Abstract [Times New Roman – 11 – Bold]

Abstract is in English covering the central issues of the study, the objectives, the methods/approaches and the results of the study. Abstract consists of one paragraph, not to exceed 200 words. (Times New Roman – 11 – single space).

Keywords: A maximum of five keywords separated by semicolon [Times New Roman – 11 – single space]

JEL classification: (based on JEL classification system)

1. INTRODUCTION [Times New Roman - 11 - bold]

Introduction explains the background on particular issues and the urgency and rationalization of the activities (research or community services). The aims of the activity and problem-solving design are described in this section. A review of relevant literature and any hypothesis development are also included in this section. [Times New Roman – 11 – normal].

2. RESEARCH METHOD

This section explicates the design of the activities, the scope or objects, materials and equipment, study site/location, data collection technique, variables and operational definitions, and analysis technique. [Times New Roman – 11 – normal].

3. RESULTS AND DISCUSSIONS

3.1 Results

This section presents the results of the study that may be equipped with tables, figures (graphs), and/or diagrams [Times New Roman – 11 – normal].

3.2 Tables and Figures

Tables and figures should be placed as close to their reference point in text as possible and they should be numbered consecutively as they appear in the text. All Figures and Tables must have titles and must be referenced from within the text. We remark that, all Tables and Figures should be included in one file, and integrated into the text at the appropriate points (not in an appendix), unless there are large and interrupt the flow of the text. In this case they should be appended and numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals with a descriptive caption. Appendix should be placed at the end of your paper, after the references.

Avoid colour images as the journal is printed in black and white. Illustrations should be preferably included into the text as objects. They should be consecutively numbered in Arabic numerals with the heading always above the Table or Figure; they should be typed in bold font 11, single line spacing and the source beneath, also single line spacing. Please leave one line empty before and after every illustration and/or Table.
