashley: I get Laura Pulver from Queens of Pain. They're new but they look like they have it together.

Erin: Do you care to comment on what happened in Kristen Stewart's Hotel room in Moscow?

Ashley: I'll leave that to Kristen. All I will say is that Raccoon already regrets cutting her from their roster. Alexandra got pinned in a few seconds and that little shit Joalin got put in her place.

Erin: Next up we have a dejected Dove Cameron. Dovey, how are you doing, everyone is so concerned,
Dove: I'm fine. Why wouldn't I be?

Erin: Losing for the third time to Jessa Hinton has to be demoralizing.
Dove: I'm fine, Erin. If you want to feel sorry for me then go ahead. I'm a positive person and will always be that way.

Erin: So you're OK with getting your ass kicked 3 straight times from Jessa?
Dove: I'm doing better each time and when we fight again in Athens I expect it to be even closer and I just might win.

Erin: Isn't it kind of like being in High School and losing a catfight to your hated rival. Then losing the rematch in front of the whole school only to have her do it again and steal your boyfriend?
Dove: You must have had a hard time in High School. Do you want to talk about it?

Erin: I uh.No! My High School years were perfectly normal.
Dove: From what I've heard, Erin. It's never easy losing a boyfriend. Of course that's never happened to me.

Erin: Fine then. Let's get to your fight. You were able to survive until a decision but again Jessa was simply too much. What will you try next time?
Dove: I just have to increase my accuracy. Jessa isn't the number one fighter by chance. Of course her striking is amazing but she is probably the best defensive fighter in the UCC. I'll have to find a way to land more. I'm not going to overpower her, she's taller and stronger so I'll have to outsmart her and land more strikes. It's as simple as that. If I can do that then I have a good shot at upsetting her.

Erin: I have to give you a lot of credit. Most fighters who get beaten like that will be tempted to throw in the towel but you are willing to go in there and go for it. Good luck.
Dove: It will probably take some of that but I'll be better prepared this time.

Erin: If you lose again do you think you deserve another title shot?
Dove: It's not like the UFC where they just pick the most popular fighter to fight for the title. The UCC uses a complicated ranking system and the top title holder and the next ranked fighter battle it out. It's a fair system and there's no politics involved.

Erin: Speaking of being beat down, our next fighter Ashlet Tisdale has had a tough time in the cage lately. What will you be looking to do to turn your luck around?
Ashley: It's not all that bad. Elisabetta Gregoraci and Emily Ratajowski are two of the top Lightweights.

Erin: Well enough. Do you feel you were ready after your injury
Ashley: Physically I was fine but my timing was off and my cardio wasn't where it should have been.

Erin: Are we going with that? Emily looked really good.
Ashley: I'm not knocking anything Emily did but I just wish I was at 100 percent.

Erin: Would it really have made a difference?
Ashley: I'd like to think so.

Erin: You are 13-5 I guess.
Ashley: I've worked hard and every fighter goes through some rough times.

Erin: Looking back it was close in the beginning. When did the fight turn?
Ashley: She came out very aggressively in the 3rd and caught me with a haymaker. It stunned me and I never fully recovered.

Erin: You almost made it to the end but Emily pinned you down and got a solid grip on your top. Have you ever considered wearing something other than that flimsy white tube top?
Ashley: You know, that was my good luck top. I was 8-0 fighting in it until Emily ripped it off.

Erin: Your next opponent will be Strikeforce Lightweight Miranda Kerr. Are you familiar with Miranda?
Ashley: We've spared a few times but haven't rolled on the mat. It's usually Dove and Miranda throwing down. Those two are friendly but not in the cage. Everytime they go at it the whole gym stops and watches. Those two put on quite a show.

Erin: A very upset Paris Berelc is our next fighter. Paris, why are you still upset?

Paris: Thanks for taking the time to interview me, Erin.

Erin: You know it's my job, right.

Paris: Of course but you do an amazing job.

Erin: Are you saying nice things so I don't bring up your losing record?

Paris: Of course not. It's just that I've always been a huge fan.

Erin: Thanks. Tell us why you're so upset. You literally tore up the locker room after your match against Brittney Raymond.

Paris: Piseed off is more like it. I spent the better part of 6 weeks training for Lea Seydoux. I probably have the best camp of my life and when we go to the weigh-ins they tell me I'm fighting Brittany. What the fuck?

Erin: They are two completely different fighters.

Paris: I know. Lea is a striker and Brittany loves wrestling on the mat.

Erin: I guess it doesn't look as bad anymore seeing that you weren't prepared but being taken down 22 times has to be demoralizing.

Paris: It was but at least I got up most of the time. It seemed throughout the fight I was warding off a submission or covering up trying to block her nasty as hell elbows.

Erin: To your credit you took the fight to a decision. Did you feel you had a chance at pulling off a win?

Paris: Not a chance. Like you said getting taken down on 22 out of 25 attempts isn't going to win you many fights. I never got my striking going and every time I'd string a few punches together she shot in and took me down.

Erin: Well all that preparation for Lea might not have been wasted time as you'll be fighting her in Athens.

Paris: Unless they throw me a curveball again. Thanks for the heads up UCC.

Erin: You've been caught up in a little controversy involving Jessica Biel and the size of her feet. What gives?

Paris: I'm just defending my teammates. If you mess with any of my teammates you have to mess with me.

Erin: I'm not so sure picking a fight with Jessica Biel is a smart move for a Lightweight rookie.

Paris: I'm not afraid of her. She messed with Zendaya so I'll be there to defend her.

Featherweights

Erin: Cara Delevingne faced off against fellow Londoner Maisie Williams. Cara, are you and Maisie friends?

Cara: We've met but we haven't hung out. She's more of a homebody and not a partier.

Erin: Maisie missed a few events due to her Stable closing but came back and won a Featherweight Denim Tournament.

Cara: I know, she's good but she had a rough go in her next bout. Sometimes it takes a few months to fully get back in shape.

Erin: There was a lot at stake seeing that the winner would get a title shot. Does that put extra pressure on you?

Cara: It does. It's hard enough to get a win in this competitive league, especially the Featherweight division. When you can get a shot at a title you give it everything you have because you may not get another chance.

Erin: Maisie proved to be stubborn and fought you tooth and nail.

Cara: For her size she is probably the top pound for pound fighter.

Erin: The fight went to the judges with you winning a 48-47 decision. Were you concerned that she may have done enough to win?

Cara: Not really, I outhit her and did more damage but like they say, you never know.

Erin: It was extremely close and they couldn't even agree on who won each round.

Cara: I think they gave me the 4th but other than they were all over the place.

Erin: You get a shot at the title in Athens. How will you prepare for Audrey Allen seeing that she is smaller like Maisie?

Cara: I try to stay out of the pocket and use my reach. I'll have to get better at landing kicks. I think I was something like 1 out of 23 against Maisie. That won't cut it against Audrey.

Erin: Next up we have Miley Cyrus. Miley, is it hard to fight a teammate and good friend?

Miley: It's tough as hell but we're all professionals around here and we get in the cage and do our best to beat the shit out of each other and leave all the nastiness in the cage.

Erin: Olivia Holt has consistently been one of the top Featherweights and has been in the top 5 for most of her UCC career. How does it feel to get a win over her?

Miley: To be totally honest she was getting the better of me. It wasn't the best start.

Erin: Actually you landed the first significant strike with a big right hand that clearly rattled Olivia. Did you know that you had her in trouble?

Miley: I went to follow up but she drilled me in the body with a couple of solid lefts.

Erin: How important is getting off to a good start?

Miley: I guess it's better than getting off to a bad start.

Erin: After you exchanged big blows you settled into a clinch but Livvy was getting the better of the action and was pushing you around the cage. What did you do to get the momentum?

Miley: Are you talking about the crotch claw or me trying to rip her top off?

Erin: We usually don't see that between teammates. Do you two have a problem with each other?

Miley: Livvy and all of the Barbies know that's how I roll. Maybe cupping my hand between her legs might have been a bit over the line but it made her break the hold.

Erin: Are you comfortable getting into a dirty fight?

Miley: I'm not In Yo Face Bitches dirty but I can hold my own. I don't usually start anything but I can fight back.

Erin: Sometimes it backfires when your opponent goes for some payback. Livvy sat on your chest and almost locked in a facesit.

Miley: You know Olivia practices that move a lot. She has incredibly thick thighs. No doubt from all of her Gymnastics but once she sits on your face and brings her thighs in tight few Featherweights are going to break free before they are smothered out. I got lucky and knew what she was going for and broke free before she could lock it in.

Erin: It was more Olivia in the 2nd until you caught her with a nasty body shot that bent her in two and sent her to the mat. Were you shocked that you knocked her out with a body punch?

Miley: Officially it will go down that way but she was out from a punch to the jaw. I hit her in the stomach on the way down.

Erin: You're 13-2 since joining the Barbies and if you beat Catrinel Menghia you might get a shot at the title. How do you like your chances against Catrinel?

Miley: This is the 3rd time we fought. She beat me with a split decision then I knocked her out. It will be close but I look forward to fighting her again.

Erin: Next we have Olivia Holt. Livvy, we were just talking to Miley and to be honest, she got lucky.

Olivia: Not at all. Sure I was winning the fight and you can't let your guard down or you can get knocked out. Especially against Miley.

Erin: Nobody can blame you. Miley is an excellent fighter and has beaten the top fighters. Now, the dirty fighting got a bit out of control. Is there any bad blood between the two of you?

Olivia: Most fans think that's the case but what happens in the cage stays in the cage. Miley and I went out to Krysha Mira after the fight.

Erin: I heard Putin owns Krysha Mira.

Olivia: I wouldn't doubt it. He seems to have his hands in everything especially when beautiful women are involved.

Erin: You'll be fighting Victoria Justice in Greece. Any thoughts?

Olivia: This will be one of my biggest fights. Both of us have title aspirations and Victoria is one of the best Featherweights. I'll have to bring my A game if I plan on climbing up in the rankings.

Erin: That might be a tall task seeing tha Victoria is one of the hottest Featherweight. Good luck in the cage.

Olivia: Thanks, I'll need it.

Erin: Next up we have the very controversial Vanessa Hudgrens. Nessa, where do we start?

Vanessa: What do you mean by that? I haven't done anything controversial have I?

Erin: Oh, let's see. Kylie banned you from Vanessa's victims; you got a face full of snow courtesy of Joalin Loukamaa. The Conspiracy Pigeon has accused you of being a Witch and of being an Alcoholic; and Hayden Panettiere has arranged a Tag Team Boxing match between you and your Sister Stella and Alexandra and Caroline Paul.

Vanessa: Are you forgetting anything? You must think I go around and look for trouble

Erin: I guess it just follows you around.

Vanessa: Listen, Erin. First off that big bully Joalin jumped me and before I could fight back she pulled my jacket over my head and shoved my face in the snow then stuffed snow down my shirt. In a gym it would have been a totally different outcome. I'm not a fucking witch. OK, I've dressed up as one on Halloween and played one on TV but that's it

Erin: I have seen you have a drink or two on more than one occasion.

Vanessa: Big deal, everyone likes to relax now and then. And for the Tag Team Boxing match, Hayden asked me if I'd like to fight Alexandra and her sister. How could I turn that down. It will be the easiest payday of my career. Are we here to talk about my fight against Mercedeh Allen.

Erin: Your booth came in a little desperate seeing that the loser would have a 3 fight losing streak. Does it put extra pressure on you?

Vanessa: Nobody likes losing streaks, especially me. I've already beaten Mercedeh once but that was a year ago. A lot has changed since then.

Erin: It didn't start out well and by the middle of the first round Mercedeh was looking like she was going in for the kill. How badly were hurt?

Vanessa: OK, I wasn't ready for her to come out on fire like she did. She wanted to end it right away but I survived and as the round went on she slowed down.

Erin: Are you saying that she may have punched herself out?

Vanessa: Not really but she spent a lot of energy and sometimes that backfires.

Erin: You managed to take over but she took the fight deep into the 5th round. Do you feel that your conditioning won the fight?

Vanessa: It didn't hurt but I think it was the body shots and the fact that she was leaking a lot of blood that allowed me to take control. I'll have to do better against Seulgi. She's one of those Idols who just doesn't stop throwing down.

Erin: Our next fighter, Kelli Berglund is coming off an injury that saw her miss the Antarctic event. Welcome back, Kelli

Kelli: It's great to be back. Having to watch your teammates fight is fun but I missed getting in the cage.

Erin: Reese Witherspoon is known for her striking and her nasty submissions. How do you prepare for someone as well rounded as Reese?

Kelli: First off she not only can punch but her legs are amazing and she's been known to win by head kicks. In her last 4 wins she's won with Armbar and a Stripping Submission as well as a Head Kick and in her last fight she kicked Idols Nancy so hard in the chest that the ref immediately stopped the fight. I want none of that thank you very much.

Erin: How much pressure is on you to win?

Kelli: Kylie is fair as long as you give it everything you have. There's pressure alright but that's why we fight.

Erin: You had a very balanced fight easily beating Reese to the punch and also taking her down and controlling the action on the mat.

Kelli: It did go my way but I had a long time to get myself ready.

something you've been working on?

Erin: This is the first time we got to see your ground game. Was that Kelli: Absolutely, you see a lot of rookies who can throw down. Some of them are amazing but sometimes when they get into the cage with a ground fighter as good as Reese they fall apart and either get submitted or pounded into the mat. I felt I did pretty good with my ground and pound and I think I surprised Reese with an armbar.

Erin: Next we have Lucy Hale. Lucy, another rough match.

Lucy: I know, I go into each fight full of confidence but I haven't performed as of late.

Erin: Jaclyn Swedberg has had her ups and downs also but looked like she's come out of her slump.

Lucy: I just wish the ref would have let me continue. That was a horrible call. I was hurt but far from done. Jaclyn was in worse shape.

Erin: The word is that Kylie has hired extra trainers to help out a few struggling Barbies. Do you think this will help you?

Lucy: I'm not going to turn it down. I'm committed to winning.

Erin: You actually were taking the fight to Jaclyn and had her in big trouble until the end of the first. What happened?

Lucy: I let my guard down and she tagged me with right to the chin.

Erin: You were out on your feet. How badly were you hurting?

Lucy: I was seeing double and had trouble finding my stool.

Erin: You recovered nicely and continued to punish Jaclyn but then.

Lucy: Then Jaclyn lands a few shots and I'll admit she stung me and my legs gave out but I was ready for her. The ref never gave me the chance to recover and immediately waved off the fight.

Erin: You did have tears welling in your eyes and I'm sure Dita Von Teese felt she was protecting you.

Lucy: What about Jaclyn, When she was on her back Dita let her continue. I guess I'll have to stay on my feet and go for a knockout or submission.

Erin: You dropped out of the top 20 and will be fighting Euhna from the Idols in Athens. What will you be doing differently?

Lucy: Winning I hope. I haven't fared well against Asian competition. We'll see what the new trainer will have for me.

Injured Fighters

Erin: Another injured fighter is former Featherweight and Lightweight Champion Julianne Hough. Jules, are you back to 100 percent?

Julianne: Absolutely. I was really pissed off that the fight was stopped but looking back I was pulped up pretty bad.

Erin: That was another classic fight between you and Jessa Hinton and if I remember correctly the strikes were even at 55 each. You two were really beating the snot out of each other but like you said you were bleeding all over and it made it look bad.

Julianne: I wish the refs would look at the big picture. I can see if your eye is swelling shut and you can't see but this was a cut under my eye. My eye wasn't swelling and I could see just fine.

Erin: Sometimes it's the optics and what looks bad to the fans looks bad to the refs.

Julianne: I'm over it now and if I get a win I'll get a title shot.

Erin: That will be between either Jessa or Dove Cameron.

Julianne: I'd love to fight Jessa again but I think Dove will win.

Erin: Why's that? She hasn't shown any signs that she is capable of beating Jessa.

Julianne: Never count Dovey out. She's one of the most positive fighters and takes each fight as a new challenge.

Erin: You'll be fighting Lais Ribero from Death by Bikini. How will you deal with her incredible reach advantage?

Julianne: Lot's of ducking and dodging and keeping out of her power zone.

Erin: She does have a big height and reach advantage but she also has impressive knock out power.

Julianne: You don't have to tell me. I saw her fight against Elisabetta Gregoraci. Elisabetta was on an impressive 7 fight win streak and hadn't been knocked out in over 18 months. That straight right to the jaw hit Elisabetta so hard I think she was out before she hit the ground. I'll be looking to stay upright at all costs as a shot like that could end your career.

Erin: Are the talks true that you are considering moving up to Welterweight?

Julianne: That would be natural for me. I'd love to be the 1st fighter to win a title in 3 divisions.

Erin: We look forward to seeing you in the cage again.
Julianne: It's been strange not being able to fight. I really missed it.

Erin: That will do it for the UCC XI. We'll be traveling to the Medditerrean and will do this again after UCC XI in Athens, Greece.

XOXO
