EMAIL 1 — SOMETHING’S COMING TOMORROW - PRELAUNCH WEIPE - Send on 10th to cookie your link

Day before launch · Primes your list

✉️ SUBJECT LINES

1. Something’s coming tomorrow for anyone who’s ever wanted to do more with their faith
2. This goes live tomorrow at 11am (and it quietly changes everything)
3. don’t buy anything today — wait for my email tomorrow
4. tomorrow, the walls come down

📄 PREVIEW TEXT

1. Plus a 30% coupon and a bonus package, just for you.
2. For every believer with a message and no way to share it.
3. Set a reminder: 11am EST.

✉️ EMAIL BODY

Quick heads-up, because I don’t want you to miss this.

Tomorrow at 11am EST, something brand-new goes live.

And if you’ve ever felt a pull to share your faith — to write the devotional, to start a little ministry, or even to earn an honest income doing it — this was built for you.

For years, believers have hit the same walls: no writing skill, no design skill, no tech skill, no time, no budget.

So the message stayed locked inside.

👉 Get on the early list — see what drops tomorrow

Tomorrow, every one of those walls comes down.

I’ll send you the link the moment it opens — along with a 30% off coupon and a bonus package I built just for my readers.

Don't buy anything today.

Just watch your inbox tomorrow morning.

Set one reminder — tomorrow, 11am EST — and I'll make sure you're at the front of the line.

 Be first in line when it opens (11am EST tomorrow)

P.S. The best deal is always in the first few hours. Don't miss the opening.

EMAIL 2 — IT'S LIVE (YOUR 30% COUPON IS INSIDE) - LIVE EMAIL

Launch morning · Send first · MUST-SEND

SUBJECT LINES

1. It's LIVE: FaithForge AI (your 30% coupon is inside)
2. "Ministry without a pulpit" just opened — and it's only $17
3. it's here (and it's not what you think)
4. create a week of faith content before your coffee gets cold

PREVIEW TEXT

1. One-time $17 today. Coupon Forge30off takes 30% off.
2. Serve souls and get provided for — from the same place.
3. Plus my $565 bonus package, free.

EMAIL BODY

It's here.

FaithForge AI is officially live — and I think it's one of the most important tools a believer can own this year.

In plain English: it lets you create and share faith content — devotionals, sermons, Bible studies, prayers, printables, even books — in minutes.

No writing skill. No design skill. No tech headaches.

You bring the heart; it handles the rest.

 Take a look at FaithForge AI here \(coupon: Forge30off\)

And here's what makes it special: it doesn't just help you serve souls — it helps you be provided for while you do it.

A real ministry, and a real income, from the same place.

Today, during launch, it's a one-time $17 — it becomes a monthly subscription after this.

Because you're on my list, use coupon Forge30off to take 30% off.

And grab it through my link, and you'll get my $565+ bonus package free (details in my next email).

 See how it works \(and claim the \$17 launch price\)

I don't say this lightly: this is the kind of decision you look back on as a turning point.

The believers who move early lock in the best price this will ever have.

It takes about two minutes, and everything unlocks instantly.

You're backed by a 30-day money-back guarantee, so there's no risk in simply looking.

If this has been stirring in you, today is the day to answer it.

 Lock in $17 one-time before the price rises

P.S. The $17 one-time price is launch-only. When the cart closes, it moves to monthly. Lock it in while you can.

EMAIL 3 — THREE STEPS, FIVE MINUTES

Launch day · Later send

SUBJECT LINES

1. A full week of faith content before your coffee gets cold
2. This takes 3 steps (and about 5 minutes)
3. from blank page to finished devotional, in minutes
4. if you can type a sentence, you can do this

PREVIEW TEXT

1. No blank page. No software to learn. No team to hire.
2. Watch it build a devotional in front of you.
3. Still $17 today — coupon Forge30off.

EMAIL BODY

Let me show you how simple FaithForge AI really is.

Step 1: You tell it what's on your heart — a verse, a feeling, a topic — or pick from a library of ready-made ideas.

Step 2: It creates a complete, faithful, ready-to-share piece in front of your eyes — and every scripture is looked up word for word.

Step 3: You share it with the people who need it, or offer it for sale.

That's the whole process — three steps, about five minutes.

Watch the 3 steps in action here

What used to take weeks, and skills you never had, now takes the length of a coffee break.

A whole week of content in one sitting.

A printable your church could use on Sunday.

A devotional series, written while dinner cooks.

Even a short book, finished before the weekend is over.

See what you could create today \(coupon: Forge30off\)

And none of it asks you to be a writer, a designer, or a tech person.

If you can type a sentence, you already have everything you need.

It's a one-time $17 during launch, with Forge30off for 30% off.

Add my bonus package on top, and you're not just getting a tool — you're getting a running start.

The blank page that stopped you for years simply isn't there anymore.

 Start creating for $17 one-time

P.S. If you can send a text message, you already have every skill you need. Truly.

EMAIL 4 — IT WAS NEVER A “YOU” PROBLEM

Day 2

SUBJECT LINES

1. The real reason most believers never share their message
2. It was never a “you” problem
3. the 4 walls that kept your calling locked away
4. this isn’t a lack of faith (here’s what it really is)

PREVIEW TEXT

1. It isn’t laziness. It isn’t a lack of calling.
2. The honest reason your message stayed inside.
3. And the one thing that finally changes it.

EMAIL BODY

Can I be honest with you about something?

If you’ve never created that devotional, started that ministry, or shared the gift God placed in you... it isn’t a lack of faith.

It isn’t laziness.

And it certainly isn’t that God forgot to call you.

The reason is almost entirely mechanical — and once you see it, you’ll stop blaming yourself.

Here’s what was really standing in your way

To do it the old way, you needed four different skills.

A writer to craft it. A designer to make it beautiful. A tech person to publish it. A marketer to get it seen.

Four walls — and almost no believer has the time or money to climb all four.

So the message that could have blessed thousands stayed locked inside one faithful heart.

It was never a “you” problem. It was a tools problem.

See how FaithForge removes all four walls

FaithForge AI takes down every one of those walls at once.

The writing, the design, the publishing, the sharing — all handled, all in one place.

You bring the heart; it carries everything that used to stop you.

That’s why this matters, and why it matters now, while it’s a one-time $17.

The thing standing between you and your calling was never you — and now it’s gone.

Tear the walls down for $17 (coupon: Forge30off)

P.S. Still a one-time $17 during launch. After the cart closes, it's monthly. This window won't come again.

EMAIL 5 — $565+ IN FREE BONUSES

Day 2 / Day 3 · Bonus reveal

SUBJECT LINES

1. I'm adding $565+ in free bonuses (if you grab FaithForge through me)
2. These 5 bonuses make FaithForge almost unfair
3. free: everything you need to actually launch
4. your $565 head-start (but only while the cart is open)

PREVIEW TEXT

1. Five fast-action bonuses, delivered instantly.
2. They vanish when the cart closes.
3. What to create, who'll see it, how to earn.

EMAIL BODY

FaithForge AI is powerful on its own.

But I want to make your decision effortless.

So if you get it through my link during launch, I'm including 5 fast-action bonuses — a $565+ value — completely free:

- ✓ The Faith Content Idea Vault ($97) — 300+ ready-to-use ideas so you never face a blank page
- ✓ Zero-to-Audience: The Faith Following Playbook ($127) — grow an engaged faith audience from scratch
- ✓ The Faith Monetization Blueprint ($147) — the 7 proven ways to turn faith content into income
- ✓ Done-For-You Faith Canva Template Pack ($97) — 50+ editable templates for graphics & printables
- ✓ The 30-Day Ministry Launch Plan ($97) — a day-by-day path to a published, income-ready presence

 Claim FaithForge + all 5 bonuses here

Look at what that actually does for you.

The Idea Vault means you never face a blank page.

The Following Playbook means you have people to serve and sell to.

The Monetization Blueprint shows you exactly how the income works.

And the Template Pack and 30-Day Plan hand you the look and the roadmap.

 Get the \$565 bonus stack \(coupon: Forge30off\)

Together, these turn FaithForge from “amazing tool” into a complete, done-with-you launch.

Every question a beginner has — what to make, who'll see it, how to earn — is answered before you even start.

They're delivered the moment you join, straight to your member area.

And they're free — but only while the cart is open.

When it closes, the bonuses close with it, and this head-start is gone.

👉 Grab everything before the bonuses disappear

P.S. Don't leave $565 on the table. The bonuses vanish the moment the cart closes.

EMAIL 6 — THE FAITH NICHE IS EXPLODING

Day 3

SUBJECT LINES

1. The faith niche is quietly exploding (here's how to ride it)
2. Why faith content is the smartest thing to create right now
3. a hungry market almost nobody is serving well
4. the demand is already here — the content isn't

PREVIEW TEXT

1. One of the most searched, most shared topics online.
2. And a 30-day guarantee means zero risk.
3. Meet the demand in minutes.

EMAIL BODY

Here's something most people haven't noticed yet.

Faith is one of the most searched, most shared, most hungry topics online.

People want devotionals, studies, prayers, and printables that strengthen them.

Churches need fresh content constantly.

And most of it is still made the slow, hard, old way.

 Step into a hungry, under-served niche here

That's the opening.

FaithForge AI lets you meet that demand in minutes — to bless your community, build a following, or build real income.

You can do one of those, or all three, at your own pace.

The need is already there; you're simply the one finally able to meet it.

And you don't have to gamble anything to find out.

 Try it risk-free for 30 days (coupon: Forge30off)

It's backed by a full 30-day money-back guarantee.

Create with it, share with it, and if it isn't everything I've said, one email gets you every penny back.

During launch it's a one-time $17, plus my $565 bonus package.

Worst case, you get a refund and lose nothing.

Best case, you've stepped into one of the most meaningful opportunities of the year.

 Claim your spot before the cart closes

P.S. After the cart closes, the launch price and the bonuses are both gone.

EMAIL 7 — “BUT I’M NOT A WRITER...”

Day 3 / Day 4 · Objection crusher

SUBJECT LINES

1. “But I’m not a writer...” (read this)
2. The 3 excuses that keep believers stuck
3. none of these apply to you anymore
4. the last reason you had is gone

PREVIEW TEXT

1. Not a writer? Not techy? No following? Read on.
2. Every excuse, answered in one email.
3. And a guarantee removes the last one.

EMAIL BODY

Every time I share FaithForge, I hear one of three things.

Let me answer all three, plainly.

“But I’m not a writer.” You don’t have to be — the words are created for you; you simply make them yours.

That single fact has freed more people than anything else about this tool.

See how little skill this actually takes

“But I’m not good with technology.” If you can send a text message, you have every skill you need.

There’s nothing to install and nothing to figure out.

“But I don’t have a following, money, or time.” That’s exactly who this was built for.

It takes minutes, costs $17 once, and works even if nobody knows your name yet.

Not one of those three excuses survives contact with how this actually works.

No skill, no following, no problem — start here

And a 30-day guarantee removes the very last reason to hesitate.

You can try it, create with it, and decide with zero risk on the line.

The only thing that doesn’t come with a guarantee is staying exactly where you are.

A year from now, that’s the part you’d regret — not the $17.

Every wall is down; all that’s left is the decision.

Prove it to yourself for $17 (coupon: Forge30off)

P.S. My 5 bonuses ($565+ value) are still included through my link, until the cart closes.

EMAIL 8 — SERVE GOD AND GET PAID?

Day 4

SUBJECT LINES

1. Serve God AND get paid? (yes — here's how)
2. There's no shame in being provided for while you serve
3. Paul made tents (and why that matters for you)
4. purpose on top, provision underneath

PREVIEW TEXT

1. The laborer is worthy of his wages.
2. Your calling can finally support your family.
3. Never one at the cost of the other.

EMAIL BODY

Some believers feel a quiet hesitation about earning from their faith.

So let me put it to rest, gently.

Paul made tents so he could preach freely.

Scripture says the laborer is worthy of his wages.

There has never been shame in a faithful servant being supported by the work of their hands.

See how FaithForge honors both at once

The devotionals, studies, printables, and books you create can be shared freely to bless.

And they can be offered to those who'll gladly pay.

So your calling can finally support your family instead of competing with it.

Purpose on top. Provision underneath.

Never one at the cost of the other — that's the whole heart of this.

Build a ministry that provides \(coupon: Forge30off\)

This is what makes FaithForge different from every other tool you've seen.

It doesn't ask you to choose between serving God and providing for your home.

It was built so you could do both, from the very same place.

During launch it's a one-time $17, 30% off with Forge30off, plus my $565 bonus package.

That's a small price to finally stop choosing between the two.

Start today before launch pricing ends

P.S. Launch pricing ends when the cart closes — then it's monthly, for everyone.

EMAIL 9 — $17 ONCE VS $X EVERY MONTH

Day 4 · Price justification

SUBJECT LINES

1. $17 once vs $X every month (don't overthink this)
2. Your 30% coupon is still live — here's the math
3. the price of a sandwich, once, forever
4. this is the cheapest it will ever be

PREVIEW TEXT

1. Hundreds to hire. $100+/mo for the tools. Or $17 once.
2. Coupon Forge30off drops it another 30%.
3. Wait, and you pay monthly — indefinitely.

EMAIL BODY

Let's talk plainly about value.

To hire a writer, a designer, and someone for the tech — even once — costs hundreds.

The tools professionals use for this run well over a hundred dollars every single month.

And that's before you've created a single thing.

Now compare that to what you're being offered here.

Compare that to $17 one-time — here

FaithForge AI does it all for a one-time $17.

And with coupon Forge30off, that drops another 30%.

That's about the price of a sandwich — once, forever.

After launch, it becomes a monthly subscription, like every other tool of its kind.

The difference between deciding today and deciding later is literally pay-once versus pay-forever.

Lock in the one-time price (coupon: Forge30off)

I'm not telling you this to rush you.

I'm telling you because it's simply how the launch works.

The believers who move now lock in full access for a single payment.

The ones who wait will pay monthly, indefinitely, for the very same thing.

When you see it in those terms, it isn't really a hard decision.

Pay once, never monthly — grab it now

P.S. The door, at this price, closes soon. After that, it's monthly for good.

EMAIL 10 — YOUR QUESTIONS, ANSWERED

Day 4 / Day 5 · FAQ

SUBJECT LINES

1. Your FaithForge questions, answered
2. “Will this actually work for me?”
3. everything you wanted to ask (before you buy)
4. the questions I keep getting

PREVIEW TEXT

1. Skill? Accuracy? One-time? Refunds? All here.
2. Straight answers, no fluff.
3. Then the only real test: try it.

EMAIL BODY

The most common questions I’m getting, answered quickly.

Do I need any skill? No — if you can type a sentence, you can use it.

Is the scripture accurate? Yes — every verse is looked up word for word, and you approve everything before it goes out.

Got a question? The best answer is to see it

Is it really a one-time payment? During launch, yes — $17 once. After that, it’s monthly.

What can I actually make? Devotionals, sermons, Bible studies, prayers, printables, newsletters, even full books.

How fast can I start? Minutes — there’s nothing to install, and everything unlocks instantly.

Do I need an audience already? No — it works even if you’re starting from zero today.

What if it’s not for me? You’re covered by a 30-day money-back guarantee — one email gets you a full refund.

Try it risk-free for 30 days (coupon: Forge30off)

So here’s where that leaves you.

There’s no skill required, no risk to take, and no reason to wait.

The only question left is the one no FAQ can answer for you: will you actually begin?

For $17, with a full guarantee behind you, that’s about as easy as a yes ever gets.

And my $565 bonus package is still attached to every purchase through my link.

Answer the last question by trying it yourself

P.S. The bonuses and the launch price both disappear when the cart closes.

EMAIL 11 — FROM ONE DEVOTIONAL TO A FAITH BRAND

Day 5

SUBJECT LINES

1. What you can actually build with this (it's bigger than you think)
2. From one devotional to an entire faith brand
3. the ceiling is higher than you realize
4. start with one piece — grow as big as you like

PREVIEW TEXT

1. A library, printables, a newsletter, a storefront.
2. You don't need all of it on day one.
3. But it's good to know it's there.

EMAIL BODY

Most people start with a single devotional.

Then they realize what they're really holding.

With FaithForge AI, that same ability grows into a whole faith presence.

A library of content. Printables you sell. A newsletter that gathers a community.

Even your own little storefront — all from the heart God gave you and the words it hands you.

See how far this can actually go

You don't have to do any of that on day one.

You just start — with one piece of content, for $17.

But it's good to know the ceiling is high above you, not inches over your head.

Start small now, and grow as large as you're called to, in your own time.

The seed is $17 today; the harvest is entirely up to you.

Plant the seed today (coupon: Forge30off)

P.S. Launch pricing and my bonuses both end when the cart closes.

EMAIL 12 — HEADS UP: THE PRICE GOES UP SOON

Day 5 · Price-rise warning

SUBJECT LINES

1. Heads up: the price goes up soon
2. this is your reminder before it's too late
3. the $17 window is closing
4. don't say I didn't warn you

PREVIEW TEXT

1. One-time becomes monthly when the cart closes.
2. The coupon and bonuses go with it.
3. Decide before the best deal disappears.

EMAIL BODY

Short and important.

The one-time $17 launch price for FaithForge AI is ending soon.

When the cart closes, it switches to a monthly subscription — and the 30% coupon and my bonus package go with it.

If you've been thinking about it, this is the moment to decide.

 Grab it before the price jumps — here

Not because I'm rushing you — but because the single best deal this product will ever have is about to disappear.

Once the price rises, it does not come back down.

And remember, you're protected by a 30-day guarantee.

You can decide now and still change your mind later, with zero risk.

Deciding today costs you nothing but the few minutes it takes to join.

 Lock in $17 one-time (coupon: Forge30off)

P.S. This is the window. When it closes, the one-time price is gone for good.

EMAIL 13 — CLOSING TODAY

Final day · Morning · MUST-SEND

SUBJECT LINES

1. Closing today: FaithForge AI
2. This is the last day (here's everything you get)
3. last chance at the one-time price
4. the cart closes tonight

PREVIEW TEXT

1. Everything laid out, one more time.
2. Price rises, coupon dies, bonuses gone after tonight.
3. If it's been on your heart, don't let it slip.

EMAIL BODY

Today is the last day to get FaithForge AI at launch pricing.

Let me lay it all out one more time, so your decision is easy:

- ✓ The full FaithForge AI platform — create faith content in minutes, no skill
- ✓ A one-time $17 (becomes monthly after today) — 30% off with coupon Forge30off
- ✓ My 5 fast-action bonuses — a $565+ value, free
- ✓ A 30-day money-back guarantee — zero risk

Get everything before the cart closes

After tonight, three things change at once.

The one-time $17 becomes a monthly subscription.

The Forge30off coupon stops working.

And my $565+ in bonuses disappear for good.

If this has been on your heart, don't let it slip away over a few hours.

Claim FaithForge + $565 bonuses (coupon: Forge30off)

It takes about two minutes, and everything unlocks instantly.

You're still covered by the full 30-day guarantee, so the decision carries no risk.

The only thing you can't get back is this price, once it's gone.

Months from now, you'll be glad you moved on the day it was easy.

This is that day.

 Say yes before midnight — start here

P.S. Coupon Forge30off still works for a few more hours. Use it now while it's live.

EMAIL 14 — FINAL HOURS (TWO ROADS)

Final day · Evening

SUBJECT LINES

1. Final hours (your 30% coupon expires tonight)
2. Two roads — and only one is still open after tonight
3. this closes in hours
4. a year from now, which believer will you be?

PREVIEW TEXT

1. Same you, same calling — one decision.
2. Coupon and bonuses expire when the cart closes.
3. I'll see you on the inside.

EMAIL BODY

This is it — the final hours.

Picture the two roads in front of you.

On the first, you close this email and nothing changes — the message you've carried stays locked inside, the way it has for years.

That road is comfortable, and it leads exactly where you already are.

 Choose the road that changes things — here

On the second road, you say yes tonight.

A year from now, you have a library of content carrying your faith into the world.

People you'll never meet are stronger because of something you made.

And an honest new stream of provision is flowing into your home.

Same you. Same calling. The only difference is one decision, made before midnight.

 Say yes tonight (coupon: Forge30off)

The coupon Forge30off and my $565+ bonus package both expire when the cart closes tonight.

After that, the price moves to monthly, and this whole offer is simply over.

I'd rather you walked through this door than watched it close.

You've carried this long enough — tonight you can finally set it free.

It takes two minutes, and the guarantee means there's nothing to lose.

 Claim it all before midnight

P.S. You've carried this long enough. Let it out. I'll see you on the inside.

EMAIL 15 — LAST CALL

Final day · Closing hours · MUST-SEND

SUBJECT LINES

1. Last call — closing in a few hours
2. Final chance for FaithForge AI (then it's gone)
3. this is the email you don't ignore
4. doors close tonight

PREVIEW TEXT

1. A few hours left at this price.
2. $17 becomes monthly. Coupon dies. Bonuses gone.
3. Don't let this be one more "someday."

EMAIL BODY

Final call.

In just a few hours, the cart for FaithForge AI closes for good at this price.

When it does, the one-time $17 becomes a monthly subscription, the Forge30off coupon stops working, and my $565+ in bonuses disappear.

If you've read this far, something in you wants this.

 Grab FaithForge AI now — before it closes

Trust that nudge.

For $17, with a full guarantee behind you, there is simply nothing to lose — and a calling to gain.

Don't let this become one more "someday" you quietly carry into next year.

The door closes in hours, and it won't open at this price again.

This is the moment to decide.

 This is your last chance (coupon: Forge30off)

P.S. It won't open at this price again. I'll see you on the inside.
