PROM GUEST FORM

POLICY

A. Junior and Senior students in the Armstrong School District shall have the right to attend and invite 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students or older adult guests (boy/girl) UNDER the age of 21, (unless they are currently enrolled in the Armstrong School District) to their formal school dances.

B. The guest of the high school student shall face the legal consequences under the authority of the law enforcement official for any violations that may affect the safety and well being of any student or adult.

C. If the building principal receives a guest request for attendance approval, the following criteria will be used for consideration and final approval.

1. The building principal will determine if the requesting party is/was a high school student in good standing with no major discipline problems.

2. The principal shall be informed in writing of all guests that are not students in the school 15 days prior to the Junior/Senior Prom.

3. Guests who have graduated high school will provide proper identification (i.e.- a driver's license).
