

- Build with legos/magna tiles
- Build a fort with blankets
- Draw a picture
- Play a boardgame
- Write and illustrate a “book” or comic
- Paint a picture/watercolor/finger paint
- Sidewalk chalk with a water
- Use a paintbrush and water to “paint” outside
- Plant a garden/start seeds for the garden and keep a seed journal
- Make hand sanitizer
- Family movie night (during the day with popcorn)
- Read a book
- Audiobooks, audiobooks, audiobooks
- Facetime a friend or family member
- Photo scavenger hunt around the house or outside in nature
- Have a dance party
- Start a rock collection
- Blow bubbles
- Catch a bug in a jar
- Ride your bike
- Create something out of recycled material
- Obstacle course
- Learn to sew or crochet (thank you youtube!)
- Set up a tent and a “campfire,” make smores
- Cook or bake a new recipe, learn a new kitchen skill
- Charades
- Dominoes
- Origami
- Write a letter to a friend, relative or someone who needs it.
- Playdough! Make some yourself and enjoy creating with it.
- Go for a walk and search for things you see in nature. Write them down (10-15 things).
- Collect leaves and make some leaf rubbings with paper and crayons.
- Old magazines—make a collage
- Play soccer with your siblings.
- Play outside on the playset.
- Make a homemade board game
- Bitsbox (coding)
- Learn to type on the computer
- Learn a foreign language
- Learn a new song on the piano
- Build the tallest tower you can :)
- Math workbooks or math word problems

- Make a necklace out of yarn/beads/macaroni.
- Pick wildflowers and press them into a book or make a bookmark
- Research your favorite animal and make a presentation about it to your family.
- Play tag outside with siblings
- Ask mom for some jobs you can do around the house to earn money.
- Sweep the floors, vacuum or clean a bathroom
- Make a video and learn to use video editing computer software (imovie)
- Start a sourdough starter...follow along with us @amybakesbread
- Make a marble run out of recycled materials
- Do some puzzles (set up a folding table if you need to)
- Pull out all your arts and crafts, cotton balls, toothpicks, q-tips, glue and create something
- Rubber band bracelets/friendship bracelets
- Painters tape on floor and make a track for cars, indoor hopscotch...use your imagination
- Card games...lots of them!
- Karaoke
- Watch a birds nest being built and document it with pictures
- Workbooks
- Practice juggling or yo-yos
- Clean your room
- Perler beads
- Photography tutorial online and practice taking pictures in nature
- Make cookies
- Make a sensory bin
- Make paper or look up a youtube tutorial on making something new
- Dot to dot books, sticker puzzles, coloring books
- Flashlight and shadow puppets

Easter Specific Ideas

- Dye Easter Eggs
- Create an Easter Egg hunt for your siblings
- Egg a neighbor's house with nice messages of support, love, inspiring quotes or scriptures (if you want)--hang them from a tree
- Draw an Easter character, read scriptures or plan a family devotional