MAAEA is a network of educators, administrators, and community workers seeking to meet the educational needs of the Asian American community.

Our mission is to:

- Identify and meet the needs of Asian American educators in Massachusetts
- Bring together Asian American educators of different backgrounds to create a support network
- Identify and advocate for the educational needs of the Asian American community
- Work together with other educational groups of color both locally and nationally
- Collaborate with other sectors of the Asian and Asian American community to address issues of common concern
- Encourage members of the Asian American community to enter the field of education
