2018 RVHS Summer Reading for Rising Honors/AP Students

Suggestion: Choose the indicated novel(s) or essay(s) from the list, based on the class you will be entering in August 2018, in addition to the school-wide novel of your choice. To remember what you have read, take notes on the major themes (big ideas) and how the author uses the story to express these ideas. (Example: How does Kafka express the idea that fate or destiny cannot be avoided?)

Summer Reading Website: https://sites.google.com/richland2.org/rvsummerreading/home

Course:	2018 Summer Reading List:
English 1 Honors	Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde (Stevenson)
English 2 Honors	American Born Chinese (Yang) OR Red Scarf Girl (Jiang) OR The Three Body Problem (Liu) OR The Trial (Kafka)
English 3 Honors	The Great Gatsby (Fitzgerald) AND My Antonia (Cather) OR The Jungle (Sinclair)
English 4 Honors	Great Expectations (Dickens) OR King Lear (Shakespeare) OR Wuthering Heights (Bronte) OR Never Let Me Go (Ishiguro)
AP Language and Composition	Between the World and Me (Coates) AND "Eyes in the Aisles: Why is Cap'n Crunch Looking Down at my Kid" (On website) AND Obama Gun Control Speech Transcript and Analysis (On website) AND Their Eyes Were Watching God (Hurston) OR The Great Gatsby (Fitzgerald)
AP Literature and Composition	Macbeth (Shakespeare) OR Midsummer Night's Dream (Shakespeare) AND The Secret Life of Bees (Kidd) AND How to Read Literature Like a Professor (Foster)