

Community Service Internships

Sunrise Blocks - Rev. 1/15/2026 - On-going Updates Coming!

Below is a list of current and potential community service internships. This is not the complete list for the entire program. That list is located on our website and can be located at Past CSI Sites. This list is prepared based upon current CSIs and organizations that have reached out to the SLFP and would like to promote these opportunities. As always, you do not need to pursue these opportunities. You can choose!

CSI Name	Alger County Renewable Energy Solutions, ACRES for short Immediate Assistance!
CSI Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Help in recruiting presenters/programs. Some programming is carried over year to year but may need some tweaking. An example would be choosing the movies at the Gallery Coffee Shop based upon cost (free) and streaming available at the shop.</li> <li>• The CSI could recruit or develop content for his/her own program to share during Earth Fest 2026.</li> <li>• There is a proposed solar array tour that can be arranged.</li> <li>• What about some cross generational haiku or reflection (art) entries?</li> <li>• Promotion of Earth Fest to include distribution of flyers, posting on Facebook.</li> <li>• We have been given two small solar panels to be used in table-top demos. Maybe some of the Renewable Energy Minors may have an interest in developing a DIY workshop with basics covered Run with the Sun DYI 101.</li> <li>• Writing press releases and/or articles to promote Earth Fest and its individual events.</li> </ul> A lot of the work can be done remote - Main event is April 20-25

CSI Name	4-H Programming
CSI Description	4-H is a youth development program that is open to all youth ages 5 to 19. It is largely a club-based program and volunteers can turn any interest into a 4-H project. This flexibility allows student fellows to develop new programs and clubs based upon their hobbies, skill sets, passions. There is no requirement to know a lot about a specific topic to help youth learn about something. We encourage life-long learning and allowing leaders to help young people figure out the answers- not just tell them. There are ample opportunities to volunteer outside of a club setting as well. We have 4-H Exploration Days – a pre-college program at MSU where we bus youth down for the experience of staying in the dorms, navigating a college campus, etc. We also have U.P. 4-H Camp the second week of July. We also have larger events we will need help with planning/ implementing- including a barn dance in June, family picnic in September, awards celebration in the fall, and a livestock workshop in the spring.

	We want this fellowship to be something very meaningful to each individual, so if working with youth is of interest, we can make just about anything work. — Taught ASL to different students in groups for 4-H. Prep materials and discussions for the group.
