- Spring Semester Internships (January to May)
 - Interviews: Early January
 - Placements by: February 1st
- Summer Internships (May to August)
 - Interviews: Mid May
 - Placements by: June 1st
- Fall Semester Internships (August to December)
 - Interviews: Early August
 - Placements by: September 1st
- Please note that these are estimated timelines. Legislative offices may request interns outside of these program windows.

General Information:

- How to Apply: Please apply through our Wisconsin Legislative Internship application on the Legislative Human Resources Office: <https://legis.wisconsin.gov/lhro/internships/>.
 - You will need to attach a resume, cover letter, and writing sample (5 pages max) as part of the application.
- Internships with the Wisconsin State Legislature are generally unpaid but will provide valuable experience and helpful insight into state government. They will also create an opportunity to meet Assembly and Senate leadership and build a network in Madison politics.
- Paid and unpaid internships are available.
- We are looking for students that are available for at least 8 hours per week and are interested in state government, politics, or communications. Interns will be placed with the office that best fits their interests and strengths. Most offices will need help Mon-Fri, 9:00am-5:00pm.
- Students benefit from a wide range of hands-on learning opportunities that provide valuable political experience, helpful insight, and a unique look inside state government operations. Some of the responsibilities are:
 - Constituency Work – Consists of responding to comments sent in by individuals, meeting with area residents, and working with local, state, and federal agencies to resolve constituent problems.
 - Legislation – Tracking current legislative proposals that have been introduced, researching new policy topics for future legislation, and drafting legislative proposals for introduction in the Assembly and Senate. Interns also have many opportunities to observe Assembly and/or Senate committee meetings, state budget deliberations, legislative sessions, and other State Capitol events.
 - Press – Includes tracking local media sources for references to state and local politics of interest, drafting press releases and editorials, and preparing remarks and speeches.
 - Data Entry – Working with our computer database to enter incoming constituent contacts, track constituent opinions, and update electronic records.

US Senate

Senator Tammy Baldwin

A limited number of paid internships to support the work of Senator Baldwin's office are available in her Washington, D.C., Milwaukee and Madison offices. As an intern you will work on a wide range of projects and will work with staff in an administrative capacity to address constituent requests and concerns.

Applications are currently being accepted for spring internships in Senator Baldwin's Madison and Milwaukee offices. Student interns will have the opportunity to interact with state staff on a variety of matters, including constituent correspondence, legislative concerns, casework, and office communications. Strong candidates will have excellent written and verbal communication skills and be capable of working independently on a wide variety of tasks. Other valued qualities for this position include attention to detail, customer service, and the ability to work in a fast-paced environment with a pleasant, professional manner. Interns must be able to work 10 hours per week in Madison and 20-30 hours per week in DC, and will be compensated at the rate of $15 per hour. Schedules are made upon a student's availability.

Please note: Senator Baldwin's office participates in E-Verify and will require a Form I-9 to provide to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the Social Security Administration (SSA) to confirm that one is authorized to work in the U.S.

- Need to set up an account to apply.
- The deadline to apply for a fall internship in Washington, D.C. is July 12. The deadline to apply for a fall internship in Madison or Milwaukee is July 31. Please apply using the forms above.
- Internships are paid.
- If you have any questions regarding the internship program, please email Josue Peralta, josue_peralta@baldwin.senate.gov.

Senator Ron Johnson

- Full application details and information here: <https://www.ronjohnson.senate.gov/internships>
- Internship opportunities are available in all 4 offices: Oshkosh, Milwaukee, Madison and Washington, DC.
 - Internships in the Washington, DC office allow students to experience the legislative process firsthand. Washington office interns may assist with legislative research, attend committee hearings, conduct Capitol tours, and help with administrative duties.
 - Oshkosh, Milwaukee and Madison internships allow students to gain experience with casework, constituent services, and constituent outreach. Internship duties in any of the three offices can be tailored to a student's career goals and policy interests

- Summer internships: completed packets are due the second Friday in March.
Fall semester internships: completed packets are due the first Friday in August
Spring semester internships: completed packets are due the first Friday in December
- Internship opportunities are available year-round. Spring internships run from early January to May, the summer internships run from May to August, and the fall internships run from September to December. Start and end dates can be flexible to accommodate a student's academic semester schedule
- College students, graduate students, and recent graduates who are considering further education programs are encouraged to apply. College credit is available
- Any questions regarding internships in Senator Ron Johnson's office should be sent to internships@ronjohnson.senate.gov.
- Intern contact: Joshua Hartling Joshua_Hartling@ronjohnson.senate.gov
- Email material to internships@ronjohnson.senate.gov. Unofficial transcripts are acceptable.
 - A one page resume
 - Two letters of recommendation
 - A college transcript
 - A writing sample in response to the following statement:
Senator Ron Johnson's office is guided by the following 5 core values: teamwork, respect, integrity, professionalism, and loyalty. Choose one of these, and in a few paragraphs, discuss what that value means to you and how you demonstrate it.

US House of Representatives—WI Congressional Delegation

Representative Bryan Steil

- In the Washington, DC office
 - Internships run throughout the fall, spring or summer semesters for college students. The hours are flexible to accommodate students' hectic course schedules, but generally run 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. when Congress is in session, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. when not in session.
 - Interns can be paid dependent on hours worked.
 - They may be asked to answer phones, run errands, research legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attend hearings and briefings and answer constituent letters on various issues before the House. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office.
- In the District office
 - Internships run throughout the fall, spring or summer semesters for college students. Interns may be asked to do a variety of things, including day-to-day office work such as answering phones, writing letters and assisting with media clips. In addition, interns may be assigned to assist in various constituent case work or work on District-based projects of importance.
- To apply:
 - There is an application here (<https://steil.house.gov/services/internships>), but interested students are strongly encouraged to send their resume and a writing sample directly to Intern contact: Ryan Hahnfeld, Ryan.Hahnfeld@mail.house.gov
 - Applicants must include a resume, cover letter, writing sample, references, and what semester (Spring, Summer or Fall) that they would like to intern.
 - Interviews are usually in early March for Summer, August for Fall, and November for Spring
 - Internship application deadlines: Summer-March 15th; Fall-August 15th; Spring-December 15th
 - To apply for an internship in one of our offices, please complete and submit the Internship form: <https://steil.house.gov/services/internships/internship-form>
