Panel 1

A CREATURE similar to the one pictured here sits on a barren rocky planet.

CREATURE (VO): I wonder what everyone else is up to. It was good to see them, even if briefly.

Panel 2

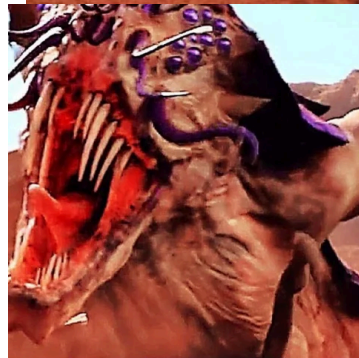

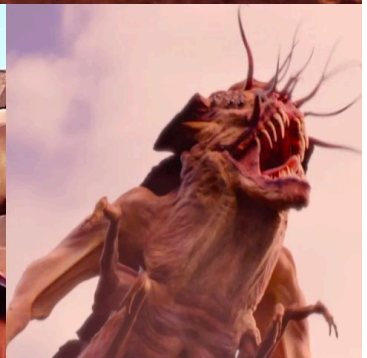

The creature lifts a claw and looks at it.

CREATURE (VO): It was nice that they recognized me. I barely recognize myself anymore.

Panel 3

The creature lays its head on the ground.

CREATURE (VO): There was a new girl with them. I wonder if I had played along whether or not she'd have been added to the code. It feels so long ago...

Panel 1

Flashback. We see JILL FROM MARKETING standing on this same rocky barren planet. She is dressed in the space outfit. She looks at the camera, hands on hips in angry defiance.

JILL: I'm supposed to congratulate you now for stopping the "evil scheme" of someone who is basically your puppet? I don't think so, fuck you.

Panel 2

From the POV a male hand appears, pointed Jill. Jill's clothes vanish, revealing that she has no nipples or pussy. She is surprised by this.

MALE VOICE: So you want to lay it all bare? Very well, I can help with that.

Panel 3

Jill puts her hands to her face as her mouth vanishes, now just smooth skin under her nose.

MALE VOICE: You have quite the mouth on you. I can also fix that.

Panel 4

Jill looks pathetic as she feels for her missing mouth.

MALE VOICE: Or maybe we should do something more with that sharp tongue of yours.

Panel 1

Jill starts to look relieved as a crease begins to form where her mouth was. No lips form.

MALE VOICE: You want to do your own thing and not kiss? That's fine. If you think our missions are too easy then you can help spice them up.

Panel 2

Jill is again panicked as the crease opens like a mouth without lips. But sharp teeth like the Creature's are growing out of her mouth.

JILL: Nnno...wait...

Panels 3-4

Jill begins to transform into the Creature.

PAGE 9

Panel 1

Jill notices that around her the planet has begun to be deleted, leaving nothing but the blackness of space. It is about fifty feet from her.

JILL: No! Not now, not now that I've finally got my body back! All of it!

Panel 2

Jill squeezes her body in fear as the deletion reaches about 10 feet around her.

Panel 3

The ground is deleted from beneath Jill's feet.

Panel 4

A surprised Jill realizes she is alive, floating in space perfectly safe.

JILL: Woah, what? I'm...I'm alive!
