ON THE QUESTION: Police Chief Crowe said a crosswalk is at the site already, but added that it was “a good idea to err on the side of caution.” Mayor Hogan said the Board of Public Safety’s recommendation would be passed on to the Law & Ordinance Committee of the Common Council. Commissioner Sengstock noted a similar problem exists on Center Street, with pedestrian traffic crossing from the city parking lot to the Hornell Area YMCA. Mayor Hogan and Police Chief Crowe said a crosswalk and a “pedestrians in crosswalk” warning sign could be put up there on Center Street.
