

RULES

- No self-promotion, including asking to collaborate.
- Do not promote other streamer's channels.
- Do not give raid suggestions (unless prompted).
- Do not be vulgar, racist, homophobic, or sexist.

We want to support each other for our differences, not bring each other down!

- No links in the chat unless prompted by me or if they are Spotify links for song requests.
- Do not sexualize me.

I am not the type of person who is okay with this.

- English only.
- Do not ask to play.

If I play with viewers, I will have the "Playing with Viewers" tag on the Twitch stream.

- Do not ask to be mod.
- Do not friend me on Discord or my personal social media accounts.
- Do not trauma dump.

I am not a professional and cannot give you the advice that you're asking for. If you are in a crisis, please text "HOME" to 741741 or call 800-273-8255.

- No politics.
- Do not ask why someone was banned, unmodded, or unvip-ed.
- Do not discuss other streams' drama.

If you have an issue with another community, that is between you and the other community. Do not bring me or anyone in my community into it.

- Do not involve me in the drama between you and another viewer.

Private DM's are just that, private. I have no responsibility for viewers' private conversations with each other, and I, or my mods, should not be involved in drama. If you have a problem with another viewer, block or ignore them.

- Do not request songs that are as explicit or worse than Cardi B, Cupcake, or Digbar.
- Do not request the same song after I have already skipped it.
