LAKHIMPUR POLYTECHNIC

REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION

DATE: 11/03/2026

International Women's Day was celebrated at Lakhimpur Polytechnic on 10th March, 2026 at 11 AM onwards in the library hall with active participation from students, faculty members and staff. The program was organized to honor the achievements of women and to reflect on their significant role in shaping society.

The program was graced by the presence of Mrs. Usha Kiran Saikia, a retired teacher, renowned author, and social worker as Chief Guest for the program. The program commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the Chief Guest and the Principal of the institute, marking the formal inauguration of the celebration. This was followed by felicitation and a welcome song by students.

The principal then delivered the inaugural address. In his speech, he highlighted the importance of women's contributions to society and nation-building. Following this, the chief guest delivered an inspiring speech on women's empowerment, dignity, and strength. The next segment of the program featured a faculty address by Rituranjan Gogoi who spoke on the development of women and their growing contributions in different sectors of society. The celebration continued with a graceful dance performance by Riyashree Kakoty and speeches by Anyunya Mazumder, Maytreyi Gogoi, and Rani Changmai on Women's rights and equality.

Later, Dr. Prerona Gogoi delivered a brief but informative lecture about the Internal Complaint Committee in the institution and explain the procedures and processes for reporting and addressing such issues. The program concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Prerona Gogoi. The program come to an end with a closing song performed by a group of students, leaving the audience with a message of respect, equality, and empowerment for women.

Signature of Principal