Soli*City Library

Urban Sanctuary, Migrant Solidarity & Hospitality in Global Perspective

This library serves as a reference tool for students, researchers, practitioners, and activists with interest in the growing literature on topics related to Urban Sanctuary, Migrant Solidarity and Hospitality in the Global Perspective. The objective of this bibliography is to share knowledge of the policies and practices of accommodating vulnerable and precarious migrants and refugees in cities of the global north and south. By using the navigation panel ▦ , you can navigate the library; it is organized by continent and by respective subfields and will be regularly updated. If there is a published work that you think we should include, please contact us.
