

Oral Performance for Lesson 16 Sport 运动

your name 你的名字: _____

Your language partner's name 你朋友的名字: _____

Create a dialogue asking each other what sports each likes and dislikes (Name at least three): What is each other's favorite and least favorite. Ask your friend to teach you how to play his or her favorite sport. Then ask if your friend can play a particular sport not mentioned earlier. At the end suggest a time to play a [particular sport] together. Perhaps one can suggest teaching the other one to play a particular sport.

Both language partners need to write out the entire dialogue in Chinese language.

You should try to work all the following questions into your dialogue! Create a coherent conversation so you can easily memorize the entire dialogue. If they flow logically, it would be easier for you to memorize your entire script.

Practice and try to memorize your script as much as possible. Perform this in front of your instructor no later than the due date to avoid a late penalty.

1. A: What sports do you like [to do]? (Tell me at least 3 sports you like)

Two ways to say this:

Translate: _____

B: _____

2. What is your favorite sport? (Use 最 zui4:most)

Two ways to ask:

A: _____

B: _____

A: Do you play it often?

Translate: _____

B: _____

A: Can you teach me how to play [select one of B's favorite sport]

你可以不可以。。。。

你可以。。。吗？

B: Of course [or “No problem!”]

Translate: _____

3. A: Can you play ...[name a sport not mentioned yet]?

你会不会...? Or 你会...吗?

B: _____, how about you?

4. A: What sport don't you like (to do) (Share at least 2 sports you dislike.)

Translate: _____

B: 我不喜欢_____，_____，也不喜欢_____。

5. A: What sport do you dislike the most?

Translate: _____

B: 我最不喜欢_____。

6. A: Let's go play [a certain sport] tomorrow/this Saturday/ this Sunday!

Translate:

B: Ok! See you [tomorrow]!

Translate:
