

INTERVIDA

Inter-vida;

Inter: This word means between or among.

Vida: Is an Spanish word and it means life.

Intervida is a non-governmental and independent Spanish development NGO. The organization is based in Barcelona.

- Mission:

Intervida towards sustainable human development, providing the resources necessary so that the most disadvantaged populations can strengthen their capacities and create opportunities to improve their living conditions.

- Action:

At Intervida, our development projects are aimed at promoting dignity and improving the living conditions of children and their families. And to do this, the Convention on the Rights of the Child is the main referent upon which our actions are based.

Currently, Intervida is active in several countries in Latin America, Asia and Africa, offering its support to nearly five million people.

