MUSIC PRODUCTION PORTFOLIO

Sound Design • Instrumentals • Production

ABOUT

I'm dus:a, a music producer whose sound leans towards Afrobeats, its fusions, and Amapiano, with experience exploring a wide range of genres, including house, trap, drill, and lo-fi. My approach to production is rooted in versatility, creative sound blending, and the exploration of different rhythms, textures, and moods to create music with its own identity. I enjoy experimenting across genres and adapting my sound to different ideas, styles, and creative directions.
