Tom : At the end of the school week, we have a choice. We can do extra work in the library or sports or, like me, we can do voluntary work. We do projects which help the local community, and we recently finished one at a school for young children. It's a new playground which we helped to build. We set up the new play equipment, and the children love it. That feels good, and we had lots of fun, too.

Rosa: On Saturday mornings, I volunteer at the local library. There are various jobs which you can do there. For example, you can take books to the homes of disabled people who can't get to the library. But my favourite is my little reading group. I read stories to young children that I meet every week. They love it, and I really enjoy that. They don't pay me, but I'm allowed to borrow books instead, and that's very nice
